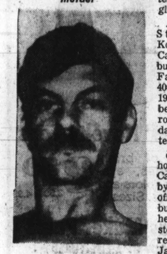
SHORE LAUNCHES EXECUTION CASE

Wentworths returning, bond hearing likely today

JIMMIE MOSEY
executed art professor

ANN LOUISE WENTWORTH
also accused of kidnap-murder



DAVID ANTHONY WENTWORTH
accused of kidnap-murder

Somerset County State's Attorney Robert D. Horsey said Thursday that a bond hearing is likely Friday for the white couple accused of slaying University of Maryland Eastern Shore art professor Jimmie Mosely.

Mr. Horsey said that he had dispatched the county sheriff and two state poll cemen to escort the Wentworths to the Princess Anne jail.

If in Maryland by Friday, Mr. Horsey indicated the pair would appear for a bond hearing at which time formal charges against them would be read.

Mr. Horsey stated he would recommend that no bond be set for the accused pair.

He said, "They ran screw once, how can we be sure they won't try again?"

David Anthony Wentworth, 36, and his wife, Ann Louise Wentworth, 25, agreed Tuesday to return to Maryland from Boise, Idaho, to face charges of murder, robbery and kidnapping.

The Wentworths were arrested May 4 in Mountain Home, Idaho when police checked a credit card they tried to use and discovered that the couple was wanted in Maryland.

They were held in custody in Boise on a federal warrant pending extradition.

Maryland State Police reports show Mr. Mosely was shot in the back and head eight times with a 3.57 Magnum handgun and a .22 caliber pistol stolen from his trailer home.

His bullet riddled body was found face-down in a ditch beside lonely Somerset County road the morning of April 4.

Guilty burglar caught again on day before trial

Michael W. Carroll, 19, 18 S. Pulaski St., was unable to appear in court Wednesday morning for sentencing resulting from a November burglary. Reason being that he was re-arrested Tuesday afternoon — for another burglary.

According to Assistant State's Attorney, Mark Kolman, on April 22, 1974 Carroll was found guilty of burglarizing Sledman's Factory Outlet of over $4,400 in clothing on Nov. 28, 1973. He was due to appear before Judge James Perrott in City Court Wednesday for disposition of sentencing.

However, just slightly 24 hours before sentencing, Carroll was apprehended by Eastern District police officers and charged with burglary. Police say that he was caught driving a stolen truck. He is currently being held in City Jail under $10,000 bond.

Says Kolman, "Carrol's timing was not good at all."

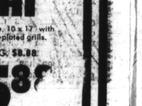
In Memoriam

WEBB — In loving memory of my dear daughter, GLADYS REDD WEBB, who passed away May 24, 1970:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine"
Her weary hours, her days of pain,
Her weary nights are past;
Her ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Sadly Missed by Father,
ALFRED H. REDD

ALTON — A Memorial Day Tribute to the memory of my dear husband and father, COMPTON E. ALTON, who passed away May 26, 1965:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Loving WIFE and FAMILY

LANEY — In loving memory of my husband and father, PAUL R. LANEY, who passed away May 24, 1968:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Loving Wife
CORINNE LANEY
and
Devoted Son ALLEN LANEY



THORNTON — A tribute of love to the memory of our parents, GEORGANNA THORNTON, who passed away April 19, 1974 and EMANUEL THORNTON, who passed away February 3, 1968:
Gone dear Mother and Father, gone forever;
How we miss your smiling face.
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place,
A happy home we once enjoyed.
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
LOVING CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

UTLEY — A tribute of love to NISHAUS UTLEY who expired May 27, 1973:
We feel so sad when those we love,
Are called to live in the Home above.
But you have but gone to prepare the way
And we'll meet you again some happy day.
Lovingly, THE FAMILY.

In Memoriam

LYLES — In loving memory of my father, REV. ROMIE LYLES, who passed away May 30, 1970:
Beyond the sunset he has gone,
To rest a little while.
The memories of his loving words,
The kindness of his smile,
Shall light a benediction
Upon my lonely way,
And thus day lives forevermore
Within my heart each day.
Devoted Daughter—
NAOMI LYLES HURT.

VALENTINE — In memory of our loved one, KATHLEEN E., who passed away May 24, 1971:
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Loving Parents,
JOE and ANITA FIELDS,
Daughter,
CHANTEL and FAMILY.

HURT — In loving memory of my husband, LORENZO W. HURT, who passed away May 24, 1973:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
I often sit and think of him
And speak of how he died
To think he could not say good-bye.
Before he closed his eyes.
For me he did his very best,
Oh, God, grant him eternal rest, please.
Devoted Wife—
NAOMI LYLES HURT.

NEVERDON — In loving memory of my son, CHARLES H. NEVERDON, who passed away December 5, 1971:
Lord thou purpose I can not see
But all is well that's done by Thee.
MOM.

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOSEPH P., who passed away May 22, 1972:
I often sit and think of you
And cry and cry and cry:
You didn't have time to say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
Often to my heart comes bitter cry
Why oh why did my JOE have to die.
Then comes a voice so low and sweet,
I'm not dead. Ree, I'm only asleep.
Devoted Wife,
AURELIA.

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, SARAH ROBINSON, who passed away May 25, 1973:
Do not ask us if we miss her;
There is such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear her footsteps,
And see her smiling face.
Days of sadness still come over us,
Tears in silence often flow.
Memory keeps her ever near us,
Though she left one year ago.
Daughters:
MRS. GLADYS DUGGER,
MRS. MABLE GORDON,
and Son;
FELIX M. TAYLOR.
