

and cause the same to be removed or made secure when considered dangerous; to suppress, restrain and regulate bawdy houses of ill fame, and to prohibit the youth of said city from being on the streets, lanes or alleys at unseasonable hours of the night; to punish and suppress tramps and vagrants by imposing fines or both fines and imprisonment at hard labor, and to abate by appropriate ordinances all nuisances in said town which are so defined at common law, whether the same are herein specifically named or not; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures in, under or over the same, and to require the owner or occupant of premises to keep the sidewalks in front of same, not to exceed 200 feet, free from snow and other obstructions and prescribe hours for cleaning same; to regulate and prevent the throwing or depositing of sweepings, dust, ashes, offal, dirt, garbage, paper, hand bills, dirty liquors or any other materials into any street, alley or public place; to regulate and prevent the use of streets, sidewalks and public places for signs, sign posts, awnings, awning posts, poles, horse troughs, steps, railroad entrances, racks, posting handbills and advertisements and display of goods, wares and merchandise; to cause the streets, lanes and alleys to be sidewalked, paved, graded, repaired, repaved, regraded, drained, or sewerd, or to close streets or parts of streets, lanes or alleys; to regulate and license the use of coaches, hacks, drays and all other vehicles for the transportation of passengers, freight or other articles to or from points within said city for hire or pay; to regulate, license, tax, restrain or prohibit theatrical and other exhibitions, shows or entertainments, for which money is demanded or received, provided that lectures on scientific, historic, benevolent, artistic, religious or literary subjects and apparatus for the elucidation of the same and specimens of fine art shall not be deemed to be within the provisions; to regulate the sales of all kinds of property at auctions in the streets, stores, shops or elsewhere in the city; and to license auctioneers and all vendors of property on the streets or squares, or other public places in the said city; to license, tax, regulate, suppress and prohibit hawkers and itinerant dealers, peddlers and pawn brokers, and to revoke such license at pleasure; to license, tax, regulate and prohibit the keeping or harboring of dogs; to license, tax and regulate branch stores and all other concerns established in said city for temporary business only.

To abate all nuisances.

Streets, lanes and alleys.

Taxing temporary business concerns.

III F $\frac{1}{2}$. The corporate authorities of the town of Friendsville, as by this bill provided, shall, on the fourth Tuesday in April, 1904, order an election for the purpose of determining whether or not license for the sale of liquor shall be issued in Election to vote on sale of intoxicants.