Perkins, Lota Howard and Jacqueline A. Fleming.

PROVIDENT HOSPITAL AUXILIARY — Members of the club, having just completed their successful fall educational seminar in November are now planning for several important holiday and after the holiday happenings. The educational seminar is a part of the auxiliary's continuing educational program.

Mrs. Gertrude Smith, president of the auxiliary's Catonsville group, and Mrs. Carolyn Alexander are co-chairmen for the Christmas party to be held on Thursday, December 13 at 8 p.m. In addition to the exchange of personal gifts, each participant will donate a pair of pajamas which will be given to those patients who do not have pajamas of their own.

Following this on the afternoon of Sunday, December 16 from 3 to 5 p.m., the auxiliary will honor Dennis A. Gower who recently became the new administrator of the hospital.

Mrs. Dorothy Tucker and Mrs. Lorraine King are co-chairmen for the occasion. The Christmas party and the reception will take place in the Emmanuel Chambers Auditorium. Looking ahead to the post holiday season, The Annual Dinner Dance Committee, co-chaired by Mrs. Muriel Gousin and Mrs. Lorraine King, is busily preparing for this elegant fund raiser which will be held at Martin's West on Friday, January 25.

The Bobby Felder Orchestra of Washington, D.C. will provide music. Information concerning any of these activities may be secured by calling Mrs Ruth Tibbs, director of Volunteer Services or Mrs. Marcie Watkins, auxiliary gift shop manager of the hospital, at 467-4700. Miss Marjorie Joiner is president of the auxiliary.

CREOLES — The club's December meeting at the lovely Augusta Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Nutter (Regina) was full of holiday spirit as members gathered and showered Mrs. Romaine Taylor in honor of her birthday, to be celebrated December 29.

The club met the following day at the home of Mrs. Willana Valentine to wrap gifts for the patients at Henryton State Hospital for the mentally retarded.

Other members and husbands who were in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames George Austin (Margaret), E. J. Durham (Margaret); Albert Hawkins (Margaret); Mesdames Catherine Young, Rosita Unoles, Bobbi Phillips, Leroy Taylor and Phillip Valentine.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL MINISTERS WIVES — The Alliance of Baltimore and Vicinity held its November meeting at King Deliverance Center where Bishop and Mrs. Ivery Fancher served as hosts. The worship service was beautifully conducted by Sister Althea Fancher with the theme "November Is a Time of Harvest and Bringing In." Thanksgiving and its full meaning were meaningfully portrayed through a poem entitled, "Plant the Seed."

The business session was presided over by president, Sister Mary Revels. After the holiday treats were all distributed, committee reports were given. Treasurer, Sister Irene D. Johnson, passed out reports to all present. An appeal for blood donors was requested so that the blood bank could be reimbursed for our deceased member. The budget report was then budget report was given by the chairman, Sister Mary Harrington.

Donations of canned goods and money were received for the club's money were received for the club's Thanksgiving basket for a needy family.

PHILOMATHIANS — The club met on Saturday evening, Mrs. Thomas P. Fraser was hostess at the Sheraton Broadway. The speaker was Miss Lillie Patterson, educational specialist in the Baltimore city schools and author of elevin children's books.

Miss Patterson told the group that eleven years ago when she was a librarian, she was timid and usually took a back seat. She never dreamed, she said that she would be standing to speak to a group.

She held the group in rapt attention as she described her experiences, how her attendance at a writers' workshop resulted in her turning to writing.

Miss Patterson's books include mostly biographies for children.

She explained, "When you write biographies, you literally live the person's life.

At present she is working on a book on Benjamin Banneker. Her aim is to give children some of the personality of the Maryland-born man who helped to lay out the city of Washington.

She urged her listeners to get out of their narrow nests and to utilize their talents. The first step, she said, is to understand "your world is as big as you make it."

Guests at the meeting were Mesdames Theodore E. Brown, Fannie Howard, Norma Humphrey.

Members present were: Mesdames Frederick Dedmond, Warren Peck, Samuel Phillips, Ralph V. Cook, King V. Cheek, Howard Cornish, Frank A. DeCosta, Sr., Carol Blanton Diggs, Charles W. Fletcher, Marcellus Moore, Frances Murphy, Roland Patterson, D. John Peters, Roger K. Williams and A. Paul Moss, president, who presided and Mesdames Regina Coff Henry and C. Dudley Lee.

Mrs. Cornish read an original Christmas Prayer for the group.

—A CHISTMAS PRAYER

By Althea S. Cornish

Dear Father, help us remember in awe, Jesus' birth
That in the song of the angles, we may share it on earth.
The gladness of the shepards, the worship of wise men
Recall to us the holiness of this yuletide reason, again
Close the door of hate and open the door of love.
For the world needs constant guidance from "Him" above.
Let kindness come to all with every poor or perfect gift
With each greeting, good desires, a source of great uplift
Deliver us from evil by blessings which Christ brings
And teach us to be merry with clear hearts fluttering
May Christmas morning make us happy that Thy children are we
And Christmas evening bring us to our beds with grateful thoughts of Thee.
Full of compassion, whene'er we're awake
Forgiving and forgiven, for Thy name sake — Amen.

The Rev. and Mrs. James O'Neal were feted by members of the Southern Baptist Church at the Emerald Gardens last Saturday evening. Also pictured are the O'Neal children, Kenneth Greene, 15, left, and Kevin, right, 17. The Rev. Mr. O'Neal has been associate minister at Southern for the past 32 years.
