-Franklin trial

called himself "Pete," his phone number.

AFTER CHOIR REHEARSAL

The next day, Fr. Turner testified, he received a call from "Pete" shortly before 6 p.m. About 10 p.m., after choir rehearsal, Fr. Franklin drove to Montford and Gay Sts. to pick up Crawford at his home. From there, they drove to 1811 Whitmore Ave and at Fr. Franklin's request, Crawford knocked on the door and asked for Pete.

He further recalled that Turner (Pete) came to the car and asked if "his buddy" could come along. His reply was yes.

At that point, Fr. Franklin said that Turner and another "fella" that he didn't recognize, got into the back seat of his Buick. After the four drove over to Jim Parker's Pub, Inc., Garrison Blvd. and Liberty Heights Ave., to get a pint of rum Fr. Franklin says he intended to go back to Crawford's house where the latter's wife and sister were waiting.

He then said that Turner asked to be taken back home to pick up something. He parked on the corner of Westwood and Thomas Aves, and Turner got out of the car. About three minutes later, Fr. Franklin says, Turner's buddy got out of the car to get him.

Almost immediately, he testified, two men yanked the passenger door open, pulled at Crawford's leather coat, stuck a gun in the car and said, "this is a stick up."

FIRED WILDLY

As Crawford struggled with the two assailants, Fr. Franklin said that he reached under seat, pulled out a gun and "fired wildly." He fired twice that he couldn't identify the assailants because he was too excited. But as he got out of the car to fire a shot in the air, he noticed that one man ran towards Whitmore Ave. and the other ran down an alley.

ATTACK

As he further described the assault, he said that Crawford got out of the car, picked up a stick and suggested that they should try to find the attackers. After they cruised the neighborhood, they attempted to find the police, he said.

He explained that when the police stopped him, he jumped out of the car to approach them when he saw their gun drawn. He told them that he was looking for the police he had shot at some men who had tried to rob him.

Attorney Wenck fired questions at Fr. Franklin pertaining to his ministry. He asked if his church was affiliated with the Southern Baptist Church. Where was he ordained, etc.? Kendel objected to most of the questions saying that they irrelevant to the case.

FRANKLIN'S RECORD

But Wenck got more specific. He cited the Fr. Franklin had previously been arrested 12 times, including three times for assults, two for disorderly conduct and once for check swindling.

Then he got Fr. Franklin to admit that the church had fallen behind in its payments in 1969 and since then, the city has taken over the property. Kandel continued to argue, to no avail, that the testimony was misleading and irrelevant.

Near the close of Thursday's session, the state called TV anchorman Wiley Daniels as a character witness. Daniels testified that he had known the two Thanksgiving dinners, sponsored by Fr. Franklin, where "many" needy families were fed.

Mrs. Grace M. G. Wynn, was retired teacher

Mrs. Grace Murray Gwynn, widow of Lewis M. Gwynn, retired Baltimore city teacher, died Wednesday at Caton Manor Nursing Home.

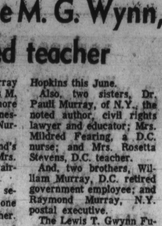
Until her husband's death two years ago, Mrs. Gwynn resided on Fairview Ave. in Baltimore.

Mrs. Gwynn, in her seventies, was also a one time Baltimore teacher. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Wellington Ross (June), assistant executive director of United Fund; son, Lewis Jr., a Ph.D. candidate at Hopkins this June.

Also, two sisters, Dr. Pauli Murray, of N.Y., the noted author, civil rights lawyer and educator; Mrs. Mildred Fearing, a D.C. nurse; and Mrs. Rosetta Stevens, D.C. teacher.

And, two brothers, William Murray, D.C. retired government employee; and Raymond Murray, N.Y. postal executive.

The Lewis T. Gwynn Funeral Home is handling arrangements for the funeral set for 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Walbrook and Eutaw.



DUKE ELLINGTON

(FROM PAGE ONE)

Presbyterian hospital where the 75-year-old musician died of lung cancer and pneumonia.

NEW YORK (UPI) Jazz musician Edward Kennedy "Duke" Ellington died early today, Friday at Columbia-Presbyterian Center. He was 75.

Doctors said Ellington died of pneumonia at 3:10 a.m.

Ellington, whose sophisticated music made him one of the most influential bandleaders of the 20th century, was hospitalized last month for a espiratory infection.

Almost three generations knew Ellington as the tall, gracious man in the tuxedo, conducting his band from the keyboard of a grand piano, the man whose tunes like "Mood Indigo," "Sophisticated Lady" and "In My Solitude" are woven into millions of memories.

Ellington rreceived virtually every honor that could come to musicians, topped off by the Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award presented by President Nixon on Ellington's 70th birthday, April 29, 1969.

Ellington's compositions expanded over the year to include sacred music, tone poems, background scores, for movies and stage dramas, ballets and operas. He assembled some of the best sidemen in the world, including Johnny Hodges, Harry Carney, Cootie Williams and Cat Anderson.

Throughout his life, the Duke wrote more than 900 compositions, many of which have become classics: "Satin Doll," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "I Let a Song Go Out of My Heart," "I Got It Bad and That Ain't Good," "Do Nothing Till You Hear From Me," "Caravan."

He also scored and conducted the music for the film "Anatomy of a Murder."

Ellington was hospitalized for eight days in January of 1974 at St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles for influenza.

About two months later, he was hospitalized again at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in New York and became seriously ill with pneumonia.
