Group names Mrs. Fraser top elementary teacher

A staff member of the Broadway Elementary School No. 109 has been selected as an Outstandin Elementary Teacher of America for 1973.

Principal George Bush, who nominated Mrs. Marie Fraser for the honor, made the announcement to the AFRO.

Making the selection was a Washington D.C. based group named Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America.

Mrs. Fraser, is now eligible to receive the Outstanding Elementary Teacher of the Year Award trophy. Five $500 unrestricted grants will be awarded to the school's represented by the five finalists in the contest. These selections will be made at a later date, it was announced.

Guidelines for the selections include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition.

Director of the Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America group, V. Gilbert Beers, stated to Bush that Mrs. Fraser's complete biographical sketch will be published in the group's Annual Awards Volume.

PROUD FAMILIES— At the recent McDonogh School graduation these two family-get togethers were captured by the AFRO lense. At left, Willie C. Hargrove and wife Odessa flank their graduating son, Trent. VA to inaugurate mobile unit

The Veterans Administration is sending an office on wheels to the street corners of 28 Maryland communities during June and July to assist veterans of the U.S. military forces.

George A. Davis, director of the Baltimore VA Regional Office, said the Veterans Assistance Mobile Van would be staffed by two veteran benefits counselors from his office.

"We want to take the VA to the veteran," Davis said about the van.

A formal dedication ceremony is scheduled June 8 in Cumberland. Cong. Goodloe E. Byron (D-Md.) and VA Associate Deputy Administrator Rufus H. Wilson head a list of distinguished state and community leaders invited to participate.

Cities scheduled for June visits are Oakland, Westernport, Hagerstown, Frostburg, Frederick, Westminister, Gaithersburg, Upper Marlboro, Annapolis, Waldorf, Lexington Park, and Ocean City. Additonal communities will be visited in July.

Goals are to reach veterans who have not made full use of benefits, to provide immediate information on health, education, housing and job training benefits and to extend individual counseling with other federal and local government agencies to offer the full range of benefits at all levels.

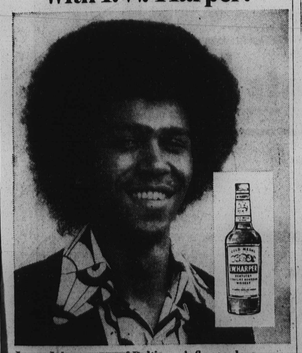
Antique show June 23

A two-day "Your grandmother's Attic" antique show and exhibit is scheduled for the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation, 22-24 W. Preston St. Saturday, June 23.

The affair starts at 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"TALK TO HER," seems to be the sentiment of Wayne Blanchard as Mayor William Donald Schaefer asks him a question. Wayne's sister, Denise, seems perfectly content to let her brother do the talking. Both youngsters are enrolled in the Model Early Childhood Learning Program.

Guess who's hanging out with I.W. Harper?



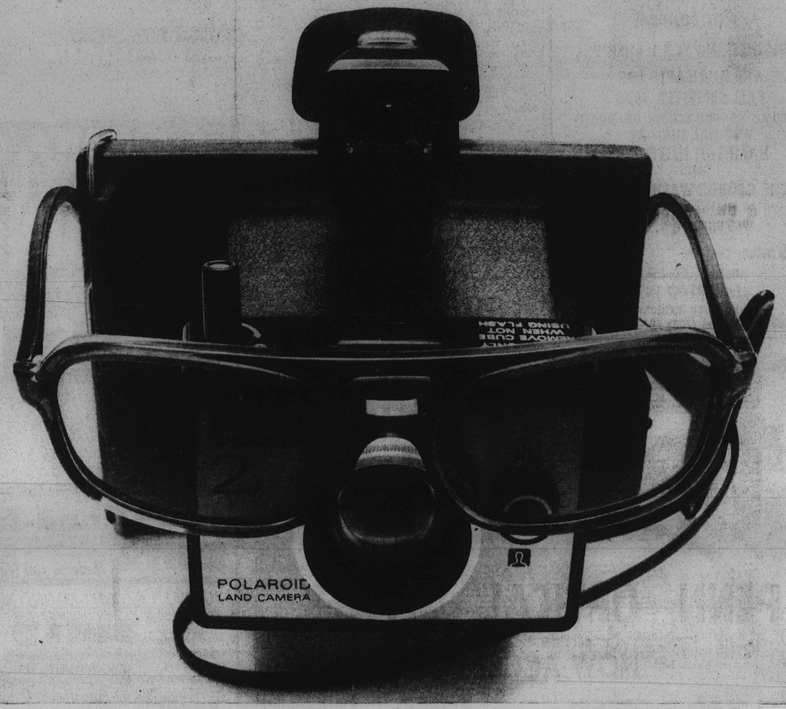
James Johnson, one of Baltimore's fly people.

The "Hip Set" digs James' style—which he shows best by the bourbon he drinks. I. W. Harper, the in-crowd pleaser.

In Baltimore, bourbon is Harper.

86 Proof Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey. I. W. Harper Distilling Co., Louisville, Kentucky.

Polaroid's Square Shooter 2 now comes with extra lenses.



Buy a $24.95 Square Shooter 2 (or 5 packs of Colorpack film) and you'll get a free pair of Cool-Ray Polaroid sunglasses.

Is there a better way to start a summer?

Our Square Shooter 2, at $24.95*, is the most popular Polaroid Land camera we've ever made.

Color pictures in 60 seconds. Electric eye with electronic shutter. Built-in flash for 4-shot flashcubes. Uses our less expensive square color film (so you save up to 25% on every shot).

And these extraordinary Cool-Ray Polaroid sunglasses (they're for men or women) have the built-in optical barrier that can block out up to 99% of reflected glare.

Everything your summer needs in one offer.

Or, if you already own a Polaroid Land camera, you can buy 5 packs of Colorpack film (T88 or T108) and get your free sunglasses that way.

But all good things come to an end. This one on June 30th, 1973.
