Wherever there is a special need VOSSA will lend a helping hand On Saturday, Dec 15 the volunteers will invite 600 mentally and physically handicapped children from residential institutions to the Woodlawn complex.

A star-studded show featuring skits, songs, dances, magicians and clowns has been planned by some of the talented volunteers. The Social Security band will also be on hand to render lively background music.

After dinner in the spacious Woodlawn cafeteria each child will be given at least two gifts donated by SSA employees. The second party will be held on Sunday, Dec. 23 at the Mount Vernon Methodist Church.

Special written invitations will be sent to three hundred senior citizens in nursing homes across the city and to Golden Age Club members. Guests will be treated to a complete Christmas dinner and each one will receive a gift. A musical program will highlight the afternoon activities.
