Woodlawn HIGHlights

By MARJORIE R. GREEN

MRS. GREEN

SSA's volunteer group has again brought holiday happiness into the lives of approximately 350 mentally and physically handicapped children. The luncheon and show held on last Saturday at the Woodlawn headquarters building was a tremendous success.

It was a heartwarming experience to witness the joy in the faces of the invited youngsters as they stepped off the buses and were greeted by members of SSA's clown club. Performing with the clowns again this year was every one's favorite 'Lolly Pop' who out of make-up is Mrs. Sarah Penner, wife and mother of three children.

Also on hand to greet the buses coming in from six area schools was Thomas Wolson, the musical elf. The children clapped hands and sang as the elf skipped and danced up and down the lobby of the Altmeyer building playing their favorite tunes on his flute.

Highlighting the entertainment was WMAR TV's very versatile Stu Kerr, who as Professor Kool kept the children and Volunteer workers laughing for over an hour at his jokes and magic tricks.

Members of SSA's band furnished the background music for Professor Kool and lead the guests in a Christmas Sing-along.

The show was climaxed by the appearance of Santa Claus (Broadie Whitlock) riding down the aisle in a huge red sleigh.

The childrens loud response drowned out Santa's greeting but it was beautiful the way their eyes sparkled as they waved and cheered his arrival in the auditorium.

Co-chairman Jackie Roland and Maxine Gelvar deserve the credits for putting together a very entertaining program. Several of the volunteers brought their teenage children to help serve in the cafeteria.

Representing Walbrook High School was little Miss Francine Brown. Among those employees who volunteered their services were: Mesdames Karen Ross, Doris Ridgely, Estelle Flowers, Ethel Walker, Dorema Davis, Mary Winston, Mazie Johnson, Esther Williams, Marge McDonald, Wilma Cappimner, Freda Wall, Rosena Carter and Helen Phillips.

Also, Ron McDonald, Jim Davis, Irvin Sutton, William Johnson and many, many others who were just too busy assisting with the wheel chair guests to stop and chat.

The fantastic team-work was the result of long hours of planning and hard work by the committee members and Mrs. Kitty Smith, SSA Volunteer coordinator.

VOSSA members got together after the children's Christmas party on Saturday and enjoyed a buffet luncheon and dance. Music was furnished by a local 12 piece musical group called "BLACK ICE."

Folks call this little fellow the "Little Mack" when he wears his real leather coat with matching wide brim hat. In real life he's 18-month-old Robert Johnson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson Sr. (Anita) and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Payton. AFRO photographer Benjamin Murphy Phillips, IV, caught little Robert just as he was preparing for a day on the town.

MISS JOHNNELL BRANCH, director of medical records at Provident Hospital, has been elected secretary of the Maryland Medical Records Association. The association, of several hundred members, is primarily an educational organization comprised of medical records personnel throughout the state.

A card table under the small end of the ironing board will keep clothes off the floor while being ironed.

Bracelets of spring are grand clusters of bangles occupying the arm to the elbow — where the sleeve takes over.
