

1831.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 276.

CHAPTER 275.

Passed Mar. 13, 1832

An act to authorise the Justices of the Levy Court for Dorchester county, to levy a sum of money, to establish a public Ferry across the "World's End Creek," in said county.

Levy authorised.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Justices of the Levy Court for Dorchester county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, at their discretion, if they, or a majority of them, shall believe that the public convenience will be thereby subserved, to levy on the assessable property in said county, a sum of money not exceeding seventy-five dollars, annually, to establish a public Ferry across the "World's End Creek," at or near the dwelling house of Arthur Pritchett, Esquire, on the east side of said creek, and to land at or near the end of a road on the west side of said creek, which road runs from thence by the dwelling plantation of Solomon Kirman, Esq. to St. John's Chapel.

Ferry to be regulated.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That after the said Ferry is established, it shall be kept, disposed, managed, and regulated, in the same manner as other public ferries in said county, now are managed, disposed of, and regulated; and the laws now in existence, in relation to public ferries in said county, are hereby extended to the Ferry established by this act, so far as the same are necessary to give validity and effect to this act.

---

CHAPTER 276.

Passed Mar. 13, 1832

An act for the relief of Isaac Hooper, former Collector of Calvert county.

Authority to release.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax for Calvert county, be, and they are hereby authorised to release Isaac Hooper, former collector of the tax for said county, from any balance which may appear to be due from him to the county, upon judgment or otherwise; provided they may think it expedient so to do.