

ARBITRATION AND AWARD—Continued—

- what may be subject of reference, 840-841.
- when umpire may be selected, 849-850, 851.
- distinction between umpire and third arbitrator, 850, 851.
- selection of umpire, notice, 851.
- duties and powers of umpire, 851.
- proceedings before arbitrators, 847-849, 852-853.
- what matters determinable by arbitrators, 846, 847.
- power of majority of arbitrators to act, 852.
- revocation of submission, 843.
- when award must be made, 857.
- sufficiency of award, in general, 853, et seq.
- what award should contain, 853.
- conclusiveness of award upon rights of parties, 856.
- whether award operates upon title to thing involved, 840.
- effect of award where thing affected is realty, 840.
- intendments made in favor of award, 853.
- effect of irregularities upon award, 847, 849 et seq.
- award may be good in part, 855.
- effect of allowing stranger to take part in award, 852.
- when application to set aside award must be made, 859-860.
- grounds of objection to award, 857-859, 862.
- manner of objecting to award, 858-859.
- when equity will relieve against award, 859.
- enforcement of award, 860-861.
- fixing and payment of costs, 856-857.
- whether death of party abates pending arbitration, 674, 862.
- continuance of cause pending, 862.
- matters of practice relating to, 843-844, 848-849.
- re-submission where award fails, 852.
- when proceedings on reference will be enjoined, 847.
- reinstatement of cause in certain cases, 862.
- effect of submission upon jurisdiction of court, 847.
- arbitration clause in fire policies, construction, 850.
- provision for, in contract, as affecting jurisdiction of courts, 863.
- in equity, 861.
- in orphans court, 861-862.

ARREST—

- apprehension of suspicious persons and female street-walkers by watchmen and beadles, 211.
- right of justice of the peace to make, 593.
- right to give into custody one who refuses to depart from premises, 249-250.
- validity of, made on Sunday, 767-770.
- person arrested without warrant to be taken before nearest magistrate, 282.
- how long suspected person may be detained for examination, 282.
- to what prisons offenders may be committed, 281-282.