SS Chief Announces Income Ceiling Program

The Baltimore Social Security office is now taking applications for supplemental security income payments, a federal program scheduled to start in 1974 that will establish an income floor for people in financial need who are 65 or over, or blind, or disabled, according to Thomas R. Shortley, Social Security district manager.

But people already getting state old age assistance, or state aid because they are blind or disabled, don't have to apply, he said. They'll be getting more information later this year about how the program will help them.

"The first monthly payments under the federal program will be made in January 1974," Mr. Shortley said. "Until then, state and local public assistance offices will continue to make payments in the usual way."

People not getting public assistance now who think they may be eligible for the new federal payments should call or write Social Security to find out if they should apply, according to Mr. Shortley.

The aim of the new program is to provide supplemental payments in cases of need so that people 65 or over, or blind, or disabled will have a basic cash income of at least $130 a month for one person and $195 a month for a couple.

"Eligibility for federal payments will depend not only on the amount of income people have but on the value of their assets," Mr. Shortley said. "If you're single — or married but not living with your husband or wife — you can own things worth up to $1,500 and still get federal payments," he said. "A couple can own things worth up to $2,250 and get payments. Not everything you own has to be counted toward your total assets.

People who need more information to decide whether they might be eligible for the federal payments the person in need isn't should call Social Security at 792-7100, or write to the nearest office as shown in the telephone directory, he said. "Or, a friend or relative can make the call if able to," he said.

Robbers hit church during prayer services

Pandemonium broke out among members of an East Baltimore church when two armed masked men forced their way into the church in the middle of 9 p.m. service and demanded money at gunpoint.

Police report while some members ran helter skelter for their lives, others engaged in a tussle with the bandits injuring both of them.

Police reveal one was shot with his own gun and the other seriously wounded with his own knife.

Listed in fair condition at the Johns Hopkins Hospital are Theodore Scott, 28, 1900 block Pearlman Pl. and Wallace Storey, 23, no known address.

* * *

Police records show they found Scott lying on the rear of the church located in the 1100 block Madison St. with a cut in the right side and Scott two blocks away with a stomach wound.

The Rev. Mrs. Joyce Miller, assistant pastor, told the AFRO the men entered the church in the middle of a song being sung by "The Mighty Spiritual Light" of Alexander, Va. who were here for a special prayer meeting.

"I saw the men coming but I did not wahi to frighten the members," stated the assistant pastor.

She reveals the men masked in blue stockings drew their guns and announced "This is a holdup. Give it up." Pandemonium followed as members tried to reach the window and the doors.

"The good Lord was with us. I knew God was taking care of us," Mrs. Miller recalls.

Police were told Scott went to the front of the church and approached Minor Diamond from Alexander, Va., demanding money at gun point.

Diamond turned over $15 to Scott, police were told. Helped by some members, Diamond struggled with Scott and, when Scott tried to shoot him, he instead hit Storey.

Congregation members then grappled with Storey, took his knife away and allegedly cut Scott. But Scott somehow fled the church and was found lying about two blocks away.

Police records show two congregation members were cut during the scuffle.

Police state the stockings and the $15 dollars as well as the gun and the knife were recovered from the bandits.

Sesame Street comes to local community

The parents and seminarians in the Mt. Winans-Westport community have initiated a Sesame Street Program for children in the area.

They sought information from the Sesame Street Community Station of Cery Hill, and found that the program would provide jobs for city teenagers as well as give young children an educational start.

Mrs. Mary Green volunteered to head the community station and five teens from the Baltimore Summer Corps, Miss Wendy Bennett, Charlene Burley, Stephanie Green and Edmond Harris and Adrian Napper, were employed to help her.

The program follows certain guidelines. The total enrollment is 30, broken into groups of five. The day begins with the pledge, singing, then games, art activities, new words, and viewing of the Sesame Street show at 4 p.m.

The children receive free lunches at noon. ...

JOINS BOARD—Charles F. Nealy was one of two men recently sworn in as members of the Harford County Board of Education. Nealy, a resident of Aberdeen, was first appointed to the board in June 1965. He is also head of the Maryland Association of Boards of Education.

AFRO readers care, fund grows for Tommy

AFRO readers are showing that they care about a 7th grader, anxious to improve his chances for the future.

Tommy Jefferies has so far received $75 toward the $3,450 that he needs for his first year's tuition at McDonogh.

He has a chance for a 5-year scholarship, totaling $17,250, at the private boy's school in Baltimore County, near Pikesville, if he succeeds there in 7th grade.

Mrs. Lois Harvey, a physical education teacher at Johnston Square Elementary School No. 16, was the first to contribute with her gift of $15.

Others who care are Mrs. Barbara Small, $5; Mrs. Barbara Jackson, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Collins, $25; Mrs. Joan Armstrong, $5; Col. William A. Harris, $10 and a Mr. or Mrs. Webb, $5.

Baltimoreans may help a youngster who is depending on you. Make checks or money orders payable to the Tommy Jefferies Scholarship Fund, care of the AFRO-AMERICAN, P. O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md. 21203.

NEEDS YOUR HELP — AFRO readers have started the ball rolling for Tommy Jefferies, who needs funds for his school tuition.

Dalton opens clean-up campaign

A campaign to maintain, restore, and revitalize inner city neighborhoods is being conducted by Sen. Robert L. Dalton (Balto. City, 2nd).

Sen. Dalton, who represents an area extending from Kirk Avenue and Greenmount Avenue on the west to Thirtieth Street and Erdman Avenue on the north and Edison Highway on the east down through Baltimore Street and Fallsway in East Baltimore, says that there are many residents in this area that want to keep their communities nice, but the carelessness of a few and deteriorating services from city agencies make this difficult.

Working with such groups as the Normal Avenue Improvement Association, the Montpelier Residents for a Clean Neighborhood, the Darley Park Neighborhood Improvement Association, and the Coldstream Park Neighborhood Improvement Association, and other interested groups, Sen. Dalton has attempted to get regular or more frequent housing inspections, sanitation cleanups, police protection, and rat control.

Senator Dalton's office reports that they have succeeded in curtailing the use of some empty houses as hangouts by gangs, in getting some alleys cleaned and many houses inspected in obtaining improved street cleaning, and in having a street made one way to relieve a traffic problem.

He reports that he is getting excellent cooperation from the Eastern District Police Station as well as some satisfactory response from the Sanitary Enforcement Office of the Health Department, the Department of Housing and Community Development, and the Department of Transit and Traffic.

"Merely because people are poor does not mean that they can't keep their communities clean," said Senator Dalton. "Most residents want to live in decent neighborhoods, but sometimes they need help getting started," he said.

Law requires 18-year-olds to register

Young men must still register with Selective Service at the time of their 18th birthday even though there is no draft, Colonel Jack D. Kaufman, Maryland State Director of Selective Service, announced.

He urged those men who have passed their 18th birthday and who have not yet registered to do so promptly. "Failure to register is a violation of the law," Colonel Kaufman emphasized, "and could result in prosecution by the Department of Justice."

The President's authority to induct men into the service expired on July 1. The Administration does not plan to seek an extension of this authority, and the Defense Department is relying on volunteer enlistments to supply military manpower.

Only induction authority over those not previously deferred expired on July 1, Colonel Kaufman said. All other provisions of the Military Selective Service Act remain in force.

The annual lottery will be held.

Young men must continue to register and their local boards will classify them as to their availability for possible military service should Congress authorize the resumption of inductions in the event of a national emergency.

Teenager convicted, gets life in prison

Lewis A. Jett, 19, 100 block Stricker St. was found guilty on Tuesday in Criminal Court by a jury of first degree murder.

Judge Albert L. Sklar imposed a sentence of life in prison plus ten years.

According to court records, the defendant killed Edward J. Evans, 39, 400 block Norris St. last Sept. 3 in a bar in the 300 block Woodyear St.

Court records state the victim tried to remove Jett from the club because the patrons had complained of his conduct. Mr. Evans was shot in the chest.

Records placed before the court state John Baedenkopf, 28, of the 300 block Stricker St. was shot in the neck and paralyzed when he tried to help Mr. Evans.

OPEN LETTER

Mrs. Floyd (Thelma B.) Adams widow of the 2nd District delegate who was replaced by Del. James A. (Turk) Scott makes this statement to the citizens of Baltimore:

"This is to make it known that the floral design placed at the funeral of the late Del. James (Turk) Scott and marked the Adams' family was not sent by Mrs. Thelma Adams the wife of the late Del. Floyd B. Adams nor anyone in my family. I would also like for it to be known that neither my family nor myself are members of the Eastside Democratic Club, known as E.D.O. and headed by Senator Robert Lindsay.

Slain man found lying in gutter

A 33 year-old man was found fatally shot lying face down in a gutter two doors from his home in what police said was a narcotics slaying in the 600 block Pitcher St. Tuesday night.

Records show Herman Noel was pronounced dead of chest wounds at 10:22 p.m. at the Maryland General Hospital.

Homicide detectives report they suspect narcotics may be the cause of the shooting but could not say who was responsible.

According to them narcotics paraphernalia was found in the closet of the dead man's second floor bedroom apartment. Police reveal they followed a trail of blood from where the body was found to the apartment where the paraphernalia was discovered.

Investigators are hunting for a 21-year-old man, weighing about 150 lbs., with a moustache and bush hairdo. Known only as "Skinny" the suspect was last seen wearing white and black hat and brown shirt.

Upon arrival on the scene police claim they followed the trail of blood to the second floor apartment where a pool of blood was discovered on the floor.

Also found in the room were a bottle of beer, a knife, two hats, one red and the other brown, and a partially broken watch crystal on the bathroom door. The bedroom was generally untidy but not ransacked, police state.

Residents told police they heard a gunshot but did not see anything else.

Phillips Funeral Home handling the funeral arrangements told the AFRO Wednesday arrangements were not completed.

Take A Look Around You

By Marie Murphy Phillips Cooke
AFRO Women's Editor

Take a look around you. Look at what our leaders of tomorrow are into today and the significant roles they are playing in their communities. For example, last week several of this city's young ladies were representatives at the 11th Annual National Youth Assembly of the Lambda Kappa Mu Kopelles in Flint, Mich. They were the sorority's guests during the four-day annual convention held at the luxurious Holiday Inn-Downtown.

"Break the Ice . . . Bridge the Understanding Gap" was the theme for this year's meet. Representatives from local youth groups, along with Gary Bolden, instructor at Genessee Community College conducted "rap" sessions with the girls and discussed how their organizations are "breaking the ice."

There Were Parties

There was never a dull moment. The Phi Kopells of Flint saw to it that their guests were treated eloquently while in Buick Town. Whenever teens like their parents, get together in most cases there's always a party. Well, the girls got together and really did their thing.

At the beginning of the session they entertained each other at an Early Bird party. Then followed the Meet Your Date party, swim and paddle-boat party which climaxed with an all-day picnic.

And, that's not all. The girls went ice skating in the middle of July at the IMA Sports Arena and later lunched at Poppa's Bag, a black-owned business, where Damon "Dickie" Evans, star in the award-winning musical "Don't Bother Me, I can't Cope" greeted them. Later in the week there was a semi-formal dance. The following day they jetted back to Baltimore where they were met by their parents.

About the Group

The Kopelles are encouraged by the sorority to prepare for today's world, academically, culturally and spiritually through programs and service activities. Soror Doris Williams is youth coordinator of the Baltimore (Iota) chapter.

Those who spent three glorious days in Flint were: Denise Claiborne, Denise Wems, Sherry Morton, Yolanda Williams, Kim Lewis, Thelma Miller, Jackie Jackson, Theresa Taylor, Chiquita Blake, Adrienne Harris and Tradonna Williams.

Also, Darlene Davis, Carol Owens, Brenda Uzzle, Terry Morton, Joe Lene Parker, Dewana Parker and Kevin Carter.

(Note: Cute Terry Morton is president of the Iota Kopelles.)

It's true! Larry Gibson one of our town's attorneys, was officially marked off the most eligible bachelors list two Saturdays ago when he tied marriage knots with the lovely Miss Diana Lewis.

In a lovely floral setting in St. Edwards Catholic Church Miss Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lewis of Baltimore, spoke her wedding vows to Mr. Gibson. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Gibson of Spaulding Ave., Baltimore.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Father Joseph OMera, rector of St. Edwards.

What They Wore

The bride was ravishing in a two-piece white ensemble with pleated bottom. A small lock of beaded flowers in her hair and white accessories complemented her out fit.

The bridegroom wore a two-piece Liberian dress suit for his big day.

Mrs. Ruth Glenn, longtime friend and co-worker of Miss Lewis, served as matron of honor. She was lovely in a dress of green pastel with a pink and white belt complemented by white accessories.

Miss Mari Erwing, bridesmaid, was dressed elegantly in a blue halter-backed dress which crossed in the back with spaghetti straps. She chose white accessories.

The bridegroom's attendants were: Randall Carroll, best man and David Allen, both longtime friends.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Spaulding Ave., home of the bridegroom's parents.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY GIBSON
(former Miss Diana Lewis)

University is a member of the faculty of Windsor Hills Elementary School. She was presented in 1959 as a Me-De-So-Deb.

Mr. Gibson, a graduate of Howard University and Columbia School of Law is an attorney and a member of the Baltimore City Board of School Commissioners.

The couple will make their new home on Denison Rd.

She's Engaged

Ding, dong . . . wedding bells will ring in September for Miss Jessie Hawkins and Ruckey Lee Knight. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry (Willie Mae) Hawkins of Beaumont Ave., and he's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. (Rita) Knight.

Les Onze Party

The Hilton Road home of Dr. and Mrs. Archie Robinson (Bernice) was the setting for the Les Onze Club Party on Saturday afternoon.

There, members and their guests, and their youngsters enjoyed swimming in the pool and the usual happiness which goes with cooking out in balmy weather.

Members of the group present were, Drs. and Mesdames Bernard Christmas, Joshua Mitchell, Elroy Young, Alfred Wolfe, Johnson Holmes; and Messrs. and Mesdames Clifton Gattis, Milton Stanley and Joseph Wright.

Their guests included:

Drs. and Mesdames Roland Smoot, W. Ralph Burt, Sidney Burnett, Uthman Ray, Robert Phillips, Otis Froe;

Also, Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Beckham, J. C. Reeves, David Wright, Alfred Woolridge, A. Paul Moss, Samuel Hicks;

And, Charles Josey, William Falson, Dr. Ralph Howard, Dr. Lois Young and Mesdames Frances Murphy, Louise Lockerman, Nathan Pitts and Margaret Land.

Out-of town guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Lloyd Genus and Herbert Scurlock, all of Washington; Mrs. Genus' sister, Mrs. Doris Searcy, of San Juan, Puerto Rico and Mr. and Mrs. James Cahoun of Jackson, Mich.

Mrs. Pitts Feted

Mrs. Louise Lockerman entertained Mrs. Nathan (Mary) Pitts, who is home from Paris for the summer, at luncheon and card party at the Holiday Inn, Park Heights, on a recent Saturday afternoon.

After lunch in the beautiful Belmont Room, the party moved to the Pimlico Room for Bridge and Pinochle.

Those about were:

Mesdames, Blanche Beckham, Anabel Rawlings, James LaForest, Hazel Bertha Forte, Mary McPherson, Leton, Marge Land, Christine Moore, Phyllis Shamwell, Ella Hughes, Catherine, Adams, Elizabeth Patterson, Hermoine Weaver.

Also, Mesdames: Helena Harriston,

Their Guests

Among the many attending were out-of-town guests which included: Mrs. William Gibson, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John Galloway and sons Ronald and Donald Galloway, all from Alexandria, Va.; Ernest Greaves Jr., Mrs. Beatrice Butler, both of Lexington Park, Md.; Hon. and Mrs. Harry Greaves, of Dong County, Liberia where Mr. Greaves is superintendent; Mrs. Frances Alston, sister of the groom, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Deodot Persaud, N.Y.; Miss Sauitri Persaud, Guyana, Africa; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Bertha Ucells and Mrs. Sadie Stevenson, Washington, D.C.

The couple took off after the reception for an extended honeymoon in Africa.
