MR. AND MRS. FREDERICK CONWAY
(the former Miss Lucille Mitchell)

Frederick Conway takes hand of Miss Lucille Mitchell

Lovely Miss Lucille Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mitchell of Cecil Ave., in Baltimore, spoke her wedding vows to Frederick Conway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conway of Lafayette Ave., also of Baltimore, in a recent ceremony at St. Edwards Catholic Church.

The Father Patrick Omara officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Oakford Ave., home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride, a graduate of Morgan State College and presently a teacher at the Harlem Park Elementary School, chose an original gown, an A-lined empire waist, white chiffon with a ruffled bottom. She wore a small headpiece with long veil to complement her outfit.

The bridegroom, a senior at Morgan State College, wore white tails, a ruffled white and black shirt with matching black and white bow tie and flared single striped pants.

Groomsmen Henry Conway, Ronald Staples, Donald Staples and Joseph Conway wore similar attire. Best man was Michael Joyner.

Bridesmaids were Misses Linda Mitchell, Juanita Mitchell, Andrienne Daniels and Victoria Conway. Maid of honor was Miss Carrie Sharon. Their dresses were yellow with semi-full skirts which featured ruffled hemlines.

The little flower girls, Donna Daniels and Stephanie Conway, wore blue gowns with ruffled hemlines. Craig Ross was the ringbearer.

Vets in school

Veterans in school are reminded that in order to receive their checks for allowances under the GI Bill, they must make certain that the certificate of attendance is forwarded to the Veterans Administration.

Aquatic and fitness course at Dundalk

The Dundalk Branch YMCA will offer specialized aquatic and fitness courses this summer, beginning the week of June 25.

Basic diving will be held on Mondays at 5 p.m. Prerequisites for the class are ability to swim one length of the pool and ability to do a standing front dive from the board.

Synchronized swim will meet on Tuesdays at 2 p.m. This provides an opportunity to swim in groups to a rhythm.

Adult and family swims will be Monday thru Friday from 7 to 8 p.m. Recreational swims for youth will be Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from noon to 5 p.m.

Call the Dundalk Branch YMCA for further program information.

FM college graduates 23 from Baltimore

LANCASTER, Pa. — Twenty-three students from the Baltimore area received Bachelor of Arts degrees at the 186th commencement at Franklin and Marshall College earlier this month.

The college conferred 479 Bachelor's degrees, 28 master's degrees and nine associate of arts degrees at the largest commencement ever held at the liberal arts institution.

Tom Wicker, political columnist of the New York Times newspaper, gave the principal address and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Radio group in Field Day contest

BRATS (Baltimore Radio Amateur Television Society) will participate again this year in the American Radio Relay League's annual Field Day contest on June 23 and 24.

Trying to make as many radio contacts as possible in a 24-hour period, the members will operate the radio equipment under emergency-type conditions from the Sutton Place Apts. in downtown Baltimore.

Lawrence A. Shelton, who has been active in Baltimore's political scene in past years, is the club's president.

Medina Temple No. 1 Meets To Fete Nobles

A recent Friday evening found members of the Medina Temple No. 1 A.A.O.&M.S. at Le Fontaine Bleu with some 200 guests for their first annual Shrine Awards Dinner Dance.

It was a gay affair with music provided by Carl Hamm and the Spacemen. Many of the city notables were there in formal attire to witness the presentation of several awards to outstanding Shriners.

"Service is the rent you pay for the space you occupy on earth. This young man has been a light shining in darkness over the years and the darkness cannot extinguish his light. He has been a pillow of strength to this organization for many years, has served as chief Rabban for 15 years among his other duties", read in part the citation presented to Isiah Hardy.

Mr. Hardy is a member of the Most Worshipful Hiram Grand Lodge and has assisted in setting up many new lodges under the parent body. At present he holds the office of excellent high priest in the Royal Arch Chapter No. 2 and has served as worshipful master of King David No. 5.

In addition, Mr. Hardy is supreme advisor to the Roses of Seven Seals and a member of St. Paul Methodist Church.

NOBLE SMITH

Noble Herbert E. Smith was the recipient of the meritorious service award. "A dedicated mason, whose life in the fraternity is legendary; a leader who has inspired many to strive for higher goals; a friend whose wise counsel has caused good men to become better men; a teacher who has instructed the neophite into maturity; a family man whose devotion to his wife is a joy to behold; a God-fearing man who lives by the rules set down by the maker of all mankind; and a tower of strength in the world of shrinedome where he has few peers" read his citation.

In prior years, Mr. Smith has held the title of president of the board of directors and has received numerous far back as 1946. Mr. Smith was the awards from the Medina Chapter as first illustrious grand potentate of Medina Temple No. 1 and served in that position until June, 1968.

OUTSTANDING SERVICE

Noble Edward Mosley, a longtime member of the board of directors of the Hiram Grand Lodge, represented the Lodge as a delegate to the Imperial Grand Council of Shriners. He has been a member of the entertainment committee; member of the string committee and Temple treasurer for many years.

"Noble Mosley has not devoted all of his time to fraternalism, as he has reared two fine children; established a flourishing business enterprise; worked with civic organizations such as the NAACP, Urban League, YMCA, various little leagues and the Boy Scouts. In addition, he is a member of the Gospel Tabernacle Church.

DRILL PATROL
