Douglass High Class Of '43 Reunited After Thirty Years

The Douglass High School February class of 1943 was recently at Martin's West for its 30th-year class reunion. The reunion was a first for many of the classmates had not seen each other since graduation.

Participants on the program were all members of the class. Dr. Addison W. Pope served as master of ceremonies. A highlight of the program was when he took his former classmates "down memory lane" with pictures taken from their yearbook and which were projected on a large screen.

Guest speaker for the evening was Clovis Williams, who is now a pharmacist in Chicago. His topic was taken from the theme. "Freedom from Want, Hatred, Fear and Prejudice."

• • •

The class presented Douglass High with a monetary gift which was received by Mrs. Edna O. Campbell, principal of the school. A special presentation was made by Mrs. Ethel Weems Hodges. Music was furnished by Sherman Lewis and The Pyramids. Brief remarks were given by J. Brown Hardy, director of operations Maryland State Penitentiary and president of the class reunion.

Out of town members attending were from Easton, Md.; Green, N.Y.; Philadelphia, Pa., Hollis, N.Y.; Norfolk, Va.; New York City; Raleigh, N.C. and Chicago, Ill.

Among those who worked harmoniously and diligently together to insure the success of the affair were: J. Brown Hardy, president; Mrs. Verna Stepteau Dorsey, secretary, and Mrs. Elaine Smith Hardy, treasurer. Program committee members were: Mesdames Julia Bell Martin, Fernell Hoff Perkins, Beatrice Callahan Hastings, and Delores Fisher Brown.

• • •

Also, Mesdames Elaine Gough Brown, Emma Hall Sutton, Fernell Hoff Perkins, Grace Jackson Stokes, Lois Johnson Kyler, Lois Landowne Harvey, Bessie Lee Franklin, Delores Lomax Evans, Mary Morrow Shaw, Ruth Parker Kelly, Louise Pope Parker.

Mesdames Delores Pye Seaberry, Eleanor Reddick Johnson, Marjorie Ross Bellfield, Irvine Small Simmons, Elaine Smith Hardy, Elaine Stanley Hamiel, Verna Stepteau Dorsey, Jennie Stovall Baylor, Mildred Thompson Johnson, Doris Thrower Johnson.

Mesdames Bessie Travers Proctor, Ethel Weems Hodges, Vera Welch Hall, Deloris Wilson Rowley, Lorraine Wood Coulbourn; Misses Tresa Burkett, Violet Hemsley, Vivian Porter, Mildred Waters.

From out of town came Mesdames Beatrice Dews Poole, Green, N.Y.; Esther Forrest Guest, Phila.; Anna Lovejoy Bell, Hollis, N.Y.; Bernice Parker King, Norfolk; and Clovis Williams, Chicago and Zera Taylor, New York.

Class members who were not present, but supported the affair financially were: James Dixon, Miss Alma Randall, Mesdames Susan Taylor King, Marjorie Miller Luttrell, Lydia Wallace Mills and Muriel Waters Allison of Raleigh, N.C.

Charles Lashleys Mark 30 Years

The Elegante Room was the setting for the 30th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lashley (Cindy).

The couple greeted their 150 guests, some of whom were here from other points, at the Forest Park Ave. hall from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lashley was lovely in a floor-length gown in a delicate shade of pink which featured chiffon sleeves accented with lace at the neckline and cuff. A summer fresh orchid, white pearls, handbag and shoes complemented her outfit.

Mr. Lashley was equally as handsome in a copper and gold pinstriped suit with dark brown shirt, white tie and boutonniere.

Joining in on the festivities were the couple's four sons, James R., Joseph J., Mario and Conrad Lashley. Also helping were Messrs. Henry Pope, Joseph Simango and Charles A. Carroll.

About the Couple

The Lashleys came to Baltimore in 1947 from Va. and for the past 27 years, Mr. Lashley has been employed as a tongman at Bethlehem Steel. Mrs. Lashley is a cashier at Fairmount Hill School No. 453. They are active members of the Southern Baptist Church and proud grandparents of four.

Among their Guests

Among the out of town guests in town for the gala celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gundy, and daughter, Delores, Germantown Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Branch, Littletown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Stanforo Revels, New York City; Felton Barner, Joppa, Md.; Mrs. Carrie Mae Dean, New York City; Mrs. C. Webb, Chicago, Ill, and Mrs. Alfreda Lashley, Bristol, Pa.

In Riverside, Calif.

The first family of Wayland Baptist Church, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Darneal F. Johnson Jr., (Harriett) and their two sons, Darneal, III and Gregory, left for Riverside, California this week. Mrs. Johnson, is a native of Riverside, is visiting her hometown for the first time in four years.

Sip And Dip

"Come and enjoy a sip and dip," is what lovely Gertrude Edwards said in her bid to friends whom she invited to her new rancher on Royton Rd., out Randallstown way on Saturday evening.

But when guests arrived, they found more than sip and dip. Truly a picture of loveliness was the beautiful terrace which overlooked the pool and the pine trees, (which provided privacy), decorated with white doves.

And, they found a Hawaiian decor, complete with luau, and dreamy music they could enjoy provided by the Ken Brooks Trio of Columbia.

The hostess was picture in a white
