CITY COUNCIL

Bill cuts time expired city jobs can be held

A resolution requiring that all municipal officers appointed by the Mayor not be held over in office longer than six months after the expiration of their terms has been introduced by City Councilmen Emerson Julian, D-4th, and Robert Fitzpatrick, D-2nd.

Both men stated that the resolution would end the impression of persons serving at the pleasure of an individual (most of the appointments are made by the Mayor and approved by the council) and would give the council its say in city management.

Dr. Julian said that board and commission members who serve well are deprived of their dignity when they are not reappointed, and explained that although many bodies, such as the School Board, allow for such hold-overs, it was not intended that persons be held over indefinitely.

He also noted that the council should not be deprived of its right to say that they didn't want someone on a city board.

Councilman Fitzpatrick noted that as of Nov. 7 there were some 34 vacancies on city boards and commissions and that as of Dec. 31, 1971 9 major municipal positions had expired.

* * *

Councilwoman Victorine Adams, D-6th, welcomed Councilman Reuben Caplan, who has been out ill.

Caplan sponsored the controversial Ordinance 1047, which would lessen the powers of the Community Relations Commission, and which Mrs. Adams has asked be withdrawn.

* * *

She said Monday that she has not heard anything on her request for a meeting with the Mayor, CRC officials and others on the proposed legislation.

Also introduced was a resolution from the Mayor's office requesting that no reductions be made in retirement allowances and benefits for city employees.

According to the Mayor, some 1,000 former city employees would be affected by the cuts and it would be "inhumane to reduce the pensions of retired city employees in their twilight years."

The resolution requests the Board of Trustees of Employees' Retirement System and the Board of Trustees of the Fire and Police Employees' Retirement System to take no action until the council had time to consider legislation.

Sen. Welcome urges ecology 'switch off'

Sen. Verda F. Welcome, 4th-Balto., has called for a statewide campaign to "switch off for ecology and economy."

The Environmental Conservation Organization of the University of Maryland, College Park has embarked on such a campaign following a suggestion made by Sen. Welcome at a budget committee hearing.

They are distributing stickers with a picture of a light bulb and the slogan to students on the College Park campus.

Sen. Welcome has contacted the Gas and Electric Company to ask them to undertake a similar campaign.

"If we are going to have an energy shortage," said Sen. Welcome, "then a good place to start cutting back is in areas where we tend to waste energy."

Those of us who lived through the Second World War remember the effort to save on consumption through turning off lights during those years. "In fact, many of us never outgrew that habit," she said.

Edmondson Hecht Co. to remain open

The Hecht Co. store in Edmondson Village will remain open, according to a recent letter from the store president, Harold A. Crone, to Mayor Schaefer.

Saying there has been a "considerable capital investment" in the Edmondson store, Mr. Crone pointed out that new departments have been added in recent months.

The letter, dated Nov. 5, stated, "We see continuing growth in the economics of the area and intend to play a vital part in it by updating our presentations and continuing to put new and exciting merchandise in the store."

Seminar at Edmondson Nov. 20-21

Scheduled for Nov. 20 are two assemblies (1st and 2nd periods) at Edmondson High School.

At the first period assembly, beginning at 8:45 a.m., Dr. N. Newbert Jaffa, superintendent for Region 8, will speak.

At the second period assembly, which will start at 9:45 a.m., Congressman Parren J. Mitchell will speak on the Watergate scandal. He will also take questions from the stage.

On Nov. 21 Malcolm Dutterer will speak on the Student Bill of Rights during the first and second periods. He will be accompanied by other guests.

Parents, principals, teachers and citizens are invited.

A GOOD CITIZEN is registered and prepared to VOTE. Do so TODAY at Supervisors of Elections, People's Court Building, Fayette and Gay Sts. Next election is Sept. 1974. Register from — 8:30 to 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.
