

primary elections conducted under the provisions of this Act, and not otherwise. Said candidates may be nominated by direct vote of the duly registered voters belonging to or acting with said parties in each precinct of said county, or they may be nominated by county conventions, the delegates to which shall be elected at primary elections duly held in the different precincts of said county. Said elections shall be biennially held as above stated on a day to be fixed by agreement between the governing bodies of said parties, not earlier than the second Saturday in June and not later than the first Saturday in August.

Biennial elections.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the governing bodies of said political parties, as soon as they have agreed upon a day, to notify the Supervisors of Elections of the day selected, which notice shall be at least fifteen days before the date fixed for said primary election; and in case said governing bodies shall fail to agree on a day for holding said primary elections, they shall be held on the first Saturday in August in the year 1905, and biennially thereafter; and if no notice is received by said Supervisors of Elections, then it shall be the duty of the said Board of Supervisors of Elections at least fifteen days before the first Saturday in August in the year 1905, and biennially thereafter, to select four judges, two of whom shall be designated ballot judges for that purpose and shall perform the duties required of them as ballot judges, and two clerks, taking two of said judges and one of said clerks from each of the said political parties to act as judges and clerks in the primaries to be held in each election precinct of the county, and the said Board of Supervisors of Elections shall give notice, by publication, of the names of all said judges and clerks and the precinct for which they are selected, by causing the same to be published by two insertions in at least two of the weekly newspapers printed in Montgomery County, one of said papers, if possible, being of the opposite political faith from that of a majority of said Board of Supervisors of Elections.

To agree on a day for holding primary.

Publishing list of judges and clerks.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said Board of Supervisors of Elections in appointing the judges and clerks, and in the notice thereof, shall designate the persons intended by them to represent the said political parties, respectively; one challenger and one watcher, representing each of the political parties, shall be allowed to be present at the several voting places during the voting and counting of the ballots, said challengers and watchers to be appointed by the com-

Designating politics of same.