Petitions now depending not to be continued beyond session of court

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no petition for the benefit of the original act for the benefit of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, now depending in any of the county courts of this state, shall be continued beyond the second session of such court next after the passage of this act, unless in cases where the court shall be satisfied a further continuance is necessary to procure testimony material and competent on the trial of any allegations made against the petitioner's discharge, nor shall any such petition hereafter to be filed, be continued beyond the first court next after the filing thereof unless for the causes aforesaid.

By 1817, ch. 183, s. 7, no petition to be dismissed before the time appointed by the judge for the hearing.

Dismissal of petitions

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That upon the dismissal or withdrawing of any petition for the benefit of said acts, or upon decisions thereon against the petitioner, it shall not be necessary to revive by scire facius any judgment which may have been suspended by such petition, and process of execution may be issued upon such judgments as if no such suspension had taken place.

Plea of limitation

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the time intervening between the petitioning of any of said debtors, and the time that any of said petitions may be dismissed, shall not be computed on any plea of limitation so as to defeat any claim of any person against such debtor.
