St. Martin's installation June 30

Black parishioners of St. Mary's Catholic church, Annapolis, will join with their white fellow-church members June 30, to honor a black saint, St. Martin de Porres, by the blessing and installation of his statue on the forward wall of the church, just off the altar.

A black lay-brother, the former William Grant Smith of Richmond, Va., who adopted the saint's name as his in religion when he entered the Redemptorist Order, will preach the sermon.

St. Mary's church, established in 1858, is the oldest, and for many years the only, Catholic church in the Annapolis area.

The project was conceived by Dr. J. Alexander Wiseman, professor emeritus at Bowie State College and long-time member of the parish.

"I have been greatly moved," said Dr. Wiseman, "by the cooperative spirit shown by everyone at St. Mary's. St. Martin de Porres, perhaps the most beloved black saint in Catholic history, is a product of the Americas but his fame has spread far from his birthplace in the Western Hemisphere and he has been designated the patron saint of inter-racial unity and justice. Perhaps our action will be another fertile seed of renewal, reconciliation and one-ness."

A FRIENDLY WELCOME TO ALL

REV. MARSHALL H. STRICKLAND, Minister

Hundreds hail Friendship, minister on anniversaries

It was a festive week at the Friendship Baptist Church, Mulberry and Denison Sts. from June 17-June 22. Monday through Friday there were guest ministers, choirs and congregations.

The occasion was to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the church and the 6th Anniversary of its pastor, the Rev. William McCoy, Jr.

The festivities climaxed in an elegant banquet in the Embassy Room, at 6817 Dogwood Rd. The hall was decorated in the church's anniversary colors of green and yellow.

The Rev. George A. Crawley Jr. of St. Paul Baptist Church served as toastmaster. Music was provided by the Pernell Williams Trio featuring Mrs. Mary Fletcher, solist.

Following invocation and grace by the Rev. Sis Sarah Johnson, associate minister of Friendship, dinners were served.

The menu consisted of stuffed boned breast of hen, stuffed bake potato and string beans. There were Bavarian cream eclairs for dessert.

The occasion was given by Mrs. Wyonia Rock in the form of an original poem entitled, "It's Not The Church — It's You."

Mrs. Mary Claybourne, radio hostess at WWIN spoke of her special love for Friendship due to the fact that it was her father, the late Rev. James H. Matthews who founded the church.

Mrs. Lillie Gamble represented Mt. Moriah Baptist Church which is the mother of Friendship. She told how the church was formed.

"It happened when Mt. Moriah was moving from its original site to the former Warner Theatre. The late Rev. Matthews, who was an associate minister was disturbed by the move as were many of the members.

"Rev. Matthews took the disagreeing members and left Mt. Moriah. They went to a small house on Leadenhall St. and there Friendship Baptist Church was born.

"There has been no tension or trouble between the two churches since the split, only love."

Mrs. Claybourne introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Congressman Parren J. Mitchell, (D-Md.-7th).

Mr. Mitchell was met by a warm applause as he began with the song "Try to Remember" playing under him. He articulated the words of the song and said what a spiritual thing it is to "try to remember the kind of September when dreams were kept beside your pillow.

"I'm happy that the church has begun to look for and see spirituality in outside influences such as popular music. The church is indeed a great institution, and you, Friendship are a part of that greatness.

"We would've never gotten through those years following slavery when nobody in this country wanted us, had it not been for the church. Friendship is a part of this.

"It was the churches who sponsored the freedom riders, bus boycotts and other civil rights activities. Friendship played a part in this.

"The church has played an important part in the lives of black people. This is our legacy.

There were awards and presentations by Carol Smith. Special recognition went to Mrs. Mary Harris, mother of the church, Mr. Theodore Harris and Mrs. Ethel Grier. All of these persons are charter members of the church.

The pastor, Rev. William McCoy Jr. thanked the church for the support it has given him and his family over the past six years.

He stated later, "Through all my years of ministry I have seen hundreds of anniversaries and special programs and revivals, but never have I seen anything as beautiful as the whole of last week. The entire church supported and participated in the programs and for that you are to be commended."

The co-ordinator for the anniversary celebration was Mrs. Muriel West; banquet chairmen, Mrs. Willie M. King and Mrs. Audrey L. Morton; banquet program members were Mrs. Wilhemenia Dunston and Mrs. Edith Hinton.

Hosts and hostesses were Gwendolyn Morgan, Gail Pennoy, Gwendolya Burnett, Karren Evans, Morris Caple, Dennis Caple, Bryan Holt and Pierre Johnson.

Deacon Israel Williams is the Chrmn. of the Deacon Board and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy Jr. are the pastor and First Lady of the church.

Pastor's Aid presented Herbert Muldrow in concert

You really missed a treat, if you did not attend the concert given at Morning Star Baptist Church by the Pastor's Aid Club on June 16.

The club presented Herbert Muldrow in a concert. His accompanist was his wife, Mrs. Alethea B. Muldrow.

Mr. Muldrow stated he first began singing when he was 4-years-old and would sing with members of his family. He gives credit to the retired school teacher Mrs. Georgana Chester for assisting him in vocal training.

Mr. Muldrow has been an active and well known member of Morning Star for 20 years. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Norman Muldrow Sr.

During the concert, his 9-year-old daughter, Pamela Muldrow joined her father in singing one of the songs. His other daughter Lynn, 11, also sang.

"Yes, indeed, I enjoy singing. A [illegible] should be able to sing all types of music," said Mr. Muldrow.

Mr. Muldrow has sung in various churches throughout the city. He was winner of the Maryland State Talent festival music sponsored by the NAACP. He is presently a member of the Sanctuary Choir and director of the Iona Rhodes Youth Choir of Morning Star Baptist where the Rev. Samuel Ray is pastor.

Following the concert, a reception was held at the church. Officers of the Pastor's Aid are Mrs. Elizabeth Douglass, president; Mrs. Matilda Whirley, chairman; Mrs. Joely Slaiback, co-chairman and Mrs. Montana Pulley secretary.

Sidewalk Theatre

Sidewalk Theatre, a mobile movie program in War Memorial Plaza at 8:30 p.m. every Monday evening with a different feature film. Thursday and Friday evenings, Sidewalk Theatre will host feature films in parks throughout the city. Recreation Centers with Fun Campa will also host a program of movies for children, both in the morning and afternoon.

A new addition to Sidewalk Theatre features carnivals on Thursday afternoons. This program will include a professional magician, followed by races and games with prizes.

Cartoons and refreshments will end the afternoon portion of the carnival. In the evenings, following the carnival, a full length film will be shown to an older audience.

On Friday, June 28, "Cat Balou" will be featured in the Wyman Park Dell, at 8:30 p.m.
