Christmas Everywhere

EVERYWHERE, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fir-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and pine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where cornfields stand sunny and bright,
Christmas where children are hopeful and gay,
Christmas where old men are patient and gray,
Christmas where peace, like a dove in his flight,
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!

A Christmas Carol

The Christ-child lay on Mary's lap,
His hair was like a light.
(O weary, weary were the world,
But here is all right).
The Chirst-child lay on Mary's breast,
His hair was like a star.
(O stern and cunning are the kings,
But here the true hearts are.)
The Christ-child lay on Mary's heart,
His hair was like a fire.
(O weary, weary is the world,
But here the world's desire.)
The Christ-child stood at Mary's knee,
His hair was like a crown,
And all the flowers looked up at Him,
And all the stars looked down.

—G. K. Chesterton

Under The Mistletoe

I did not now she'd take it so.
Or else I'd never dared;
Although the bliss was worth the blow,
I did not know she'd take it so,
She stood beneath the mistletoe
So long I thought she cared;
I did not know she'd take it so,
Or else I'd never dared.

—Countee Cullen—in "Coppin Sun"

MUTUAL ADMIRATION — A charming young Miss says hello to her world reknowned pediatrician, Dr. Cicely Williams, who was honored recently on her 80th birthday by the University of Maryland School of Medicine and the Nutrition Foundation. The Jamaican-born Dr. Williams is known for first describing kwashiorkor, a protein deficiency disease in children. She observed the disease while in the Gold Coast of Africa as the first woman appointed to the British Colonials Medical Service.
