ATTENDING FINAL RITES for renowned jazz musician Duke Ellington were family, friends and fellow musicians. An estimated 10,000 persons filled every pew and crowed the aisles of the Episcopal Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine for the funeral service Memorial Day. An additional 2,500 followed the service by loudspeaker in front of the Amsterdam Avenue entrance of the Cathedral. Entering Cathedral church are (L-R) Mercer Ellington and wife, son of jazz musician; Ruth Ellington James, the bandleader's sister; Pallbearers carring coffin of Duke into Cathedral Church for final rites, and Entertainer Pearl Bailey and her husband, drummer Louis Bellson. Miss Bailey who said the beloved Ellington "represented a tradition of peace and love, "was President Nixon's representative at the funeral.

100 churches represented at Baptist women's meeting

(See photos, Church Page)
By Marjorie R. Green

"Reach out in these Sig. dication—through Rehabilinificant 70's through Reden—through Reconciliation.

This was the theme of the 48th annual session of the Women's United Convention of the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland last week.

The sessions which opened Wednesday at the New Shiloh Baptist Church attracted delegates from more than one hundred churches.

The Rev. Dr. Montague Brackett, president, and Mrs. Mary E. Harrington, who heads the women's group led the convention in singing the theme song, "Lift Him Up" to set the convention pace.

The array of colorful trimmed hats and the pink corsages worn by members and delegates emphasized the beauty that prevailed through out the session.

The Rev. Buford Dawkins, pastor of Progressive, delivered the morning doctrinal message. He reminded delegates that saving souls and receiving sinners should be a part of their church programs.

He spoke of today's troubled and selfish world and stated that if he were asked to respond with a subject, his answer would be. "Just Passing Through In A Troubled World."

Mrs. Theophra Silver, second vice president of the women's auxiliary, presided at the afternoon session. Mrs. Edward Templeton, Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention spoke on "Reaching out through Fellowship."

Mrs. Laura Giles, president United Church Women of Greater Baltimore discussed "Meditation Through Rededication."

Other program participants were: Miss Helen V. Benton, 2nd vice president Auxiliary of Lott Carey Convention; Mesdames Frizzel Johnson, Rosa Long Maria Cash, Bertie Lemon, Amada Marcus, Mamie Cousin, Irene Paige and Mrs. Alice Rice, Southern District Women's Auxiliary.

On Thursday morning, Mrs. Bessie Mason, second vice president, presided over a near capacity present to hear Dr. Mary Ross, president, Women's Convention, Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A. Inc.

She is also vice president of National World Alliance and director of the ministers' wives' division of the National Baptist Sunday School and Training Union Congress.

In her inspirational message Dr. Ross thanked the women of Maryland for the work they have done for the National Baptist program. She told the women, many of them dressed in their missionary white dresses, that "We are all God's preserving agents and each individual Christian has a part to play." She added: "God is saying to us today, 'The curtain is up and people are looking at us.

"Women must be the backbone Christians. The women of Maryland must "reach out to the new religious awakening in the world."

Also participating in the Thursday morning session was Mrs. Thelma Culp, president Women's Auxiliary of Maryland. She asked that women be given, "wisdom in leadership."

Delegate Troy Brailey and George W. Collins, M. H. Silver, 1st vice; Lorenzo Graves, 2nd vice; Olin Moyd, 3rd vice; E. Jerry Williams, recording secretary;

Also the Revs. James Gray, assistant recording secretary; Leroy Fitts, corresponding secretary; Parris Thompson, treasurer; Lawyer L. Swinson, Statistician; Nathaniel Higgs, autidot, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Thompson installed the officers.

MRS. JACQUELINE MARIA GLAZE WALLACE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson G. Glaze, graduated from Morgan State College this past Sunday. Mrs. Wallace received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Welfare. Even thourch it was not mentioned in the program she graduated Magna Cum Laude, and is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society. While at Morgan she was on the Dean's List every semester and accumulated a four year average of 3.417. Mrs. Wallace's husband, Thomas D. Wallace, graduated from Morgan in 1971 and is now Special Assistant to Congressman Parren J. Mitchell.
