

2. That no person shall hunt for, shoot at, catch or kill in any manner, or have in possession dead or alive, any partridge or quail, in said county, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of November following; or any woodcock between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of June following; or any dove between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of August following; or any wild duck between the first day of April and the first day of October following; or any wood or summer duck between the first day of January and the first day of September following; or any wild goose between the first day of April and the first day of November following; or any rabbit between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of November following; or any squirrel between the first day of December and the first day of September following; or any muskrat between the fifteenth day of March and the fifteenth day of December following, in each and every year, or any pheasant within three years after the passage of this Act, under a penalty of five dollars for hunting for, with dog or gun, or shooting at any of the aforesaid game birds or animals, within the foregoing prohibited periods and under the penalty of five dollars for each of the aforesaid game, birds or animals so shot, caught, killed or had in possession within the above prohibited periods, provided that it shall be lawful to bring into the said county any live game, birds or animals and to have the same in possession at any time for purpose of propagation.

Closed seasons
for hunting.

Penalty for violation.

3. That no persons shall at any time wilfully destroy, in said county, the eggs or nests of any of the game, birds or animals mentioned in the foregoing section under penalty of five dollars for each and every violation of this section.

Cannot destroy eggs or nests.

3A. That any dog or dogs which may be found pursuing or destroying any of the aforesaid game, birds or animals or their eggs or nests within the aforesaid prohibited periods, are hereby declared to be a public nuisance and may be killed by the owner, agent or tenant of the lands on which the depredation is committed, and the owner of such dog or dogs shall have no recourse at law whatever.

Public nuisance.

4. That no person shall trap, net or ensnare any partridge, quail, woodcock, pheasant or water fowl, or have in possession any trap, net or snare with intent or purpose to capture or kill any such birds or water fowl, under a penalty of five dollars for each bird or water fowl so trapped, killed, netted or ensnared, and under a further penalty of twenty-five dollars for