Register to vote

By Fletcher Roberts

With the rapid approach of the August 12 voter registration deadline, the AFRO strongly urges black persons residing in any of the neighborhoods depicted in the adjoining map to consider seriously re registration.

Intensive investigation of the records of the Board of Election Supervisors reveals that of 69,[illegible] names stricken from city voter rolls, 3[illegible],[illegible]6 or 45.9 per cent were persons from predominantly black precincts.

By law, the names of persons who fail to vote in any five-year period are stricken from the list. The board conducted this most recent "five-year pull" in January.

Persons may obtain voter registration applications at any of the following:

Any public library branch.

The principal's office of all high schools.

Every Community Action Agency center.

Many major department stores.

The Board of Election Supervisors, Fayette and Gay Sts., daily between the hours of 8:30 and 4.

Completed applications should be returned to the board before the deadline. Failure to register disqualifies any person from voting in the September 10 primary.

PLEASE patronize AFRO advertisers. They welcome your business.

SALUTES TO MRS. MOSS

School Board resolution praises retiring member; so does Council

A resolution praising Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss because her participation as a school board member was one of developing continuously insights, and sensitivity to the diverse needs of the city," was adopted unanimously by the Baltimore City Board of School Commissioners.

The citation which noted her leadership in the national search for the present superintendent, Dr. Roland N. Patterson and her chairing of the Student Bill of Rights Committee, was offered by Larry S. Gibson and seconded by Dr. Beryl Williams.

Mrs. Moss who had served since January, 1960, was summarily removed by Mayor Schaefer last month.

Morgan State College dean, Dr. Williams, who succeeded her, noted she had known Mrs. Moss for 25 years, and added, "I feel it an honor to follow her."

Student commissioner, Robert C. Bruce praised the "gallant leadership" of Mrs. Moss and stated, "She is among those that I have learned to respect because they really attempt to give their all on this board and truly Mrs. Moss deserves more credit that we can give her."

Commissioner James Griffin noted her dedicated service during periods when there were many, many pressures on the board in the late fifties and during the civil rights movement, at great sacrifice.

Dr. W. Eugene Scott added that while, Mrs. Moss and I differed idiologically, on most issues, I concur with the appraisal that Mrs. Moss did a tremendous service to the youngsters of Baltimore city, particularly the black ones, and they were able to be relieved considerably of their frustrations."

Dr. John Walton, president of the board, called Mrs. Moss' contributions to the school system, "noteworthy" and characterized the resolution as "very great and sincere appreciation" of her contributions.

Other commissioners present were Mrs. Sheila Sachs and Mrs. Maree Farring. . . .

Mrs. Moss, vice president of the AFRO-AMERICAN, began service on the board, January 1, 1960, by appointment of Mayor J. Harold Grady. She was once reappointed and was serving an interim under Mayor Schaefer when he suddenly announced on May 31 this year, that he had decided to make a new appointment without notifying her in advance.

Nevertheless, the City Council meeting on Tuesday May 29, adopted a resolution introduced by Councilperson Victorine Q Adams, (D. 4th) which noted her "dedicated" service as the first black woman and the first mother with children in the city's public schools to serve as a member of the board.

This resolution added:

"She was eminently qualified for this position and served with dignity and fidelity. During the turbulent 60's when dissent and disruption were the order of the times, Mrs. Moss' presence exerted a persuasive influence that helped calm the turbulent waters. She helped to deal with many sensitive issues and was wise, outspoken, deliberate and truthful on such topics as equality in education for all children, desegregation of the public schools, community input from citizens relative to school problems, and the development of proper race relations among teachers and students.

Members of the board of trustees of Community College of Baltimore, where Mrs. Moss was vice chairman of the board, honored her on Thursday evening at the Hopkins Club.

• • •

Board chairman, Dr. Calvin B.T. Lee, and Trustees Charles Tildon, Leah Freelander, Louis Doering Sr. and CCB president Dr. Harry Bard and other college administrators and their spouses attended.

Gifts included an engraved silver necklace noting Mrs. Moss service on the board from 1968-74.

Trustees James T. Dorsey and Angela Bambace were absent because of death in the family and illness.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

CREIGLER, BERNARD M. who departed this life July 13, 1971;
Since you are gone and I remain, One thing I'd have you do; Walk slowly down the path of death For Soon I'll follow you. I'll want to know each step you take That I may walk the same. For some day down that lonely road You'll hear me call your name.

Sorrowfully submitted,
KATHARINE

HARRIS — In loving memory of our son and brother, ARTHUR E. HARRIS JR., who passed away July 11, 1972:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place,
Oh, we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face
Days of sadness still come over us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us two years ago.
MA and DAD,
TONI and BERNICE

FOWLER — In loving memory of our dear father, WILLIAM E. FOWLER, who passed away July 7, 1973:
One year has passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away.
God took him home, it was His will
Within our hearts he liveth still.
He had a smile for everyone,
A heart as good as gold,
To those who love and knew him,
His memory will never grow old.
Children-BLANCHE PALABON, CATHERINE THORNTON, MILDRED GROSS, RUTH WILLIAMS, WILLIAM and GEORGE FOWLER

GARDNER — In loving memory of our dear brother and uncle, GEORGE ALBERT GARDINER, who passed away July 14, 1970:
We saw you fading like a flower,
But could not make you stay;
We nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.
Oh, BUCK, dear we loved you
And our hearts ache for you still;
Forgotten by some other,
But by us you never will.
SISTERS-BROTHER-NIECES and NEPHEWS

CREIGLER — A Tribute of love to the memory of our son, BERNARD M. CREIGLER, who departed this life, July 13, 1971:
You're not forgotten son, dear
Nor ever shall you be
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee.
Days of sadness still come over us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us three years ago.
Loving MOTHER and DAD

Birthday Tribute

GROSS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my mother, MRS. MARGARET J. GROSS, on her birthday, July 4th, who passed away September 20, 1960:
You memory to me is a keepsake
With which I shall never part.
Though God has you in His keeping
I still have you in my heart.
Loving
Daughter-MARIE (DUKIE)

ERBY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear father and our brother-in-law, ORNAT ERBY SR. on his birthday July 12, who passed away September 11, 1962:
Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days.
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Son,
ORNAT JR.
