PURE BEEF PLUS TEXTURED VEGETABLE PROTEIN

• Costs less—goes further
• Juicier, less fry-away!
• Higher in Protein content
• Ground Fresh every hour
• Money Back Guarantee!

BEEF PLUS/PROTEIN is a wonderful product being offered in Big Valu's Meat Departments. It's a blend of about ¾ pure ground beef and about ¼ hydrated textured vegetable protein which is delicious, nutritious and lower in cost than ground beef. It is high in protein, closely matching ground beef in this important characteristic. Many people who have tried BEEF PLUS/PROTEIN say that it tastes better than ground beef. The vegetable protein in BEEF PLUS/PROTEIN absorbs and holds much of the meat flavor and many of the juices which are usually cooked out of ground beef.

Beautiful Floral Setting for Reed-Paylor nuptials

In the beautiful floral setting of Faith Baptist Church, Miss Cassandra Paylor spoke her wedding vows to John Lance Reed, III.

Beneath a flower-covered arch and candellabra, the bride was given in marriage by her father, William Paylor, Sr., last Saturday.

The bride was elegant in a traditional wedding gown and veil of white crepe polyester and scalloped-edged lace. Her nosegay of white flowers and ribbons had touches of yellow and green flowers.

Wedding Party

With the Rev. Walter E. Paige officiating at the double-ring ceremony, the bride was attended by Ms. Alvera Bolding, maid of honor. She was lovely in a green crepe gown and veil and carried a bouquet of green carnations.

Bridemaids, Misses Rosemary Payson, were dressed in canary yellow lor, Angela Paylor and Sharon Johncrepe gowns with puffed sleeves. They carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Flower girl Nichelle Beasley wore a yellow print empire-styled dress with short puffed sleeves.

Best man was Joseph Hurraide. Ushers were William Paylor, III. Michael Clark and John Paylor. Ringbearer was Marc Rodriguez.

The musical program for the ceremony was rendered by Mrs. Cecelia McLeod, organist, and Maudestine Godsey, soloist.

Receptions

The couple was feted at two receptions following the ceremony. Hundreds of guests attended the receptions, in the church's Center and on the Sequoia Ave. lawn of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reed.

Guests were present from New Jersey, Virginia, New York, Washington, D.C., Ohio and Durham, N.C. The church reception was catered by Mrs. Mary Williams.

About the Couple

The bride graduate of Eastern High School and Strayer Business College, is employed by the Union Trust Bank. She is a member of the NAACP and past president of UBMC of Maryland Young People's Department.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Edmondson High School and an employee of the Federal Reserve Bank.

Following a wedding trip to East Orange, N.J., the newlyweds will be at home in the Parkside Garden Apartments in Baltimore.

for his outstanding service to the community.

The moving spirit of a small group of members of the June 1933 graduating class of Douglass High School motivated about 30 members of the class to reorganize for a 25 year reunion and to further committment for continuing service to the area of education. It was at this time the group formed permanent organization and decided to give two yearly scholarships to graduates of Douglass High. Each year some phase of social and cultural activity brought the group together.

It was the open and warm spirit of the early pioneers that enabled this group of class members to remain together and reach out to include members of other classes especially the February Class of 1933. The selection of the Rev. Mr. McDonald, class president, as continuing leader underguided the class to the extent that the religious benefits to the members equaled the satisfaction of service to worthy students.

On June 17 the class had its annual service at Morning Star Baptist Church in Catonsville where the Rev. Jentry is pastor.

As a conclusion to its Anniversary Celebration, the class will hold a family picnic on August 11, at the Triple T. home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Thompson.

Other class officers are: Mrs. Catherine T. Montgomery, vice president; Mrs. Elvera N. Richerson, recording secretary; Mrs. Amanda Gross, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Dorothy W. Johnson, financial secretary; Mrs. Audrey C. Taylor, treasurer and Mrs. Anna Christmas, general co-chairman.

$1,000 from VAG's

Word from Provident Hospital: A $1,000 contribution from the VAG's. The group initially pledged $10,000 to Provident and thus far has given $5,000. This recent donation goes towards achieving their goal.

The purpose of the VAG's is to raise funds to provide financial assistance to organizations or groups selected by the members to be presented as a gift in the name of the late Mrs. Vivian Garth Alleyne for whom the club was founded on March 12, 1969.

The VAG's gift of financial assistance is an annual one to a group or organization working in the area of development and in the improvement of the economic, civic or social status of people in the community.

Their motto is "Service is the rent you pay for the space you occupy on earth."

Happy Birthday

Mrs. Fannie Kelly of Simpsonville, Md., located in Howard County, marked her 100th birthday last Sunday with many of her relatives on hand to help her celebrate the big day.

Mrs. Kelly is the widow of Lewis T. Kelly, and the mother of Lewis T. Kelly, Jr. She has three granddaughters, Mrs. Nora L. Miles, Mrs. Mildred M. Cox and Mrs. Ethel J. Johnson; 15 great-grands; 33 great-great-grands, all of whom say "she has been a Christian woman since we can remember, and for being a part of our lives we are truly grateful."
