chairman and Mrs. Charles Fletcher, co-chairman.

Those present at the meeting were: Mesdames Minnie B. Davis, Allegra M. Taylor, Ruth J. Rosedom, Sarah S. Payne, Thelma C. Moore, Velma Gosnell, Mary C. Allen, Rose Tyson Kinney, Viola Jackson, Harriet E. Dyson, Zella T. Washington, Ruby C. Gill, Helen Mae Chamberlain, Mary K. Pool and Senator Verda Welcome.

MINISTERS WIVES—The Interdenominational Ministers Wives Alliance of Baltimore and Vicinity held its opening meeting at Metropolitan United Methodist Church with Mrs. Lantha R. Clark as hostess.

The ideal fall weather enabled the members to attend in large numbers. After a summer of travel and rest, the members were welcomed with a stimulating worship service presented by the chairperson, Mrs. Chestina Nance. Following the worship, the business session was conducted by our vivacious president, Sister Mary K. Revels whose preliminary remarks should spark each member to give full cooperation this year.

During the business session the Audit Committee, chaired by Sister Emma Lee Daniels gave its report. Recommendations that this report be audited and submitted in the July meeting and that a written report be given to each member were accepted.

The Constitution Committee chaired by Sister Mary Harrington gave the first of three readings. Members are asked to bring their own constitution to the next meeting. Written recommendations will be given each member at the next meeting.

The report of the Executive Committee was accepted. The fund raising project in the spring will honor past presidents and will be chaired by Sister Irene Johnson.

We were reminded of the sick: Sister Emery Boddie and Sister Myrtle L. Lofton will be happy to receive our cards.

The officers for the new year were installed by the State President, Sister Roberta Williams. She admonished them to do three things: (1) magnify the office which you hold, (2) cooperate with the total program and (3) take the Holy Spirit with us. It was a most impressive ceremony.

Members retired to the dining hall where a delicious buffet supper awaited us. The United Methodist Women under the direction of Miss Jo Ellen Lofton prepared the food. An expression of appreciation was made by Sister Bertie Lemon.

Rev. B. P. Jordan gave a special prayer for the sick and shut-in and the closing benediction.

Present were Sisters Leola M. O'Neal, Inez Robinson, Mamie B. Miller, Dorothy M. Johnson, Mrs. Frank Brown, Clotelle V. Jones, Catherine Dixon, Goldie E. Kitchen, Pauline Redd, Ester Taylor.

Also Mesdames Bertie Lemon, Sarah Fleming, Lothe R. Bell, Mamie Smith, Dorothy E. Swann, Doreatha C. Jordan, Mable William, Estelle W. Green, Bertha C. Winston.

Also, Mesdames Emma Lee Daniels, Myrtle Johnson, Regina L. Calloway, Alma L. Blake, Althea Faucher, Easter Martin, Esther L. Edwards, Edna Edwards, Mary Harrington.

And Mesdames Jerolyn J. Stewart, Pauline E. Logan, Irene D. Johnson, Mary Revels, Dorothy Hunter, Kathryn Brown, Roberta Williams, Mary E. Hy-Des, Chestina Nance, and Rev. B. P. Jordan.

WE WIVES—The Fairview Ave. home of Mrs. Verneice Reysolds was the site for the organizational meeting of the We Wives on Tuesday when officers for the 1973-74 year were installed.

Officers are Mesdames Vernice Reynolds, president; Bettye Moss, vice-president; Ida Peters, recording secretary; Agnes Reaves, corresponding secretary; Mae Dyson, treasurer and Lillian Bell, budget chairman.

Chairman of the dance committee Mrs. Roberta Keets. The 1974 We Wives Dance is dated for February 9th. Other members of the committee include Mesdames Iris Mapp, Adelle Foreman, Ivy Grinage and Gwen Tarter.

Mrs. Josephine Brown, who hosted that lovely picnic for We Wives and their families at Brown's Eltonia Beach summer home, is social committee chairman. Other committee members are Mesdames Ada Weaver, Gwen Tarter, Adelle Foreman, Ivy Grinage and Agnes Reaves.

Mrs. Priscilla Lansey is chairman of the hospitality committee along with other committee members Mesdames Alice Russell, Agnes Reaves, Margery Prout and Margaret Hythe.

Woodlawn HIGHlights

By MARJORIE R. GREEN

MRS. GREEN

Recently, this writer was saddened by the unkind deeds and words of a couple of "Christian-Do-Gooders."

The disappointment felt was so intense that a staff assistant in SSA's Chicago regional office could sense over the telephone that I was troubled and persuaded me to discuss the situation with her.

A few days later, I received a beautiful letter from this friend whom I have never met in person. It was so spiritually uplifting for me that I want to share its content with others.

It read:—

"Dear Marge: I believe what Jesus said, "Heaven and Earth shall pass away, but my words shall abide forever." Also, "Whatever you ask the Father in my name, that will I do for you.

"Marge, I will agree in prayer with you about this matter, we will present it boldly before the Throne of Grace and Mercy and LEAVE it there, not wavering, but believing.

"I have been saved since I was 9 years old and I am now 31. I have seen God open doors for me that men said were shut.

"As the old song port says, "What a Friend we have in Jesus. ALL (Not some, not a few, not the easy ones); but all our sins and griefs to bear. What a privilege to carry. Everything (not some things, or just the things we cannot work out ourselves, but everything) to GOD in prayer."

Marge, after we present this matter to God, our Father, in the name of Christ Jesus, our Saviour, let's do as the Bible says—"Be Still and Know That I Am GOD."

"This is the scripture that by faith I am clinging to. Don't worry, don't fret and don't even wonder how GOD is going to work things out. That is His business. Let us just hand the entire matter over to His All Power, ALL KNOWING ALMIGHTY HANDS.

"I started as a GS-3 in Social Security 12½ years ago, by God's Grace, Love and Mercy, today I am a Grade 12. What I am trying to say is that I got this far by complete faith with many HUMAN obstacles in my way. I could not have possibly moved them or even tried. Marge, it took the Grace of God through Christ Jesus. People kept telling me that without a degree I would remain a clerical all my life. My God never failed me, and the moment I turned the matter over to GOD, He began to swing doors wide open and is still doing so. I do not know what the future holds for me, but I can and will, with confidence say like the old song port, "But I know Who Holds My Future." Whatever it is, he never failed me yet. And I KNOW He will not fail you. I hope this will help place some encouragement in your heart. Be of Good Cheer, GOD is Still on HIS THRONE.

Your Sister in Christ,
LaVerne Dotson

Towson YWCA

Towson branch YWCA will hold its annual meeting at Hunt Valley Inn on Tuesday, October 30. President B. MacLea, chairman of the association's board of managers, has announced.

A reception will be held at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30. Several Towson branch YMCA volunteer leaders will be recognized for their service. New board and advisory committee members will also be elected.

Galen Fromme, the "Dean of Maryland broadcasters," will be the keynote speaker. Mr. Fromme is an assignment editor for WBAL-AM radio.
