black superintendent, Dr. Roland N. Patterson.

The citizens' group presented charts and facts to show that an audit prepared by City Auditor Daniel Paul at the request of Orlinsky had "distorted the facts" and was a "well-orchestrated" attempt to discredit Dr. Patterson who has been the first superintendent to modernize the budget-keeping and supply a monthly expenditure report.

At its second meeting on June 12, the citizens unanimously voted to urge the mayor to veto the city council resolution which would rob the department of education of its fiscal autonomy. The mayor has since signed the bill.

At this Tuesday evening's meeting, the group renewed its attack on Mayor Schaefer for signing the bill which is headed for a referendum and will be on the ballot in November.

"Black citizens must mobilize and register to vote to fight still another vicious attempt by white city officials to strip the first black school superintendent of his powers to effectively control the school system," a statement issued by the group said.

The statement added: — "Without fiscal autonomy, the black school superintendent's budget will be at the mercy of the whims of the Mayor and the predominantly white City Council who will control every item, line by line, in the budget.

"The Concerned Black Citizens believe that the attempts to deny the school system its fiscal independence is a move to justify the lack of adequate financial support for education in Baltimore City now that is has a majority black school system (73 per cent) and a black school superintendent."

Next meeting of the Concerned Black Citizens will be held Tuesday, June 25th, at 8 p.m.

Meantime, the group has urged support of a city-wide voter registration rally to be held 11 a.m. Saturday, June 22nd, at the Sharp Street Methodist Church, Dolphin and Eutaw Sts., to address the problem of over 50,000 citizens who have been stricken from the voters' list.

A spokesman pointed out that persons who are 17 but who will be 18 by the November General Election, are eligible to register now.

All new residents of the city must also register, as well as persons who have not voted before.

Persons who have moved or changed their name must also register again.

Persons may register by mail application. Mail register-to-vote envelopes are available at the AFRO Office, 628 N. Eutaw St., as well as at public libraries, stores, community action centers and at the Supervisors of Elections office, People's Court Building, Fayette and Gay Sts.

Mail applications are self addressed with postage. No stamp is required to register by mail, stamp is required to register by mail.

Mr. White said he has received no explanation for the Board's decision and that three attempts to contact Hyman Pressman, the city comptroller, by phone have been futile.

"But I don't need any answers," he said, "I know exactly why my trip was rejected."

When asked if the board's action had anything to do with Mr. White's support of Dr. Patterson, Joseph Curran said, "that didn't have a damn thing to do with it." dent of the City Council, was chairing the meeting in place of council president Walter Orlinsky who is in Poland.

"I just oppose wholesale trips and I recommended that two of the people go to San Diego and relay what happened to the other people".

Pressman, on the other hand, has an established reputation for voting against most requests for trips and said that his vote against the San Diego excursion was no exception.

"I have nothing against Mr. white," he said. I vote against 95-per cent of those requests.

"This is only a part of my continuing fight against unnecessary trips at the expense of the taxpayer.

Pressman said that the principal's accusations "do not apply to me.

"I voted against all five of them and 12 other people who have nothing to do with Dr. Patterson."

DIES FRIDAY MORNING — Mrs. Leila Powell, 2438 McCulloh St., retired Douglass High School dietician, died June 21. Arrangements for last rites are being made by the Nutter Funeral Home.

Ex-youth aide booked on heroin bust

A former Department of Juvenile Services youth supervisor, who had been suspended for "erratic behavior" and suspected drug usage, was arrested Wednesday and charged with a narcotics violation.

Albert A. Johnson, 43, 2400 block Winchester St. was arrested in a car containing 30 envelopes of suspected heroin in the 500 block of Bloom St.

A spokesman for the State Department of Juvenile Services told the AFRO that Johnson had been suspended without pay May 9 and that the department had filed charges for his removal from state service. He was a supervisor at the Boys Group Home in the 900 block of Park Ave.

The spokesman further said that Johnson had been released after co-workers and youth residents noticed erratic behavior and suspected him of "being high on something." On occasion, he was found sleeping on the job and "speaking fast and not being able to stand still long." Johnson was given a urine test for opiates and dismissed.

Why now's the time to move up to nuclear submarines
New multi-year contracts create largest backlog ever—and opportunities you don't see often!
You consider yourself an Engineer, Designer or Draftsman who's going places. You've had good schooling, and you've sharpened your skills on difficult assignments. Joining General Dynamics' Electric Boat Division now—and participating in one of today's most technically comprehensive and demanding efforts—will bring you the opportunity to apply and expand your abilities and creative capacity for steady professional and personal growth.
The new award to build SSN-688 class submarines brings the total number of these vessels under contract here to eighteen.
SSN-688, or Los Angeles, class submarines have speed capabilities greater than any of their number predecessors. 360 feet long and weighing 6,900 tons, they are also quieter than previous attack submarines, and have the most advanced anti-submarine capabilities.
TRIDENT is an all-out effort to produce a major new strategic initiative reaching into the 21st century—a highly mobile sub-surface fortress capable of 50% more time at sea than any of its predecessors—the most survivable, serviceable undersea system we can build.
The TRIDENT design team is continuing to extend the many submarine-related technologies further than ever before. The scope and involvement add up to challenge and growth throughout the decade and beyond, for us and for you.
Here is a working environment in which you can realize your highest potential. And along with fully commensurate compensation and excellent benefits, there's a living and recreational environment of great attraction—a suburban New England community along Long Island Sound.
Immediate openings are for those with mechanical, electrical, structural, piping, hydraulic, nuclear or production engineering . . . or acoustics & vibration, structural design & analysis, quality control or logistics/maintenance.
Send resumes in confidence to Fred Ward.
