Saint Agnes accepts 2 volunteers

Saint Agnes Hospital 1973 Junior Volunteer Program has accepted two black high school students from Baltimore to serve as volunteers during the summer months.

Desia Fisher, a Douglass High School student and Augustine Lemon of Edmondson High School had to complete a 12-hour American Red Cross training course before assuming junior volunteer assignments.

According to Sister Alberta, administrator, "It is a distinct pleasure to have the teenage girls serve as Junior volunteers at Saint Agnes Hospital. Their personal sacrifice in giving up many hours of leisure during the summer months to volunteer their services in helping others is greatly appreciated."

Mrs. Virginia Gale is director of the volunteer program.

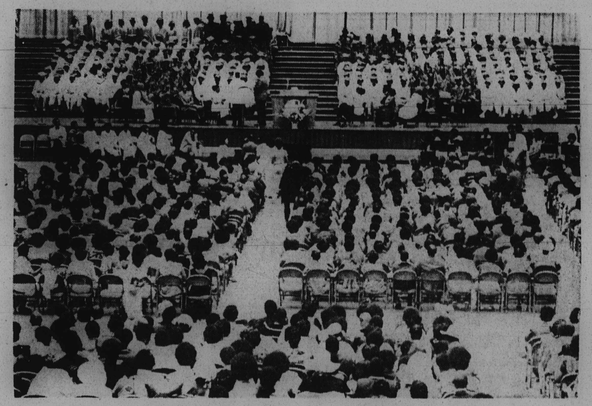
'73 Graduates

Thousands of Maryland students have recently earned diplomas. They are young, old, rich, poor, determined, wondering, and hopeful that the future is ready for them. For them the future is now or is it?



CROWDED AND HOT describes the Dunbar High School graduation.

EAGER, WILLING AND DETERMINED — Three Forest Park High graduates make a study of concentration after ceremonies. From left is Wayne Simmons, Clyde Adams and George Fitzgerald Jr.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER — A smiling Miss Rachael Murphy Phillips receives her Western High diploma from her mother Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss. The mother is a member of Baltimore City School Board as well as being Vice President and Treasurer of the AFRO AMERICAN Newspaper Co. located in Baltimore.
