George Foreman attacks billboard suit would make this only meeting with Roman

Suit would block Foreman-Koman

Heavyweight champion George Foreman's defense against Joe Roman in Tokyo, has run into a snag in the form of a suit which claims prior right to a title defense.

A Tampa (Fla.) attorney, Paul Antinori plans to seek an early hearing in Federal Court in San Francisco on a suit seeking to block the fight.

Antinori said a U.S. marshal served papers on Foreman Sunday, just 15 minutes before Foreman boarded a plane for Tokyo.

* * *

Antinori said the suit, which seeks an injunction to block the fight, was filed on behalf of Mrs. Ludene Gilliam of Texas Boxing Enterprises. She is the widow of Earl Gilliam, who headed up TBE.

Antinori said Mrs. Gilliam has written agreements from both Foreman and former titleholder Joe Frazier that provide for the winner of their title fight to make his first defense for her in Houston "against a suitable opponent."

He said the agreements were signed by her, Foreman, and Dick Sadler, Foreman's former manager, and by Frazier and his manager Yank Durham.

I'm Constanza. I can get your Caribbean cruise off to a flying start.

Dear Constanza: I want to fly you to Miami/Ft. Lauderdale, the cruise ship capital of the world, and then sail happily away to the Caribbean or the Bahamas.

I want to take one of your 7-day cruises to exciting ports like Nassau and Jamaica. I want to enjoy all meals on board, beautiful scenery and duty free shopping. I understand that prices for the 7 day cruises range from $250 to $345 per person, double occupancy plus $136 roundtrip airfare. And you also have 3 and 4 day National Holidays cruise packages.

I know that I can call my travel agent or National Airlines at 539-7250 for all the details. But I think I'll just send in this coupon. Thanks, Constanza.
