Treats For Graduation Party

Graduations are pretty special occasions, and deserve to be treated as such by happy relatives. What nicer way of saying "We're very proud of you," than by honoring the graduate with a party?

It needn't be a complicated affair: some extra-special homemade cookies, some scrumptious candies nuts-also homemade, and sparkling fruit punch-these convey the message loud and clear, and with very little work for

Jamaica Date Balls are a delectable no-bake cookie, much too good to be reserved for special occasions. To creamed butter and sugar add chopped dates, rum flavoring and quick oats. Shape to form dainty bite-size bits and roll in confectioners sugar, then chill. What could be easier? (Or better with the oats lending whole grain goodness and texture to the creamy cookie dough?)

Chocolate-Marshmallow Bars are also winners in the cookie sweepstakes. To make them, combine toasted puffed rice with a green-tinted, mint flavored butter-marshmallow mixture, press it into a pan and bake. The frosting? Four melted milk chocolate bars! These bar cookies are also easy-makes and oh so good, with their delicately crunchy texture, and the unbeatable chocolate-mint flavor combination.

Complement the cookies with a bowl of superb Nutty-Maple Snack Mix. Take an assortment of nuts from the grocery store - walnuts, peanuts, pecans and cashews - and toast them briefly. Then pour maple blended syrup over them, and bake again. When done, sprinkle with sugar and taste-the nuts have become gourmet fare.

As you can see, graduation fetes can be spacial - in a very simple way!

JAMAICA-DATE BALLS

(Makes 3½ dozen cookies)

One-half cup butter or margarine, two cups sifted confectioners sugar, one tablespoon milk, two cups quick oats, uncooked, two-third cup chopped dates and one-half teaspoon rum extract.

Beat butter; gradually add sugar, beating well after each addition. Stir in milk, oats, dates and rum flavoring, stirring until mixture is well blended.

Shape to form balls, using about one tablespoonful for each; roll in confectioners sugar. Chill thoroughly.

CHOCOLATE-MARSHMALLOW BARS

(Makes 32 bars)

Three cups puffed rice, two tablespoon butter or margarine, four cups miniature marshmallows, one teaspoon mint or peppermint flavoring, few drops green food coloring, four 1⅓ ounce milk chocolate bars.

Heat puffed rice in shallow pan in preheated moderate overn (350 degrees F.) 10 minutes. Pour puffed rice into greased medium-sired bowl. Melt butter and marshmallows in top of double boiler over hot, (not boiling) water, stirring occasionally.

Remove from heat. Add flavoring and food coloring; stir until smooth. Pour marshmallow mixture over puffed rice, stirring until all kernels are evenly coated. With greased hands press cereal mixture into a greased nine-inch square pan.

Melt chocolate bars in top of double boiler over hot, (not boiling) water. Spread melted chocolate evenly over puffed rice mixture. Chill. Cut into 32 bars.

ISLAND SANDWICHES

Soft butter or margarine, six hamburger buns, split, six canned pineapple slices, drained, six cooked or canned chicken slices, one-quarter pound process Cheddar cheese, grated (one cup), one-half cup finely chopped pecans or walnuts.

Start heating oven to 400 degrees F. Butter buns. On cookie sheet, arrange each hamburger bun with pineapple on bottom half and chicken on top half. Sprinkle chicken with grated cheese. Bake 10 to 15 min., or until cheese and pineapple are nicely browned. Sprinkle pineapple with nuts. Serve with crisp celery hearts. Make 6 servings.

PARTY CLUBS

One-half cup mayonnaise or cooked salad dressing, two tablesp. prepared mustard, 18 pumpernickel slices, eight thin baked-ham slices, lettuce, one cup potato salad and toothpicks.

Combine mayonnaise and mustard; spread on pumpernickel slices.

For each of 4 sandwiches, cover one bread slice with 2 ham slices; top with 1 bread slice, next with lettuce, then with thid bread slice; on it spread potato salad. Top all with 1 bread slice down.

Secure with picks; then cut diagonally in halves. Makes 4.
