

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

VALUATION OF PRO- PERTY.	Session Ch. S.
— Provisions necessary for the use and consumption of the person to whom the same shall belong, and his family, for the year.	1812 191 1
— Plantation utensils	— — —
— The working tools of mechanics and manufacturers actually and constantly employed in their respective occupations.	— — — 2
— Wearing apparel.	— — — —
— Goods, wares and merchandise.	— — — —
— All home made manufactures in the hands of the manufacturer.	— — — —
— All ready money.	— — — —
— All grain and tobacco.	— — — —
— All licensed vessels whatsoever,	— — — —
— Five persons to be appointed commissioners of the tax in each county, and for the city of Baltimore,	— — — —
— Not to receive more than one per diem for the same days attendance,	— — — —
— Oath to be taken for the faithful execution of the duties of the office,	— — — — 3
— Directions for filling vacancies,	— — — — 4
— No member of the levy court, or orphans court, or register of wills, to be a commissioner,	— — — — —
— Directions for the meeting of the commissioners of the tax, the appointment of clerks, and of assessors in the several election districts, &c.	— — — — 5
— The property in the city of Baltimore to be valued and returned distinctly from that of the county,	— — — — 6
— Directions as to Baltimore county,	— — — — 7
— The commissioners in their direction to the assessors to be governed by the act of 1785, ch 53, and of this act,	— — — — 8
— Empowered to call on the county clerks for lists of alienations and transfers of property from time to time,	— — — — —
— Penalty on assessors neglecting to return to the commissioners certificates for the valuation of property in their districts,	— — — — 9
— Provision for the appointment of other assessors in case of refusal, &c	— — — — —
— Directions for the meetings of the commissioners in Baltimore county,	— — — — 10
— Oath to be taken by assessors for faithful performance,	— — — — 11
— All persons to deliver an account of their slaves to the assessors,	— — — — 12
— Duty of the assessors in viewing slaves, examining as to their ages, and making return,	— — — — —
— Owners, &c. omitting to give in slaves, or willfully stating a wrong age, liable to a double tax on the real value,	— — — — —
— All persons, when required, to give in to the assessors a full account of all their property in the district, and of that under their care, liable to assessment,	— — — — 13
— Penalty on refusal or neglect,	— — — — —
— The assessors thereupon to value such property on their own knowledge, or on information,	— — — — —
— On certifying the same, and the refusal or neglect, the commissioners to double the assessment,	— — — — —
— On a partial account being given in, the person to pay double tax,	— — — — —
— The assessors to inform themselves of property by all lawful means,	— — — — 14
— To proceed to the valuation, and to certify the same,	— — — — —
— The number of slaves of each description to be expressed,	— — — — —
— The weight of plate to be expressed,	— — — — —