Cardinals top Loyola; Poly crushes City

only real threats to the bigger Calvert Hall team; Bender with his pinpoint passes and scrambling ability, Legler with his bull-like running.

Both threats were soon eliminated, however.

Loyola drew first blood after Calvert Hall's Mike Corcoran misjudged a Tim Doyle punt and fumbled on his own 3-yard line.

The Ramblers recovered but failed to hit pay dirt in four attempts. They were given a fifth down" when the Cardinals jumped off side as the first quarter ended.

Seconds later, Legler (who had left the game moments before with an ankle injury) powered over from the one-year line.

The touchdown proved to be an expensive one for the Ramblers, however, as quarterback Bender suffered a shoulder separation and was lost for the rest of the afternoon.

Legler's services were lost after he reinjured his ankle on the opening kick-off of the second half.

Calvert Hall continued to romp up and down the field and continued to turn the ball over until late in the second quarter when Mike Heubeck recovered a Loyola fumble on the Loyola 26-yard-line.

Following a brilliant run by potential all state running back Vince Kinney, Paul Nelson scored from the one.

The Cardinal's final tally came with two minutes remaining in the third quarter. Quarterback Bob Evett scrambled two yards around right end for the final score of the game. Final score Calvert Hall 14, Loyola 6.

City College, led by a dazzling display of running from Delvin Banks and Gary Smith managed to hold Poly to 19 points in the entire first half.

Unfortunately, the second half came and with it, a host of mistakes which set up no-less than three Poly touchdowns.

Poly's first score came on a safety with 2:43 left in the half when a Delvin Banks punt was blocked and rolled out of the end zone.

Following the free kick, Quarterback Joe Frankowski completed two successive passes and on 1st and 10 from the City 20, fullback George Allen dashed through a gaping hole on his right side and scored.

After taking the kick-off to start the second half, it took Poly only ten plays to march 63 yards for their third score and the only score of the quarter.

Seconds into the fourth quarter, City's punter attempted to call a time out prior to the snap, unfortunately as Banks motioned to the referee to call time out, the ball was snapped over his head and was recovered by Poly on the City 15-yard line.

Just four short plays later, Walt Jones, who was by far the most impressive back of the afternoon, muscled into the end zone from two yards out. (kick failed).

Moments later, Poly regained possession of the ball when a City player attempted to lateral to a teammate on a kick-off return. The ball sailed over the intended recipient's head and was recovered at the City 12-yard line by the Engineers.

Three plays later, Daryl Wilson scored from three yards out, and with the two point conversion the score stood 29-0, and remained that way.

POLY-CITY — Gridmen of both teams face each other as they clashed on Thanksgivingday. Poly blanked 29-0.

Parents attend second regional open-house

More than 200 community residents attended an Open House sponsored by Region No. 6 headquarters Sunday at 2702 Keyworth Ave.

Among the names appearing on the guest list was that of School Superintendent, Dr. Roland N. Patterson.

Lewis H. Richardson, regional superintendent, greeted visitors and explained how the regional office operates.

"This open house is designed to let the community see what we are doing, meet our staff and discuss ways in which the two of us can work together," Mr. Richardson stated.

The Open House was the second in a series of informal public meetings to be held in the nine Regional headquarters of the newly reorganized Baltimore Public School system.
