Pot pourri

BY MARIE MURPHY PHILLIPS COOKE
(AFRO Woman's Editor)

Just one whiff of the mouth-watering aroma of chops sizzling on an open grill is enough to convince anyone that cookouts are indeed one summer's treats. Add some fresh corn on the cob, a crisp green salad of summer's bounntiful vegtables and an icy beverage. What a feast! No wonder everybody loves cookouts.

Everybody — including the hostess. She knows that a cookout is a wonderfully easy way to entertain — be it family or a special group of friends. Almost all of the food can be prepared in advance. She can then sit back with the guests and let the Chef do his thing at the grill.

For a tasty change from steak or hamburgers, select double thick pork chops stuffed with a ham and corn bread filling. A can of deviled ham does exciting things for the stuffing and makes for quick and easy preparation. The chops can be stuffed and refrigerated until they're ready for the coals.

The corn, too, can be prepared in advance; just husk and wrap in aluminum foil. Fifteen minutes before the chops are done, put the corn on the grill.

Such such a winning menu and especially the magnificent aroma of the chops sizzling, you won't have to call out twice to "Come and get it!"

Stuffed Pork Chops

One-fourth cup chopped celery, one tablespoon butter or margarine, three-fourth cup cornbread stuffing mix, one - four one-half ounce can deviled ham, one-eighth teaspoon ground ginger, 6 one-inch thick pork rib chops (with pockets cut into chops) 2 tablespoons water, one-fourth cup orange marmalade.

In a small frying pan, saute celery until tender in melted butter. In a bowl, combine stuffing mix, celery, deviled ham and ginger. Stuff pockets in chops with this mixture. Fasten chops closed with toothpicks. Place on grill over hot coals.

Cook chops for about 15 minutes per side, basting periodically with a mixture of marmalade and water. Makes 6 servings.

You can easily prepare oven-baked dishes with that outdoor barbequed flavor. Like barbequed shoulder Lamb chops, with a sauce that penetrates the meat that gives it an excellent flavor: Barbequed Spareribs and Barbequed Short Ribs of Beef.

Shoulder Lamb Chops

Four shoulder lamb chops, one-two inches thick, salt and pepper to taste; two-third cups water, two-third cup vinegar, one-half teaspoon dry mustard, one one-half tablespoons margarine or butter, one-fourth teaspoon black pepper, two tablespoons lemon juice, one tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, one cup tomato juice.

Set oven at 450 degrees F. Season chops with salt and pepper. Place in a shallow baking pan and place, uncovered, in the oven.

In a saucepan, combine the remaining ingredients and simmer for 15-20 minutes. (This sauce is thin.) Pour the sauce over the meat and continue roasting for 10 minutes. Without adjusting the oven flames, place meat under the broiler, as close to the flames as your oven permits. Broil until brown, basting meat occasionally with the sauce.

Serves 3-4.

Note: Those using an electric oven should turn the dial from 450 degrees to broil and move the pan up in the oven to be closer to the broiling unit.

Barbequed Spareribs

NOTE: Spareribs are more tender and juicier when they are boiled before broiling. Spareribs cooked entirely in the oven tend to be tough and dry.

• • •

Four pound spareribs, two large onions, chopped; one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon black pepper, one cup margarine or butter, melted; two medium onions, minced; one clove garlic, minced; one cup catsup, one-half teaspoon Red Devil, Pick-a-pepper, or Tabasco sauce; two tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, one tablespoon apple cider vinegar, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon black pepper.

Wash meat in cold water. Place it in a pot with enough water to cover and large onions. Bring to a boil. Lower heat. Cover and simmer for 45-60 minutes or until tender.

Remove meat and save the broth.

Place meat in a shallow baking pan. Sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Brush with 4 tablespoons of the melted margarine. Keep the meat warm.

Combine the remaining ingredient and 1 cup strained broth from the cooked ribs in a sauce pan. Simmer, uncovered, for 30 minutes or until sauce is thick.
