

represents. The presiding officer and secretary of such convention shall sign the certificate, giving their respective places of residence. They shall acknowledge the certificate before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, who shall append a certificate of such acknowledgment thereto.

(d) Primary Meetings. The certification of nomination for any primary meeting shall contain the names of each person nominated, the address of his residence, the nature of his business and the name of the office for which he has been nominated. It shall designate in not more than one word the party or principle which the primary meeting represents. The presiding officer and secretary of such primary meeting shall sign the certificate giving their respective places of residence. They shall acknowledge the certificate before an officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, who shall append a certificate of such acknowledgment thereto.

(e) Petition. The certificate of nomination of any person nominated by petition shall contain the name of the person so nominated, the address of his residence, the nature of his business and the name of the office to which he has been nominated.

70. Retention for Two Years. The Secretary of State and the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be retained in their respective offices for two years all certificates of candidacy and of nomination filed with them under the provisions of this Article. All such certificates shall be open to public inspection.

71. Certifications to Supervisors of Elections. Not less than sixty days before an election to fill any public office, the Secretary of State shall certify to the Supervisors of Elections of each county and of the City of Baltimore, within which any of the voters may by law vote for candidates for such office, the name, party affiliation and residence of each person nominated for such office, as specified in the certificates of nominations filed with the Secretary of State.

72. Publication of Nominations. (a) General Provisions. Within not less than two or more than ten days before an election to fill any public office, the Supervisors of Elections of each county and in the the City of Baltimore shall cause to be published by one insertion in two or more newspapers within such county, and in all the daily papers published in said city which will publish the same at the current rate of commercial advertising, the nominations to office which have been filed with or certified to them under the provisions of this Article. If in any county there be but one newspaper published, publication in such one newspaper shall be sufficient. Such publication shall be made in newspapers devoted to the dissemination of general news; and the two newspapers selected if possible, shall represent the political parties which at the last preceding election cast the largest and next largest number of votes. The list of nominations published by the Supervisors of Elections shall be arranged, so far as practicable in the order and form in which they are to be printed upon the ballots.

(b) Delegates to Conventions. The names of the several candidates for nomination or for delegates, members of State and local central committees, of a political party, shall be published ~~seven~~ WITHIN NOT LESS THAN TWO NOR MORE THAN TEN days before