FIRE HERO—Sgt. David Bess, a careerman in the U.S. Army, has received citation for extinguishing fire in a blazing house and braving thick, black smoke to save the life of a one-year old child in Columbia, Howard County, May 21. Receiving the citation from County executive Omar Jones (second from left) is Mr. Bess. Also present are Lt. James E. Heller of the Columbia Fire Dept. and Melvin L. Blankenheim, president of Howard Security Agency

398 get certificates at Hampstead Hill

The closing exercises were held for the ninth grade classes at Hampstead Hill Junior High School, Thursday, June 20.

Three hundred ninety-eight students received certificates for completing the ninth grade without a single failure.

An additional hundred who passed most of their subjects will be provisionally promoted to senior highs in all parts of the city.

Dr. Warren Culbertson, principal, presented the class to the audience of friends and relatives and congratulated both pupils and parents on their fine achievement.

Mr. Daniel Rochowiak, regional superintendent, Mr. Raymond Carpenter, assistant superintendent, and Mrs. Jacqueline Hardy, Region III specialist, were present.

Mr. J. Elliott Green and Mr. Rudolph DePaola, assistant principals, presented the certificates. Dr. Culbertson presented the awards. Four ninth grade students gave brief speeches of appreciation and farewell.

Special awards were presented tothe following: Girl with the highest average for three years: Carolyn Maddox, an average of 97.6; Boy with the highest average; Aris Pantazonis, an average of 91.2; Special Commendation: Debra Blalock and William Ellienberger.

Certificates for good work on the school newspaper, "The Lantern," went to Charles Rasin, Judith Allen, Sheila Reid, Jeannie Krajewski, Linda Geeson, Jayne Raleigh, Evelyn Skipwith and John Brewer.

Lynnleigh Diacumakos, President of the College Club at Hampstead Hill, presented to the Principal, a bank book with $172 in it for a scholarship to be awarded in June 1977 to some member of this graduating class who would like to apply for this assistance with his college expenses.

5,000 th CUSTOMER — Mrs. Dorris Moore, the 5,000th customer to make a purchase at Baltimore City Hospitals' Kiwanis Gift Shoppe, has been presented with a bouquet of roses and cosmetic by Jared I. Mandell, assistant director, Baltimore City Hospitals, and Mrs. Rachel Robinson, manager of Kiwanis Gift Shoppe. Mrs. Moore, a resident of Cordelia Ave, has been coming to the hospital for her patient cares for 17 years. She is married and has six children.

Mayor proclaims War On Crime Week

The Hon. Mayor Schaefer has proclaimed July 7-July 13 "War On Crime Week" in a ceremony in his office.

• • •

At the ceremony, the Rev. Elijah McDaniel Sr., chairman of the Crusade USA War On Crime, unveiled to the public a new program to combat crime. This program has been known to police commissioners and other legal authorities since 1968:

• • •

The War On Crime Week will kick-off with a seminar at the Calvert Educational Center, Sunday, June 7 at 4 p.m.

• • •

On the panel will be Mayor Schaefer; State's Attorney, Milton B. Allen; Project co-ordinator of Criminal Justice, Thomas Curtis; Southwest Baltimore community and civic leader, Millie Woody; Irvin Conway and other community representatives. The admission is free.

Call BAY for help

Volunteers at Baltimore Answers You (BAY), a telephone service in City Hall for Helping Baltimoreans resolve problems with city agencies, celebrated its first year in the Ceremonial Room at City Hall.

BAY has handled approximately 2,300 problems. About 70 per cent of complaints phoned in to BAY have been resolved, 20 per cent are pending and the remainder either were not or could not be helped.

• • •

BAY is open for calls from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at 396-4870.

• • •

According to executive director Winifred Borden, "We take calls from people with concrete problems, such as rats or trash in their yards, and relay these complaints to the proper people."

BAY operates as a joint project of the Junior League of Baltimore, Inc. and Mayor Schaefer's Office.

• • •

The office has been staffed by about 50 volunteers at various times throughout the year.

Each volunteer works a three hour shift once a week. Training is provided in phone procedures and city services available before volunteers assume phone duty.

Citizens interested in volunteering their services may call the BAY number 396-4870 from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

MOTHERS AIDES — A variety of community oriented organizations, including the Baltimore County Police and Fire Departments and the Maryland State Police, participate in Baltimore County General Hospital's six - week Mothers Aide Training Program.
