Bowie students man comet info center

College students — seven of them in all — are now busily working at the recently opened Comet Kohutek Information Center located at NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center here.

All from Bowie State College, Bowie, they were hired to man the information center in a way that will not interfere with their individual class schedules. They will work until Feb. 10 when the center closes.

The students were hired by the Bendix Field Engineering Corporation (BFEC), Columbia, Md. BFEC, a subsidiary of The Bendix Corporation.

They are Miss Geraldine Smith, Antonio Jones, Eric Harris, Miss Gertrude Dowdy, John Lucas, Nathan Merritt and Michael Robinson.

Russian novel course offered at UMBC

The development of the Russian novel in the first half of the 19th century will be studied during the 74 winter session at the University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC).
