CHAPTER 4.

AN ACT to cede jurisdiction to the United States of America over a certain tract of land in the County of Montgomery and State of Maryland, to be used and occupied as an Experiment Station for the Bureau of Animal Industry, and for the purposes herein specified.

WHEREAS, The United States of America has acquired by purchase from the rightful owner thereof, as appears from a certain deed filed in the office of the Clerk of Montgomery County, and recorded in Liber S. D. No. 8, folio 429, one of the land records of the said Montgomery County, a certain tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the said County of Montgomery and State of Maryland, and which is described in its entirety as follows: A part of a tract of land formerly known as "Oatland," located near Bethesda, near the line of the road commonly known as the "Rockville Pike," and near the electric car line operated between Tenleytown, in the District of Columbia and the town of Rockville, County seat of Montgomery County, containing twenty acres, more or less; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, That the consent of the State of Maryland is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States of America of the lands above described, and jurisdiction over the same is hereby ceded to the United States of America; and the United States of America shall have, hold, own and occupy the said lands, and shall exercise supreme jurisdiction and control over the same and over every part thereof, subject, however, to the restrictions hereinafter imposed. Jurisdiction ceded to
United States

SEC. 2. That the State of Maryland shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over said land, so
