

sioners not related or interested or surviving, or having been a judge before as aforesaid, to call to his or their assistance one or two, (as the case shall require,) freeholders of the same county, such as he or they shall approve of, not being any ways related or interested as aforesaid, who shall be thereby empowered (on qualifying him or themselves by taking the oaths by this act directed,) together with such commissioner or commissioners to review the said land or lands, and proceed to the determination of the bounds thereof, and other requisites in all and every respect, as fully and amply to all intents and purposes as the said commissioners, had they not been related, interested or dead, as aforesaid, could or might have done, and the like method to be used where a choice is made of the land commissioners upon the first view by the contending parties. And forasmuch as it may sometimes happen upon the exterior bounds of counties, that some of the lines of lands in dispute may run into the next adjacent county, or that it may be necessary to run the lines of some lands lying in such county, in order to find the true bounds of the land in controversy, in all such cases it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners of review, or land commissioners, to cause such lines to be run out and to settle the bounds of land in dispute, notwithstanding some of the boundaries may be in such adjacent county.

When lines run into another county, &c

9. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, by the authority aforesaid, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid, That the commissioners of review, or any one of them, shall meet at their respective county court houses the second day of every court, and there sit as a court to receive appeals from the judgment of the land commissioners, and shall cause their clerk, (to be by them appointed) to enter such appeal, together with the time appointed for their meeting on such land.

— To meet and sit to receive appeals, &c

10. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That such commissioners of review for their attendance on the determination of such appeals, shall be allowed the sum of one hundred pounds of tobacco per day to each commissioner, as is allowed by the former law to the commissioners of the first view, and no more; and that any of the land commissioners of review as aforesaid, or any of the commissioners made choice of or appointed upon the first view, after having qualified themselves according to this and the former law, who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place appointed for such view or review, not having a reasonable excuse, shall be fined the sum of five hundred pounds of tobacco, to be recovered in the right honourable the lord proprietor's name in any county court within this province, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, and applied towards the support of public schools, in such county where such commissioner or commissioners shall reside.

Their allowance

11. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, by the authority, advice and consent aforesaid, That the commissioners of review appointed by this act shall qualify themselves by taking the several oaths appointed by law, and also make the declaration commonly called the test, and subscribe the same, and the oath of abjuration, and also take the following oath, viz. "I, A. B. do swear that I will justly and truly execute the powers and authorities to me given by the acts of assembly, for ascertaining the bounds of land

Their oath