Stand Up And Cheer for Bill 'Sugar' Cain

Colorful posters reading "Sug, thank you for the memories" and "Stand up and cheer for Sug", hung in the main auditorium of the Maritime Union Hall, on Broadway Friday evening, as over 700 guests gathered to pay homage to one of this city's great high school coaches.

William "Sugar" Cain, physical education and athletics instructor at Dunbar High School for over 30 years, will retire as coach this June.

Presiding at the 6:30 p.m. dinner affair was Gordon H. Stills who expertly handled the program. Following the invocation by the Rev. Lorenzo Graves, minister at Calvary Baptist Church, the guests feasted on a delectable top round roast and Virginia ham dinner.

Guests had a chance to pat their feet to the vibes of Charlie's Company (band) and Miss Ruby Glover, soloist, a Dunbar alumna.

It was then that the master of ceremonies called upon honored guests to bring greetings to the crowd and highlight some of the outstanding achievements "Sugar" Cain had none throughout the years.

Among them were members of the Dunbar High School faculty, Mrs. Julia Woddland, Alan Meachum and Maurice Robinson; Senator Clarence Blount, who commented that the honoree was a "legend, a Symbol of what young blackmen ought and want to be, and added that he was the winningest coach at that time (40's and 50's) in the state.

More greetings came from witty Councilman Clarence "Du" Burns, a Dunbar alumus, who recalled the days when he was a student and played basketball under Mr. Cain. He told the story of the game between Dunbar and Patterson. On that particular day, he recalled, the coach was in the hospital and the assistant was in charge. The Dunbar team was trailing Patterson by a few points when all of a sudden, in the last remaining seconds of the game Dunbar scored and won.

Congratulatory telegrams came from Edward Hurt, former coach at Morgan State College and Mr. and Mrs. Norman (Ruth) Ross.

ROLL CALL

Highlight of the affair was the roll call. Many of Dunbar's great athletes, most of whom were present, stood as Mr. Stills read their names and the sports they played. Among the great basketball, football, baseball, and golf stars were:

Sidney Z Fields, Thompkins Weaver Jr., Joseph W. Parks, Charles Mills, Clarence Cox, Irvin Locusegr, Sam Payne, Bernard W. Ralph, John Eubanks, Edward Bell.

Also Lou Harris, Clyde D. Lyles, Monroe Gilliam Jr., Joseph Pinder, Frank Washington, Randolph Thompson, James Rice, Wilbur Hurt, Claude H. Williams, Carl Hite, James Pearson, Dickie Harris.

And Fred Holloway, Sincy Curley, Nonie C. Whitt, Samuel Barnes, Charlie Moore, Ed Richmond, Jim Richmond, Robert Anderson, Miles Harrison, Shirley Freeman, James Hatcher, James Griffin.

And Irvin E. Chester, Robert L. Douglass, Wilbur R. Alston, Calvin Glascot, Jewel Chambers Jr., Philip A. Harrison, James Glover, James H. Thornton, George Jackson, Lawrence Johnson, Freddie Bee.

Also Donald G. Stevenson, Luel Alexander, Louis Curry, Archie Sturdivant Jr., Reginald Bennett, Lee Lewis, Bernard Scott, Nole McCarroll, Ulysses Perry, Charles Holt, Sidney A. Raines Jr., Ernest Henson.

A presentation in the form of a check came from the school and guests and was made by Maurice Robinson and Freddie Bee, chairman of the testimonial committee.

In his remarks the soft spoken Mr. Cain said, "A man's reach should exceed his grasp or what's a heaven for?" I've always strived to reach for the stars and I've done the best I could.

"February 24 of this year was the greatest victory in Dunbar's history (won MSA title).

"Go forth with strong hearts and trained minds. Seek that adventure. You, my friends, I carry with me your hopes, wishes in everything I do.

"Thanks for spending an evening with Sugar."

MORE ABOUT SMITH

At the recent elegant reception of the Oscar Smiths at Martin's West, Mrs. Smith (Gengine) was elegantly gowned in a gold chiffon dress, with a wide waistband of gold encrusted jewels, with billowing chiffon sleeves that tapered at the wrist with more gold sequins and crystals.

She carried a bouquet of yellow snowflake poms, ball pomps, yellow roses, with a lift out corsage of a large catalaya orchid with yellow center.

Mr. Smith wore a double-breasted gold coat, matching gold shirt, both edged delicately in black.

The guests feasted on a variety of tasty delicacies from a beautifully decorated table in the round which also featured two flowing fountains of champagne punch. Special treat of the evening was the cutting of the cake. Lights in the beautiful ballroom were dimmed and a special flame was lit on the top of the cake as the couple proceeded to cut it with a special decorated gold knife.

Other highlights of the reception included tributes read from Enon Baptist Church by Miss Laura Whitfield; Fulton Baptist Church by Mrs. Hattie Lilly; and the Western District Police Community Relations Council by Mrs. Agnes Gibson.

Guests were introduced to the receiving line by granddaughters Ms. Marlene W. Baskerville and Miss Myra F. White. The champagne toast was offered by son-in-law George A. White. The family was introduced by daughter, Mrs. Bernice S. White, who also presented the honorees with the gold loving cup inscribed with the names of the family.

PHI DELTA KAPPA

The Gamma Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa Sorority recently brought Baltimore city one of the best cultural programs yet. The theatrical extravaganza held at the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute was outstanding in every sense of the word.

The program consisted of "Rich Revivals of Yesterday", "Dance Episode", "At Lincoln Center", "Just the Men", "On Broadway," "At the Concert Grand", "The Metropolitan Opera House is On Broadway Too", "Theme from Two-Thousand-One Space Odyssey", "The Distinguished Lady of Opera Was a Real Flirt", "Cry the Beloved Country".

Guests artists included, Janette Moody, soprano, Donald Coleman, tenor; Joni Palmer, dancer; T. Ray Lawrence, baritone; Joey Feigin, pianist; Clyde Turner, tenor and director.

Special piano arrangements by Miss Margaret Harris, musical director of the Broadway hit, "Two Gentlemen of Verona".

The sorority is dedicated to the task of improving the community in every possible way. Their achievements have been many.

Every soror did her best to help make the program a success. Those directly connected with the program were Sorors Thelma Rice and Ruth Marshall who served as co-chairmen.

Others were Sorors Anne Lakins, Fannie Lawson, Ruth Fauntleroy, Jeanette Johnson, Elizabeth Henderson, Della Macer, Emma Davis, Ethel Hunter, Asalee Porter, Gladys Wallace, Mildred Harriday, Ardena Dixon and Dorothy Bennett. Soror Lucille Johnson is Basileus.

Ushers for the program were the Xinos Club, a youth guidance group sponsored by the sorority. Sorors Anne Larkins and Jean Beckett are their sponsors.

FRISBY SOCIETY

The 8th Annual Closing Dinner of the Herbert M. Frisby Historical Society was held a Sunday ago at the Papillon (House of the Butterfly) . . . high on the hill overlooking Ellicott City.

Mrs. Palestine Anderson was dinner chairwoman. Mrs. Naomi Camper, gave the grace and Mrs. Anethia Williams presided carrying out the theme of room in her gold butterfly earrings, belt and pin.

Mrs. Delores Baden introduced the guest speaker, Samuel Banks, who talked on "The Dawn of a New Day: Blacks In American History".

Mr. Banks told the group that Black History represents a body of knowledge; is researchable and documentable; and is inextricably interwoven with American and world history.

He quoted G. Franklin Edwards, chairman of the Sociology Department of Howard University who observed:

"One of the great and most painful paradoxes of American life is that the black citizen although an old-line American is in actuality not fully recognized as an American by his white

Enon Baptist's 50-year members feted Sunday

In a glorious ceremonial tribute some 40 members of the Enon Baptist Church, Edmondson Ave. and Schroeder St., were honored Sunday for their memberships in the church for 50 years or more.

"A Salute to Our Golden Agers" was the theme for the dinner program in which Mrs. Gertrude Cornett presided and over 1,000 well-wishers attended.

TRUBUTES

A special presentation went to the Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Payne, minister of Enon Baptist for over 50 years.

Musical tributes were offered by Mrs. Mary Hopkins, the Sanctuary Choir and Mrs. Gertrude J. Cornett.

The invocation was made by Deacon James Green and was followed with an explanation of the tribute to the honorees by the Hon. Solomon A. Baylor.

A presentation of honorees was made by Mrs. Laura C. Whitfield and Mrs. Ruby Hamlette. A dedication in rhythm and rhyme was presented by Misses Jerrylin and Jerilyn E. Payne, who were accompanied by Mrs. Ernestine Johnson.

On behalf of the honorees, Mrs. Odell W. Payne wife of the minister, accepted tributes.

Offering grace before the beautiful dinner was the Rev. Samuel Redd, minister of Mt. Ararat Baptist Church. Representatives were present from the offices of Mayor Schaefer and Governor Mandel.

Formal presentations to the honorees were made by Miss Laura C. Whitfield. Honorees were peresented with plaques and many individual gifts.

Remarks came from the Rev. Dr. Payne and Mrs. Charlette R. Marshall, committee chairman.

ON THE EASTSIDE

Miss Ball is bride of Wilbur Cooper

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

Miss Lark Licette Ball, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James Ball, became the bride of Mr. Wilbur Lawrence Cooper, son of Mrs. Mildred Cooper, all of Baltimore, on Sunday.

The bride's father presided at the beautiful ceremony at Timothy Baptist Church on W. Saratoga St. The bride's brother, Ivan, gave her away.

The bride wrote her own sacred vows to meet her own personality. The ceremony was quite touching and most sacred. While the bride knelt the Lord's Prayer was sung by the Fellowship Choir directed by James Peterson.

As a prelude Mr. Peterson played, 'Jusu Joys of Man's Desire,' and 'Oh Perfect Love.'

* * *

Miss Ball wore a long white bouffant gown of Chantilly lace and carried a bouquet of white mums and carnations.

The bride's maid of honor, Miss Carolyn Duckette was dressed in orange. All maids carried baskets of yellow carnations and white daisie. Other attendants, dressed in yellow and orange, were, Misses Linda Johnson, Verlisa Norman, Terri Jenifer, Janice Matthews, and Arlene Forrest.

* * *

Junior bridesmaids were Misses Carolyn and Bridgett Monroe. Cheryl Grady, the bridegroom's sister was flower girl. Best man was Charles Boulware. Keith Adams was ring bearer.

Ushers were Phillip Hall, Micheal Johnson, Dennis Cooper, and Ivan Ball. Mrs Cara Fleming directed the wedding.

A reception and buffet dinner followed in the Wakefield Community Center.

A yellow and green three foot, six-tier wedding cake was a sight to behold. Beauty, stimulation and taste describe the affair.

The Coopers will reside in Dover, Del., where Mr. Cooper is in the Air Force.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Monroe, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Childress, Dayton, Ohio; and Mesdames Mildred Myers, Lusby Md., Damar Blaock, J.J

The residents of Lafayette Courts, 201 N. Aisquith St. held their 4th Annual Strawberry Festival on May 25th. It was a gracious affair, welcomerated by Mrs. Willette Withers.

Coop Parren Mitchell spoke and congratulated the residents on the beauty of group participation in bringing the community together in fellowship.

The food was delicious. A turkey and ham dinner, with all the trimmings, was served at no cost.

Twelve Social Agencies participated including the Urban League, Johns Hopkins Hospital Drug Abuse, Pratt Library No. 5 and Model Cities.

Also Somerset's Garden Club, CAA, East Baltimore Medical Program, SAGA, Martin L. King P.C.C. and Lafayette Sr. Citizens, and the Welfare Rights group.

The committee included Mesdames Willa Withers, Dorothy White, Adele Scott, Esther Hall, Rebecca Davis and Frances Reives.
