Real Estate Brokers host regional meet

The Real Estate Brokers of Baltimore recently hosted a two-day training conference at the Baltimore Hilton Hotel. The event attracted participants from Washington D.C., Va., Los Angeles, Calif., Chicago and Atlanta, Ga.

The training program was conducted by Wayne Orme of the Title Insurance Company of California.

Visiting speakers and lecturers included Mrs. Barbara O'Banion of HUD and Thomas Smith of the Regional Planning Council.

The highlight of the session was a testimonial dinner given in honor of Daniel W. Spaulding, the National President of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers.

Mistress of ceremonies for the occasion was Mrs. Evelyn Douglass, the organization's corresponding secretary. William Calloway of Atlanta, Ga. served as toastmaster.

Keynote speakers for the event were Congressman Parren J. Mitchell and Mrs. C. Delores Tucker, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

A dedication solo was rendered by Wallace Baden.

The event was labeled a tremendous success by president, R. L. Johnson. Mayor William Donald Schaefer also proclaimed the week as "Realtst Week in Baltimore."

Morgan grad welcomes family from West Indies

It is truly a heartwarming moment to be reunited with family after three and a half years away from home!

This reaction must have been that which was felt by John Jefferson, 22, who received his B.A. degree from Morgan State College on Sunday. He majored in business administration and was graduated with honors in his field.

John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jefferson Sr., and originally from Grand Cayman Islands, West Indies was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Nolie (Sadie) Wilson of Lafayette Ave. as his American parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson periodically the foster parents of 136 children and presently the foster parents of five, enrolled John in Morgan State College where he lived on campus.

Completing his studies as a honor graduate after only 3½ years, John was recently reunited with members of his family who had been saving money since the day he left Grand Cayman Islands so that they would be able to attend his graduation ceremonies.

"I feel that it has been a goal that I didn't know I would be able to accomplish. Everything I have achieved I owe it to my faith in Christ," the happy graduate stated.

Preparing now to return to Grand Cayman Islands with his fiance to wed August 30, John has already accepted a job there at Price Watt House and Co. Inc.

His fiance, Miss Reina Barnett, 21, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Barnett of New York. She will receive her B.A. degree from Brooklyn College, New York where she majored in Early Childhood Education this month.

GUESTS

Attending the Saturday noon reception for John were: Mr. and Mrs. William Hy-Des, aunt and uncle of Baltimore: Mr. and Mrs. Nolie Wilson, foster parents, of Baltimore.

Also were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John (Norma) Jefferson; sisters, Betty, Sarah; brothers, Robert, David and Paul and John's fiance, Miss Reina Barnett.

MRS. GREEN

By MARJORIE R. GREEN

Employees of the Social Security Administration who work in the various areas of equal opportunity staged a farewell tribute recently for former Commissioner Robert M. Ball. The informal gathering took place at Carsons Inn on Holabird Ave.

Representatives from each bureau spoke of his accomplishments in the role of Commissioner of SSA and presented him with a gift and best wishes for the future.

• • •

Mrs. Minnie Christian, Stride Intern in the Bureau of Health Insurance graduated last week from the Community College of Baltimore with honors.

This working mother of three children has helped to prove that the Upward Mobility Educational program at SSA is worthwhile continuing.

Mrs. Christian is a consistantly outstanding person. Last year she received both a high quality salary increase and the Commissioners citation at the annual awards ceremony. Congratulations are extended to a very fine woman.

SSA PROFILE: Mrs. Juanita Jones, supervisor of Guardettes for the United Security Guard Force is five feet, two inches tall, weighs 106 lbs. and carries a small handgun that adds a few more feet to her height and a few more pounds to her weight.

Without the uniform and weapon no one would guess that this tiny friendly grandmother of three is a member of the security guard force employed to maintain the safety and security guard force employed to maintain the safety and security of Social Security employees in the Woodlawn, Dickinson and Dogwood East buildings.

Workers in the Dickinson building seem to respond automatically to her pleasant smile and bright good morning as she stands guard at the door checking building passes.

It was just fourteen months ago that she first qualified to handle emergencies that until recently were assigned to men.

As a guardette, she is required to know something about the art of self defense, be able to spot trouble areas and act as fire marshall, or trouble shooter in cases of fire, bomb or riot threats.

Mrs. Jones is a member of a five-generation Mt. Winans family. They attend Shiloh Christian Community Church. The Jones children are William, who attends School No. and enjoys participating with his mother William, who attends School No. 60 and enjoys participating with his mother in her favorite sports, roller skating and bowling and Vicent.

Food Clips

Did you know that Americans eat about 60 pounds of fresh potatoes each year?

• • •

What's a "new" potato? Usually harvested from January through September. "new" potatoes are freshly-dug fall crop potatoes which are not quite fully mature.

• • •

Potatoes are not more fattening than other foods. Remember—a boiled, pressure-cooked, or baked medium-sized potato provides only about 100 calories. Would you believe—that compares to an apple or banana?

• • •

Like fried potatoes? They may be two to four times as high in calories as a plain baked potato, according to USDA home economists.

POW calls Guy charges 'stupid,' but good coverup

NEW YORK (UPI) — Army Sgt. James Daly of Brooklyn, one of the eight former prisoners of war against whom Air Force Col. Theodore W. Guy filed charges of collaboration, called the charge "stupid" in a Tuesday interview.

Daly was quoted by NBC as saying that one purpose of any prisoner bringing such a charge "would be to cover up very good for himself."

He said Guy was "the only prisoner in my camp that I know of that received packages from home." He said he himself received only one package in five years, and that only the week before he was released.

"Every prisoner in our camp has always said that any prisoner who ever received a package from home must have done something to get the package," Daily said.

"I made statements just as any prisoner made," NBC quoted Daily as saying. "I had no choice. The statements that I made were antiwar statements as far as the war was concerned. I'm quite sure Mr. Guy, the one who is bringing the charges, has made the same statement that I have made. . .

To me any prisoner that's been in a camp where other prisoners are it's quite stupid for him to bring charges against another prisoner without involving the majority of prisoners."

Asked to explain that remark, Daily said:

"The average prisoner did not think of his country first. He thought of himself. From what we went through in training, we were told if we were captured that would happen to us. Every man the first day he gets captured, he's so afraid that he answers every question that is asked him.

"Therefore, he thought of 'ME' first, he did not think of his country. If he thought of his country first, he would not have become a prisoner; he would have given his life for his country, and not think of himself until whatever is asked him.

From my point of view, anyone to make charges, as far as an officer is concerned, and especially Col. Guy, would be to cover up very good for himself.

"That he would bring charges against other people first, he beat them to bringing charges against him."

Asked if he was implying improper conduct by Col. Guy, Daly said:

"I would say this—every prisoner in our camp has always said that anyone who ever received a package from home must have done something to receive the package. I was a prisoner for almost five years until the day a week before I was released I received a package from the Red Cross. Col. Guy was the only prisoner in my camp that I know that received packages from home."

Col. Guy has also filed charges against Staff Sgt. King David Rayford, 27, Chicago, three other soldiers and three Marines.

They are Staff Sergeants Robert P. Chenoweth, 25, Portland, Ore., and John A. Young, 27, Granite City, Ill., and Spec. 4 Michael P. Branch, 26, Covington, Ky.

The Marines charged were Pvt. Frederick L. Elbert, 25, Brentwood, N.Y.; Sgt. Abel L. Kuyanouth, 24, Denver; and Staff Sgt. Alfonso Riate, 28, Santa Rosa, Calif.

When you get out of high school, how much money do you think you'll make?

How does more than $340 a month (after just four months) sound to you?

Probably a lot more than you could earn in a run-of-the-mill job. And that $340 is just spending money. You dont have to pay for food, housing, medical or dental bills and you get to travel to places like Hawaii and the Caribbean.

Navy money's pretty good. So are the interesting job, the feeling of accomplishment, the chance to succeed. The Navy's got a lot of new programs that can help you go places inside the Navy, and when you get out. If the Navy sounds like a place you'd like to be when you graduate, call or see

ROTC instructor gets national recognition

MOREHEAD, Ky. — Army Major Benjamin F. Waller, ROTC instructor at Morehead College, has been presented the 1973 award as "most outstanding ROTC instructor of the year."

He was selected over ROTC instructors from about 290 other campuses.

The award, given by the American Ordinance Association, includes a plaque commemorating his citation and a $300 Savings Bond.

"He certainly deserving of the award. He gets along with everybody real well, and he makes the course and the Army seem real interesting. He just has a lot Heart for valor during his of character," said one of his students.

Waller, who has been in charge of freshmen courses and programs, received a Silver Star and a Purple stint in Vietnam.

Waller, who has been in charge of freshmen courses and programs, received a Silver Star and a Purple Heart for valor during his stint in Vietnam.

He stresses personal contact with students and emphasizes the benefits of ROTC training even for those planning civilian careers.

I'm Constanza. I can get your Caribbean cruise off to a flying start.

Dear Constanza: I want to fly you to Miami/Ft. Lauderdale, the cruise ship capital of the world, and then sail happily away to the Caribbean or the Bahamas.
I want to take one of your 7 day cruises to exciting ports like Nassau and Jamaica. I want to enjoy all meals on board, beautiful scenery and duty free shopping. I understand that prices for the 7 day cruises range from $250 to $345 per person, double occupancy plus $136 roundtrip airfare. And you also have 3 and 4 day National Holidays cruise packages.
I know that I can call my travel agent or National Airlines at 539-7250 for all the details. But I think I'll just send in this coupon. Thanks, Constanza.
