Levy court to make rules for good order of market.

Provisos.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the levy court of Baltimore county be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, from time to time hereafter, to make such rules and regulations for advancing and promoting the well being and good order of said market, and the beneficial purposes intended by this act to be derived therefrom, as they in their sound discretion shall judge reasonable, just and proper; Provided nevertheless, that no penalty imposed by any rule or regulation shall be recoverable otherwise than before a single magistrate, and paid and applied as aforesaid; And provided also, that such rules and regulations, before they shall have operation and effect, shall be posted up in the most conspicuous places in the said market-house, at least four public market-days.

By 1805, ch. 19, the commissioners are authorised to make rules and regulations for the good order of the market, and to establish fines, forfeitures and penalties, &c.

CHAP. XLV.

Passed Jan. 7, 1804

*A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to authorise the building of a Protestant Episcopal Church within the City of Baltimore, by the name of Saint-Peter's Church, and for other purposes, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and two. Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 400.

*Ch. 105.

Donations may be received for completing church.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jeremiah Yellott, John Scott, William Jolley, Hezekiah Waters, Josias Pennington, Simon Wilmer, of Edward, and James Corrie, of the city of Baltimore, trustees appointed in the original law to which this is a supplement, for the purpose of building a Protestant Episcopal church within the city of Baltimore, and the survivors or survivor of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to solicit and receive donations and subscriptions, not exceeding five thousand dollars, in addition to the sum authorised by the original law, for the purpose of completing the said church, and a parsonage-house built adjacent thereto, and the purchase of a burial-ground.

Right of disposing of pews to remain in trustees.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the right of disposing of the pews in the said church, and of receiving the money for the same, shall be and remain in the said Jeremiah Yellott, John Scott, William Jolley, Hezekiah Waters, Josias Pennington, Simon Wilmer, of Edward, and James Corrie, and the survivors or survivor of them, until all debts which they may contract, and all sums of money which they may advance for the building of the said church and parsonage-house, and the purchase or leasing of the lot or lots of land which they are authorised to purchase, shall be fully paid and satisfied, even although the lot of land on which the said church is built shall be by them conveyed and assigned to the vestry who may be elected for the said church.

Vestry may impose an annual rent on each pew.

Proviso.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the vestry of the said church for the time being may impose such annual rent on each and every pew in the said church for the support of the minister of the said church, and for other incidental expenses, as they may think proper; Provided always, that the said vestry shall not impose such rent or charge on any pew before the same shall be sold by the said trustees, or all debts by them contracted, and sums of money by them advanced for the purposes aforesaid, shall be paid and discharged.
