The memory of our mother,
Oh, it cometh everywhere,
It shineth in the darkness,
And it floateth on the air.
It clings to us, it talks to us,
Through the livelong day.
It meets us in our daily task,
Our household work, or play.
That blessed, blessed memory,
That dear familiar tone,
As her spirit watches still.
And communeth with her own.
Loving Daughters:
RUTH and ESTHER—

Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

SMITH — In memory of my dear husband, our father and brother, JOSHUA SMITH, who passed away February 26, 1973:
You were the sunlight of our home,
Our light, our life, our all:

To join you once again.

NORRELL — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, JOHANNA K., who passed away March 2, 1973:
A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heavenly grace.
A picture which shows many traces of care,
And yet an expression of sweetest love there.
The work of an artist, the loveliest art.
A picture of "Mother" that is framed in our hearts;
And though she has crossed to her heaven to rest.
Sweet memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts;
The print of her footsteps again we can see,
Her voice, we hear, saying, "My dears, follow me."
No artist can paint us a picture so fair.
It takes a true mother, her love, faith and prayer.
Loving Daughter — DOROTHY N. LATHAN and Grandson — MARSHALL T. BRIGHT JR.

But man couldn't function as best he could.
So God made a woman, and of all those made,
Our Dear Mother was of the best he gave.
Now we respect the rights of others
When they say they had the best of Mothers,
And we're glad for Mothers young and olden,
And that when God made a woman — He made ANNIE HOLDEN.

Birthday Tribs.

ARMSTEAD — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear son, husband and father, JAMES LEWIS, on his birthday March 3, who passed away June 10, 1962:
Have you ever had a son, who was very dear to you?
And the one you loved so very much,
And miss him like I do.
For the memory of that day, when I heard that he was dead.
My heart was crushed with sorrow, and many a tear was shed.
Have you ever known a heartache, or ever felt the pain, or wipe the bitter tears that dropped like falling rain?
If you've never had these feelings, then I pray you never do:
Because when God takes your son,
He takes a part of you.
MOTHER — WIFE and CHILDREN.

We'll always remember, as time goes by,
And in our hearts you'll never die.
