Automobile club safety drive

Automobile Club of Maryland emergency road truck drivers practice daily what the club preaches, safety, in a unique public service project called "Transit and Traffic Alert."

The successful program, in effect every hour of every day on metropolitan streets, augments the Baltimore Transit and Traffic Communications Center and other command posts with additional patrol surveillance.

Ft. Meade to hold aircraft show

One of the east coast's largest model aircraft flying exhibitions will be held at Ft. Meade, from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m., July 4.

The air show, featuring dozens of flying exhibitions, contests and displays, is designed to acquaint the public with the diversity of the model aircraft hobby. Admission is free.

The "fun fly" contests — so called because the events are more frivolous than serious — include a bomb drop, in which the pilot attempts to drop an egg on a target; a balloon bust where the plane is dived at tethered balloons; spot landing; a combat contest where one plane attempts to seven a crepe paper streamer from another plane; a limbo event in which the pilot must fly under a barrier, and a special contest for members' wives and girl friends.

The event will be held in conjunction with Ft. Mead's other Fourth of July celebration events, which include band concerts, marching and drill demonstrations, and a large fireworks display at dark.

The Meade Modelers Air Show will be located at Range Five on the post.

There will be ample parking and rest room facilities will be available nearby. The event can be reached by following Md. Route 175 to First St. in Ft. Meade, and then following the special air show signs to Range Five.

HUD-Boy Scout workshop

The Baltimore HUD area office in cooperation with the Baltimore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America will sponsor a one-day workshop on July 9, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at Eutaw Gardens, located at Eutaw Place and North Ave.

The purpose of the seminar will be to encourage managers of federally assisted housing to initate scouting programs in their developments. The seminar is also aimed at reducing vandalism, improved management resident relations and increased youth activity.

SEAMEN — Recently graduated from recruit training are William E. Presbury Jr., Reginald A. Fowlkes, and Cpl. Russell L. Williams, all of Baltimore. Cpl. Williams was promoted to his present rank while serving at the San Diego Marine barracks.

The youth choir of St. John Baptist Church will celebrate its first anniversary Sunday, June 30, at 10:45 a.m. The celebration will be held at the Interfaith Center.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. James Brooks of the Howard University School of Religion. He will be accompanied by the Brooks Youth Ensemble. The public is invited.

Mrs. Janet Griffin is director of the choir; Mrs. Judith Butler is pianist.

In the mail bag: A very interesting letter from Mrs. Ida Swanson, committee member of the United Negro College Fund, Inc. General chairman is Mrs. Milton B. Allen.

The Baltimore Women's Committee of the College Fund is planning its third annual fall gala for the benefit of the fund.

Members are asking support from various organizations and clubs by sponsoring a young lady as a participant in the Miss UNCF Contest.

To our sororities and social clubs in the Howard County area — think carefully about sponsoring a young lady.

"The mind is a terrible thing to waste." Black colleges have very special problems.

Many students come from inadequate secondary educational institutions and need extra help to bring them up to good standards in order to complete their education. Most of them are from families of low income.

The UNCF has helped develop one of the nation's greatest assets, "the black mind."

Without the colleges that benefit from the fund, thousands of our young blacks would have no alternative but alienation, despair and disillusionment.

The young lady entering the contest should be at least a senior in high school or a college student, but must not be over 25 years of age.

The three top winners of the contest will receive cash prizes and trophies. She may use as many creative selling techniques to help her win as possible.

All proceeds from the sponsoree will benefit some black student to further his or her education in a black institution.

For further information in the Columbia area, please call 730-8689 immediately.

On the 99th anniversary of the birth of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, the Department of the Interior, National Park Service and the National Council of Negro Women are planning a three-day observance in Washington, D.C., July 10-12.

A memorial is planned honoring Dr. Bethune, distinguished educator, humanitarian and church woman, who was a living legend.

The memorial is the first to a black American or a woman to be erected in a public park in our nation's capital.

Thought for today: I expect to pass through life but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, as I shall not pass this way again. — WILLIAM PENN WASH.

Food clips

Some fruits and vegetables do not generally make satisfactory products when frozen. They include green onions, lettuce and other salad greens, radishes, tomatoes (except as juice or COOKED).

* * *

Yes, you can freeze celery. Select crisp, tender stalks, free from coarse strings and pithiness. Clean thoroughly, trim and cut. Heat three minutes in boiling water. Cool and drain. Pack in containers, seal and freeze. (Leave head space of ½ inch).

* * *

You may safely refreeze most frozen foods that have thawed if they still contain ice crystals or if they are still about 40 degrees F, according to Agricultural Research Service of U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Stewed tomatoes are ideal for freezing.

Food stamps program stays after July 1

David T. Mason, State Secretary of Employment and Social Services, has informed local departments of social services that Maryland's aged; blind and disabled recipients of assistance under the federal Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program will continue to have the right to purchase Food Stamps after July 1, provided they are eligible in all other respects.

Some confusion according to Mason, has existed in this regard for some time due to the uncertainty of the federal law governing the eligibility of SSI recipients for parucipaton in the Food Stamp program. Initially, when SSI was in the design stage, these recipients were to be excluded.

Before the program went into effect, however, Food Stamp coverage was continued for SSI recipients through July 1. Because of that expiration date, these recipients were notified by the state earlier this month that they would have to reapply for Food Stamps beginning in July.

Federal legislation passed on June 18 by the U.S. House of Representatives, which appears likely to pass the Senate and to be signed by the President will, if enacted, preserve the current status of SSI recipients' eligibility by suspending the Food Stamp termination provisions until July 1, 1975.
