REV. OGLE

WE WELCOME YOU
REV. RICHARD H. OGLE, Pastor

REV. AND MRS. EDWARD M. REVELS receive a plaque from Oliver Moore at the Recognition Banquet sponsored by officers and members of the Rev. Mr. Revels' St. Paul Community Baptist Church, Federal and Wolfe Sts. Freddie Robinson was chairman of the affair which attracted over 500 persons. (RIGHT PANEL) Other officials are (from left) Mrs. Lorine Moore, president of the Senior Choir and Church clerk; James Alston, president of the Male Choir and Senior Choir No. 2 and Mrs. Louise Hite, president of the Pastor's Aid.

Rev. Revels saluted as church, civic, community leader 4 decades

The Recognition Banquet honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Edward M. Revels saluted the unusual career of the minister and founder of St. Paul Community Baptist Church, Federal and Wolfe Sts.

Born Feb. 14, 1910 in Faison, N.C., he is the seventh of nine children and one of four ministers in the family.

While working in Washington, D.C. as a Pullman porter, he held the post of financial secretary in the association and was elected board member of the Lincoln Heights Development Association.

OWNED CANDY FACTORY

Affter moving to Baltimore in 1939 and opening a candy factory, it was not long before Rev. Revels was serving his new community as he had his old.

He became financial secretary of the Maryland Association For the Promotion of Business and was elected president of the United Colored Business Association.

As a four-time elected delegate to the National Negro Business League he traveled to Houston, Texas, Memphis, Tenn., Tampa, Fla. and Birmingham, Ala.

In 1948, he was elected to the National Board of Directors of this organization; as a result, he was sent on a business tour of Havana, Cuba.

CONCERN FOR CHILDREN

Even though he was called into the ministry at the age of seven years, the Rev. Mr. Revels did not begin his ministerial work until 1939.

His first religious activities in the ministry began in Baltimore when he organized the Boys and Girls Rescue Circle; this organization was concerned with the welfare of homeless and hungry children.

FOUNDED CHURCH

The Rev. Mr. Revels organized the Saint Paul Christian Community Church on May 6, 1950 with just three members.

The church was set apart and he was installed as pastor by his pastor the late Rev. Dr. Wilbur H. Waters, Oct. 8, 1950.

Rev. Mr. Revels pastored seven years during which the church was unable to pay him a salary.

During this time, he was offered a high salaried position as a teacher of candy making and baking in Tabora and Kenya, Africa. These offers were refused due to his determination to remain with the church.

LEADER

The Rev. Mr. Revels is presently President of the Baptist Pastor's Conference of Baltimore and vicinity; Chaplain of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Baltimore; President of the Annie Mae Anderson Association for the Aged and Handicapped of Baltimore; Chairman of the Home Mission Board of the United Missionary Baptist Convention of Maryland.

Executive Director of the United Churches Association of Baltimore and vicinity, and a member of the executive committee of the Hampton Institute Minister's Conference.

He is also on the Board of Directors of the Super Pride Market and is a member of the YMCA, the NAACP, the Urban League, the Baltimore Business League, and of the Negro Churchmen of America.

In addition, he is the Past Right Worthy Grand Prelate and Trustee of the I.O. of St. Luke of Richmond, Virginia and is assistant News Reporter for the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Baltimore and vicinity.

500 PRESENT

The Recognition Banquet at the Holiday Inn was a magnificent occasion with over 500 persons present from some 25 local churches, clergymen, elected officials, and citizens of all walks of life.

Freddie Robinson, chairman, presided while the Rev. William Rivers, pastor of New Bethlehem Baptist Church delivered the invocation.

The Rev. Spencer Dobson was master of ceremonies.

Others present were the Rev. Dr. Melvin Chester Swann Dr. Julian Price, Mrs. Mary Harrington, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Irene Paige, Mrs. Pearl Williams and Rev. C. C. Alexander.

The Rev. Olin Moyd, pastor of Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church was the guest speaker.

Solos were by Mrs. Ophelia Payton and Mrs. Mary Price.

Other guests were Delegates Joseph Chester, Troy Brailey; Dr. Winfield Bryson Sr.; Dr. Cleveland Chandler, Titus Garnett and Rev. S. L. Gardner.
