BATTLE—A Thanksgiving Tribute to the memory of our dear mother and grandmother, LUVENIA BATTLE, who passed away Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 1969.

Thanksgiving, Dear Mother, to you always meant so much,
Your Special Day for Family, turkey and such.
Yet that very day, is when your life was no more,
The day for you that Saint Peter opened God's door.
Our hearts are so heavy, our thoughts still filled with These,
How much we missed you, Mother, none but God can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart, but no it isn't true;
Four years have now passed and our hearts still ache for you.

Your Loving Daughters:

You are missed, but in our hearts you will always stay;
You were with us yesterday, but in our hearts still today.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

BOYD — In loving memory of our son, and brother SHAWN WESLEY BOYD, who passed away November 24, 1960:

Before the throne of God
Thousands of children stand;
Children whose souls are as fair as lilies
Clothed in white robes and are all forgiven
A holy, happy band.
Up there among the throng,
Our little Shawn stands
Waiting for us to join him
In that holy happy land.

CARTER — In loving memory of our mother, daughter, sister, MARION O. CARTER, who passed away November 21, 1972:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief and shock severe
It was to part with one so dear.
Too dear, bright eyes, a tender smile
A ring heart that knew no guile,
Dear, I trust in God that all was right
Right to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other"
I know he said: "Well done dear mother."
