

CHAPTER 114.

CHAP. 115.

A supplement to an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, entitled, an act for the building of a bridge over the Great Falls of the Gunpowder, at Monkton mills in Baltimore county.

Passed Mar. 4, 1836

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Additional levy directed
That the Commissioners of Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorised and required to levy, upon the assessable property of said county, at their next annual levy, one thousand dollars, in addition to the amount specified in the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, for building of a bridge over the Great Falls of the Gunpowder, at or near Monkton mills in Baltimore county, and that the said sum of one thousand dollars be expended and accounted for, agreeably to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 115.

An act to Incorporate the Retreat School House, in Frederick county.

Passed Mar. 4, 1836

WHEREAS, Joshua and Sarah Doub, of Frederick county, by indenture, bearing date the seventh day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, have conveyed one quarter acre, part of a tract of land called the Retreat, to George M. Potts, Cornelius Shriner, Benjamin Neidig, Jacob Reese and Thomas W. Johnson, and their successors in the office of trustees of the Retreat School House, to be elected according to the constitution adopted by the parties to said deed and others, appointed for the purpose of erecting and conducting a school house upon the premises; And whereas, at an election held at said school house, on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, Joshua Doub, Cornelius Shriner, Benjamin Neidig, Ezra Dell and John Derr, Junior, were elected as trustees of said school house until the first day of January, eighteen

Preamble