we knew it we were on the new bus on our way home again. It was a fun day, thanks to the Alpha Wives.

Members of the group who planned the shopping spree were: Mesdames Edwin Burke, Catherine Adams, Eleanor Anderson and Pearl Corley.

Members are: Mesdames Vera Proctor, Sarah Elias, Dorothy Harris, Shirley Swafford, Mildred Campbell and Otyce Frye.

"Godspell"

The Women's Day Committee of St. Gregory The Great Catholic Church spent an evening at the Morris Mechanic Theatre to see the production "Godspell".

Some of the faces seen that night were: Cecilia Quarles, Alexis Dodson, Linda Brown, George Carroll Jr., Matthew B. Fraling III, Franklin Smith, Walter Cole Jr., Patricia Berry, Carla Smith, Monte Dashields, Michica Dashields, Victoria Conway, Maryangela Shea.

Others were Stephanie Conway, Dale Blackwell, Alan Jones, Darlene Hunt, Charles Johnson, Lynnette Bess, Davis Pierce, Theresa Bruce, Rodney Conway, Brian Washington, Timothy Fowlkes, Reynard Chaney, Patrick Johnson, and Darl Jones.

The committee was comprised of Mrs. Edna Conway, chair-person and Mesdames Helen R. Quarles, Dorothea S. Smith, Evelyn Chittams, Esther Wright, Clara C. Fraling, co-chairperson, Mary Shea, Mildred Brooks, Margaret Harrison, Lorraine Epps, Helen Iverson and Marie Hawkins.

The Rev. Ronald Belschner is pastor and the Rev. Phillip Harcum is assistant pastor of the church.

N.M. Carroll Benefit

It's still not too late to get your tickets for benefit dinner for the N. M.

Mrs. Harriet McAllister was among those 750 high fashioned guests present at the V.A.-G.S. annual luncheon and fashion show held at the Hunt Valley Inn last Sunday. Mrs. McAllister was pretty in a wide brim pink feathered hat, trimmed with pink ostrich feathers.

Carroll Home for the Aged to be held next Thursday evening, Nov. 29, at the Emerald Gardens. The affair will get on the way at 7 p.m.

The keynotes speaker for the affair will be Bishop Eddie Carroll of Boston, Mass. where he is the first black bishop in his district. We all know Bishop Carroll.

For years he was pastor of Sharp Street Methodist Church. His grandfather, the late N. M. Carroll founded the Home which is located on Carrollton Ave.

Congressman Parren J. Mitchell will preside at the dinner.

Proceeds from the affair will go towards the construction of the new Carroll Home.

Miss Kathern Smith weds

Miss Kathern Ann Smith spoke her wedding vows to James Floyd Young in a recent double-ring ceremony held at the beautifully decorated Gwynn Oak Ave. home of her parents.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Smith and the bridegroom, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James R. Young were joined together by the Rev. J. W. Woolen.

Assisted by maid of honor, Miss Candace Lucas, the bride was attired in a candlelight gown with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow mums.

The best man was Larry Simms.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremonies were present from Philadelphia, Virginia and Eastern Shore, Md.

Household hints

Turn an open grill or hibachi into a covered one. Mold large sheets of heavy duty aluminum wrap into a bowl shape and set right over food on the grill. Wire hanger bent to shape can firm the foil when placed inside.

YWCA sponsors homemaking workshops

The Madison Avenue Center YWCA is sponsoring a series of "Homemaking Workshops." These workshops are designed for the young mother.

The initial focus of the workshops is "Early Child Care and Development" to be held on Tuesdays, November 20 and 27, 7:30 p.m. at the Madison Avenue "Y," 1912 Madison Ave. These workshops will be conducted by Mrs. Delores Taylor, director, and her staff, of the Hedrick Beals Day Care Center.

Credit buying and budgeting will be focused upon by Mr. Fred Bailey, assistant vice-president, Maryland National Bank on Tuesday, December 4 at 7:30 p.m. Workshops in housekeeping skills, inexpensive decorating, etc., will be scheduled in January.

Columbia Capers

By Pinnie L. Ross

The Columbia Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority invites you to go along with them to Charlestown, West Virginia, Shenandoah Downs for a Night at the Races, Friday, Nov. 30. Columbia bus will leave at 3 p.m. at the lower level at Hochschild Kohn; Baltimore bus will be leaving Maryland National Bank, upper level, in Mondawmin. Reservations will include bus transportation, clubhouse admission, dinner, and tips. For further information call Mrs. Shirley Colvin 730-7188 or Mrs. Margaret Barton 730-1138.

The charming Mrs. Roberta Briscoe, Columbia resident, has recently become a member of the Pieriians, the art club. The County Librarian was admitted at the November meeting along with three other young ladies. Mrs. Celonia Walden, another Columbia resident, is the club president.

POTLUCK DINNER

The National Council for Negro Women Columbia Chapter recently had a "Getting to Know You" potluck dinner. It was attended by over 35 members. The purpose of it was to get better acquainted with each other and to give recommendations for the goals of the chapter, which would help the program committee to determine what direction the chapter will take the remainder of the year. The Council meeting is held on the third Wednesday of each month.

JACK AND JILL

Mrs. Mattie Simmons, president of the Columbia Jack and Jill, recently returned from the Eastern Conference in Arlington, Va. Mrs. Simmons said it was an enjoyable, enriching, and enlightening experience. Attending the conference were Mesdames Iola Smith, Celonia Walden, and Roberta Briscoe.

The Jack and Jill program chairladies are really putting their program into action. The members' entire family went on a bowling outing Saturday at Fair Lane Bowling Center. This was the second family affair offered this year.—Nampeo McKenney and Elaine Harris were the chairladies.

In the mail last week came a note from the National Director of Miss Black Teenage America beauty pagent, Mrs. Hal Jackson (Alice), announcing the air time for the Soul Train Show that Miss Black Teenage America Edna Hill taped while in California with the Temptations. It will be shown in Baltimore December 1. Check your local time.

Young, talented, and dynamic Travis Winkey was among the many distinguished citizens to receive awards Sunday at Coppin State College.

The awards banquet was sponsored by the Omega Fraternity marking the end of achievement week. Young Mr. Winkey is the only male in the State of Maryland to own and operate a modeling studio. His studio is located on Liberty Heights Avenue. His award read "to Travis Winkey, fashion designer, businessman for encouragement of fine arts among blacks."

Miss Jacquelin Inez Harrington, a student at Howard High School is the first black student in Howard County to participate in the Maryland Central District Junior Miss Pageant. The Pageant will be held at Mt. Hebron High School November 31 and is sponsored by Ellicott City Freedom and Taneytown Jaycees. She is the daughter of former Major and Mrs. Robert A. Harrington. She was the first runnerup in the First Miss Black Teenage, Howard County, Pageant.

Martin's West was the scene of a swanky affair, "A Salute to Milton B. Allen," the first black State's Attorney in the State of Md. on Tuesday night.

MILTON ALLEN SALUTE

The $50 per couple affair brought hundreds and hundreds of well-wishers to salute to a very fine dedicated worker. The many beautiful people chatted among guests, while chitchatting circulated around a square shaped buffet lined with steaming hot hors d'oeuvres—name it they served it—with flowing whiskey yours at each center of the square and plenty of other refreshments.

It was a pleasure to have met the beautiful wife of the State's Attorney, Mrs. Martha Allen, a woman who stands in the background of our adroit State's Attorney. (Mrs. Celonia Walden, Columbia club organizer, was responsible for the introduction)
