

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.	Session Ch. S.
Every free white male citizen of this state, above twenty-one years of age, and no other, having resided 12 months within this state, and 6 months in the county, or in the city of Annapolis or Baltimore, next preceding the election, shall have a right of suffrage, and shall vote by ballot for electors of the president and vice president of the United States, for representatives to congress, for delegates to the general assembly, electors of the senate, and sheriffs, — All and every part of the constitution inconsistent with this act annulled,	1809 83 Confirmed by 1810 33
It shall not be lawful for the general assembly of this state to lay an equal and general tax, or any other tax, on the people of this state, for the support of the christian religion, — The several clauses of the declaration of rights and constitution, so far as they are contrary to this act, annulled,	1809 167 Confirmed by 1810 24
All such parts of the constitution as required a property qualification in persons to be appointed, or holding offices of profit or trust, and in persons elected members of the legislature, or electors of the senate, repealed and abolished,	1809 198 Confirmed by 1810 18
The time of the meeting of the general assembly shall be on the first Monday in December in each year, instead of the first Monday in November, as prescribed,	1811 211 Confirmed by 1812 129
— The governor shall be chosen on the second Monday in December in each year, in the manner prescribed in the constitution,
— The council to the governor shall be elected on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in December in each year, in the manner prescribed by the constitution,
— All annual appointments of civil officers shall be made in the third week in December in every year, in the manner directed,
— All and every part of the constitution (articles 23, 25, 26, 49,) inconsistent with this act, annulled,
The constitution changed as to election districts in Prince-George's county,	1816 26 Confirmed by 1817 9 1816 32
— Same, in Allegany county,	Confirmed by 1817 14 1816 35
— Same, in Dorchester county,	Confirmed by 1817 42 1816 247
All and every part of the constitution, which related to the attorney general, annulled,	Confirmed by 1817 69
— The duties and services provided by law to be done and performed by the attorney general, to be done and performed by such person, and in such manner, as the general assembly should direct,
The polls for the second election district of Anne-Arundel county to be held at the house of Jacob Waters, on the road from Annapolis to Washington,	1816 252 Confirmed by 1817 149
— All that part of the second election district, lying out of Annapolis, to constitute the second election district of Anne-Arundel county,
— The city of Annapolis to constitute the sixth election district of Anne-Arundel county, for all elections for sheriffs, electors of president and vice-president, and electors of the senate of this state, and for a member of congress, which said elections shall be held by the mayor, recorder and aldermen, of the said city, or any three or more of them, at such place within the city as they may appoint,	