7,000 enroll at CCB for spring semester

By Dr. Sidney Kobre

More than 7,000 students are enrolled for the spring semester at Community College of Baltimore.

The welcome mat for 300 new freshmen on Orientation Day, was chaired by president of Student Government Association Jeffries Carey a leader in student activities and president of the Student Veterans Association.

He urged them to get the most out of higher education, attend classes and do homework. He presented a bouquet of roses to Dean Leona S. Morris of Student Personnel Services, who retires in August.

Vice-president of the Harbor Campus William V. Lockwood welcomed the students for president Harry Bard. Dr. Lockwood pointed out college could be a rich experience, as students study in a variety of liberal arts and career programs. They learn about people from other neighborhoods and backgrounds.

Dean of Finance William Hammond mentioned the operations of his department finance maintenance security enabled the learning and security enabled the learning and education process to continue.

Mrs. Christine Moore, director of Developmental studies and new Dean of Student Personnel at the Harbor Campus welcomed the new students, and told about her department's special academic services to help students succeed.

YOU can win if YOU are in the picture

If you were at a recent sports event in Baltimore, there is a chance the AFRO camera spotted you. If it did, and if that is a picture of you on the sports page of this edition, you will find the coincidence worth money to you.

"Were You There?" is a brand-new give-away feature that costs us money your pocket. Take a look at this edition, and at each subsequent issue of the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, for a happy combination of fun and finance.

ALL IN THE FAMILY—Mrs. Shirley Solomon, a public health nurse in the Western Health District, enrolls in the nursing program at the CCB for the spring semester. Tara Smith, 4, her niece, came along to help Mrs. Solomon and her mother, Mrs. Thelma Smith, enroll. Mrs. Smith also a nursing student, was busy enrolling when this picture was taken.

Leaders will show on TV Palsey benefit

Four leaders are scheduled to appear on the annual Celebrity Parade for Cerebral Palsy Telethon, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 2-3, over WBAL-TV, Channel 11.

State's Attorney Milton B. Allen, Morgan State College President King V. Cheek, Cong. Parren J Mitchell and State Sen. Mrs. Verda Welcome will make appearances Sunday between noon and 1 p.m.

According to Don Hoatson, coordinator for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland, Inc., last year's telethon netted $148,000 in contributions. He hopes this years' will top that figure.

RICHARD M. JONES has been named successor of Osby L. Weir as the general manager of all Sears Washington-Baltimore - Annapolis operations by Edward R. Telling, vice-president of Sears, Eastern territory.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11

Restraining order issued to state Penitentiary

As a result of a suit filed last fall against the Maryland Pententiary a federal court judge has issued a temporary restraining order enjoining that institution from subjecting two inmate to abuse and harassment.

The suit filed by inmates Curtis Midget and Jerry W. Montgomery and complained about various jail conditions at the facility.

Earlier in the week Legal Aid attorney Charles F. Morgan said that abuse inflicted upon his clients since the suit was initiated has necessitated his request for the temporary restraining order.

The order, issued by Judge Herbert F. Murray, restraining prison officiels from physically abusing the inmates, denying them reasonable medical attention and destroying or refusing to mail cordespondence.

After 10 days time the order may be either extended, cancelled or a full hearing may be ordered.
