In Memoriam

In Memory of my dear wife

The Late Bernetta Jones

Who Passed Away July 18, 1967

The Late Bernetta Jones

Today my heart is heavy.
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you Bernetta dear,
None but God In Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true,
For six long years have passed, dear.
And my heart still aches for you.

ALLEN — A tribute of love in memory of our father, WILLIAM, who passed away July 20, 1954:
Our kind and loving father
We think of you today,
And recall the happy hours
Ere the day you passed away.
We only have your memory dear father
To remember our whole life through,
But the sweetness will linger forever,
As we treasure the image of you.

Our glad reunion in the sky. . . .

GRAY — In loving memory of my dear husband, EMANUEL GRAY, who on July 18, 1967 gave his life in exchange for eternal life:
No one can really feel the hurt,
Unless you bore the pain;
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head you did not bend;
I hope the watch with you, dear one
End to the end.
God say the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed your loving eyes,
And whispered "Peace be thine".
Loving Wife, MYRTLE GRAY

McGOWAN — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, GEORGE G. McGOWAN, who passed away July 22, 1970: (Formerly of Annapolis and Baltimore City)
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.

Did you know you were brave, did you know you were strong?
Did you know that we waited and listened and prayed,
And were cheered by your simplest word?
Did you know that we longed for that smile on your face,
For the sound of your voice ringing true?
Did you know we grew stronger and better because
We had merely touched shoulders with you?

To bring you to our mind.

We'd give it, yes, and more.
To see the face of our loved one,
On this, her Birthday Morn.
