—AFRO candidates

(From Page One)

Murray for clerk of the Baltimore City Court.

Bertram Dorsey was chosen over Vince Paul for sheriff.

Mrs. Barbara Jefferson gained AFRO endorsement over candidates William Allen and Cornell C. Bass.

Milton B. Allen was given endorsement for State's Attorney.

Paul L. Chester for clerk of the Court of Common Pleas.

Rodney Lorenzo Graves for Register of Wills.

Julius Henson for clerk of Circuit Court No. 2.

Carroll Smith for clerk of the Superior Court.

Benjamin H. Foreman for Judge of the Orphan's Court.

And, Maurice 'Hot Rod' Hulbert for clerk of Circuit Court.

Reaction to AFRO endorsement appeared to center on new found unity of purpose and a determination of black candidates and black persons to "move ahead."

Mr. Harris said, "I think the AFRO's early endorsement this year will help many of us make up our minds as to whether we would chance a potentially divisive campaign in our community.

"Now many of us can make the decision as to whether we can win without the endorsement. I really believe that those not endorsed will withdraw so that the lines can now be clearly drawn to defeat the incumbents and to make sure that Paul Chester, Milton Allen and Ben Foreman will be sent back to do the jobs they have done so well."

Mrs. Jefferson responded, "We can now be unified and I feel we will move in the direction of a unity ticket very soon.

"The target remains the criminal courts which have been the most awesome of all courts to poor people. All of us seem to feel that only by a united effort can we begin to move ahead. Let's move."

According to Mr. Smith, "I guess we all laid it on the line. All the cards are now on the table. All the rumors have been killed. The path is now clear for a unified effort."

Mr. Dorsey told the AFRO, "We are all most appreciative of the AFRO's early endorsement and commend the great service it has been doing for black people.

"They did something that no one else could or wanted to do. They made a decision and now many other decisions are easier for us all. We are all now pulling together."

In Mr. Graves' opinion, "The primary motivating forces in keeping young people in this city are: challenging futures and well paying jobs.

"Through the united effort of a clerk term this year, we can make these goals realities. Now young people will be able to see the direct relationship between the vote and access to institutions here tofore unknown and inaccessible.

"We will have to send them a message that will give us all hope in the political system and perhaps can change the course of history."

Mr. Hulbert added, "I used to think politics was dirty. Now I know politics is dirty and a large part of the filth of politics is now located in the courthouse.

"Before this year I really did not know how bad it was. I state now as I have stated before, we are all unbossed and unbought and I hope we all have the strength to keep it that way."

be impeached, but I don't think he should resign as long as he is doing what he thinks is right."

Kearemba Abu, 31, 1400 block Madison Ave., lecturer-craftsman: "I thinjk he should be impeached; if he's not, then this government to prove that its own a chance for the government to prove that its own laws can be protected."

G. Robinson, 64, 4800 block Lanier Ave., chauffeur: "I think that ne'll be impeached. It'll be around October before they get the whole thing straightened out."

Fred Glickman, 47, 3100 block St. Paul St., crime analyst: "I feel that based on Nixon's political history, he won't be impeached, because he generates a lot of fear amongst members of the House and loyalists in the Republican party."

Ms. Sylvia George, 28, W. Baltimore, nursery school program director: "No, I don't think that he'll be impeached, because there'll be loopholes he can get through somewhere. I think that he should be impeached though."

Alan D. Johnson, 20, 3300 block Kelox Rd., salesman: "I think that he should resign and not go through all that impeachment business which may take up to a year."

Larry Holman, 18, 100 block Albermarle St., student: "At this point I do think that they'll impeach him. It will take about a year. I don't think that he should resign because they (Congress) needs the chance to use the machines of justice for the first time and impeach him."

Howard Horowitz, 27, 4600 Horizon Ct., record shop manager: "I would like to give you something heavy and philosophic about Nixon, but there is nothing heavy and philosophic about Nixon. He's screwed up, now he needs to move out."

Carl Gentile, 28, 2700 block Matthews St., ship builder: "Yes, I think that he'll be impeached, but he may resign or kill himself before that because fascists usually accept defeat very badly.

Mrs. Audrey L. Morton, 31, Edmondson Village, insurance clerk: "Yes, I think he should be impeached. I think he should resign too, whichever comes first. I think he'll resign to save face."

Pomerleau fires, suspends despite high crime rate

By Dennis Schatzman

Among cities of comparable size (600,000 to 100,000), Baltimore ranks among the highest in total crimes, according to the recent FBI Uniform Crime Report.

The report, which pertains to the first three months of 1974, was released on July 15, the same day Police Commissioner Donald D. Poerleau began a totalitarian purge of police men who participated in the recent four-day walkout.

Between the months of January and March, 1974, Baltimore registered the following offenses: 60 murders/manslaughter; 105 forcible rapes; 2,068 robberies; 1,346 aggravated assaults; 4,008 burglaries; 6,785 larcenies and 1,954 auto thefts.

For same period of time, Washington D.C. registered 52 murders; 127 rapes; 1,709 robberies; 700 aggravated assaults; 2,921 burglaries; 4,825 larcenies and 95 auto thefts.

Cleveland totaled 56 murders; 100 rapes; 1,277 robberies; 501 assaults; 2,746 burglaries; larcenies and 4,632 auto thefts.

Dallas had 44 murders; 136 rapes; 700 robberies; 899 assaults; 6,454 burlaries; 8,615 larcenies and 1,405 auto thifts.

Milwaukee listed 13 murders; 37 rapes; 322 robberies; 187 assaults; 1,326 burglaries; 3,109 larcenies and 1,064 auto thefts.

San Francisco had 40 murders; 114 rapes; 1,024 robberies; 616 assaults; 3,439 burglaries; 5,975 larcenies and 2,304 auto thefts.

Since the strike ended July 15, Commissioner Pomerleau has fired probationary police officers; suspended 16 police officers, 41 officials in Local 1195, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees Union; demoted 29 officers, transferred 59 others and has promised to reprimand a total of 600 officers who participated in the strike.

Further, he stripped Local 1195 of its right to represent the policemen, suspended its president, George Hoyt and advised the city not to extract union dues from their paychecks.

"Morale is at an all time low," Hoyt told the AFRO. "There is so much dissatisfaction among the policemen that some are talking of quitting," he added.

When rumors spread that 300 policemen were threatening to resign in response to Hoyt's suspension, he asked that the men reconsider, for the city's sake.

"I do not want to be the pied piper of 300 men walking off the job. That would stagger the city," Hoyt told this reporter.

From the Commissioner's office came reports that Mr. Pomerleau had received a number of "threats from union members."

Bryan Joyce, of the police public information office told the AFRO that the threats were under investigation but no arrests have been made. He would not comment, however, as to the number of threats or who was under suspicion.

The department further announced that police recruitment has been stepped up through increased advertising, speeches on college campuses and offering a $50 "finder's fee" to officers who bring new recurits to the force. Approximately 250 police are reportedly needed to bring the force to full strength.

The AFRO learned that it costs approximately $25,000 to train a new policeman. With the firing of 91 probationary officers, Commissioner Pomerleau has already "thrown away" $2,275,000 in city and federal money. To immediately fill 250 vacancies, $6,250,000 will be needed.

Meanwhile, Del. John J. Gallagher (D.44th Balto.) this week, charged that Commissioner Pomerleau's reprisal actions are in direct violation of state law and immediately filled a formal complaint with state Attorney General Francis Burch.

Del. Gallagher cites that the 91 probationary officers fired by Mr. Pomerleau are protected by House Bill 354, the "Policeman's Bill of Rights. The bill states that officers cannot be fired without a hearing.

Further, in a letter to Gov. Mandel, Del. Gallagher recommended that the governor appoint an interim commissioner until Mr. Pomerleau's actions are viewed "The Commissioner has lost his ability to serve," Del. Gallagher told the AFRO.

Concerned Black Citizens continuing voter drives

Seventeen-year-olds who will be 18 by the next election are urged to register to vote NOW Also, persons who have married or changed their addresses must also register again. New residents also.

These are reminders which came this week from the voter registration committee of the Concerned Black Citizens, a new civic group organized last month.

Mrs. Helen Smith, subcommittee chairman, announced Thursday, the voter registration committee will meet as usual this Saturday 10 a.m. in the Sharp Street Community House, Dolphin and Etting Sts.

More volunteers are needed, she says, to continue the massive registration drive and give instructions to new voters on how to fill out their registration forms which can be mailed in free of charge.

In addition, the committee announced, it will have volunteers available, with voter registration information, from 6 to 9 p.m. today (Friday), in Lexington Market, where volunteers will also be on duty on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Dr. Oakley Saunders and Mrs. Grace Hines are co-chairpersons of Concerned Black Citizens, which last week sent representatives to meet with Mayor Schaefer.

During the meeting, they left with the mayor a list of grievances which they said indicated the administration's insensitivity to equal representation in appointments to boards and comissions.

In addition, the group made a special plea to the city's chief executive to express open and firm support for the efforts of Dr. Roland N. Patterson, the city school superintendent.

Insurance company robber gets 17 years

A 26-year-old man has been sentenced to 17 years in prison for robbing employees of an insurance company in the 1800 block West North Ave. last November.

Harry R. Williams, 2200 block Loudon Ave., pleaded guilty in Criminal Court before Judge Charles D. Harris.

The prosecution alleged Williams, accompanied by two others entered the office at about 2:30 p.m. and, at gun point, ordered the seven employees to lie on the floor and give up their money.

Court records show the gunmen made away with $480 in cash plus rings and other jewelry and put the victims in a back room and locked it before fleeing.

Summer camp is fun, says teen counsellor

By Wendell Sutton

(Editor's note: Mr. Sutton is a student at UMBC and a village counselor at the Baltimore YMCA Camp King's Landing in Huntingtown, Md.).

Hey, do you know where it's happening this summer? If you do, then you must be at the YMCA umust be at the YMCA King's Landing Camp where youngsters from ages 8 to 13 are participating in many types of activities.

In the junior 'girls' village, Enchanted Forest, the adorable little darlings have named their cabins after nursery rhyme characters. The cabins are: Snow White and her dwarfs, Alice and her little Wonders, Little Miss Muffet and her Tuffets, Mary and her little Lambs and Cinderella.

The junior boys, ranging in age from eight to ten years, adapted a completely different motif from the junior girls, in naming of their cabins and villages.

The junior boys' village has been crowned King Arthur's Court, while the cabins have been named for the kingly sport of chess; like the Pawns, the Knights, the Rooks and the Bishops.

As diverse as the ideas of the junior boys and girls in the naming of their villages, the intermediate boys and girls villages are as similar.

Anyone could revel on the royal splendor of the intermediate boys' village, which is dubbed, Camolot by the Sea, or rejoice in the sil-ran paradise of the intermediate girls' village, Come-a-Little.

Either one of these villages would be a delightful experience for your youngsters from ten to twelve years old.

Camp King's Landing even offers activities for boys and girls slightly older, between the ages of twelve and thirteen, in the senior villages.

The senior boys' cabin, christened King Copra Village, is nestled among the green beauty of pine, oak and elm trees, in a completely natural environment.

The girls' village, known as Greenwich, is gently tucked away in its own green splendor, where the girls have adopted the charming names of the charming names of the Amazons and Bubazons.

Once outside the separate villages, the campers participate in many activities, such as swimming, canoeing, horseback riding, hiking, relay races, scavenger hunts and campfires.

After campers have advanced in the basic skills of canoeing, there are excursions into the beautiful swamps and marshes, near the camp.

At the pool there are instructions for the beginners while the better swimmers are learning safety practices and improving their water talents.

After a day of hard play, the campers can, relax and enjoy a good movie.

If your children aren't already enrolled, send them to camp for the time of their life. Your children can attend for two, four, six or eight weeks.

It's a lot of fun here, take it from me. For more information contact: King's Landing Camp, 24 West Franklin Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21201.

The Organization for Use of the Telephone will hold its first meeting at its new meeting place, the Towson Library, on Tuesday, July 30 at 7 p.m. The new library is at 320 York Road in Towson. Everyone is invited, especially those interested in problems of the hearing-impaired. Refreshments will be served.

Old foe may support bill to collar Mr. Pomerleau

Dennis Schatzman

Delegate Paul E. Weisengoff (D. 6-th Balto.), chairman, Baltimore City Delegation, told the AFRO that he is going to seriously consider supporting a bill which would give the Mayor and City Council sole power over the city's police commissioner.

House Bill 1130, introduced last February by Del. Isaiah "Ike" Dixon (D. 38th Baltimore), was killed by Weisengoff when it reached the Baltimore City Delegation Committee.

Weisengoff told the AFRO that he let the bill die in committee because: 1. The majority of the legislature "seemed to be opposed to a change." 2. In the heat of the city school strike and with Baltimore seeking some 200 million state funds, he wanted to avoid a floor fight and "keep the spotlight off Baltimore at that time." 3. A similar bill had been killed in the House Judiciary Committee and he "seriously didn't think it would pass."

"Now I'm a little sorry that I didn't bring it out" said Del. Weisengoff in obvious reference to Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau's mass firings and punishments meted out against police officers who participated in the four-day strike two weeks ago.

Further, he agreed with Mayor Schaefer that the time for punitive reprisals to stop.

Del. Weisengoff admitted that he formerly opposed the bill. He told the AFRO, however, that he would give the bill "a complete second thought." He further said that he intends to seek the opinions of Mayor Schaefer and City Council President Walter S. Orlinsky in the near future.

Harrison M. Tuckers end marriage in divorce here

Harrison M. Tucker, 3114 Mondawmin Ave., a teacher, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Alice E. Tucker, on July 18, according to Circuit Court records. Judge John R. Hargrove signed the decree.

Judge Hargrove ordered that no right of alimony shall be accrued to the defendant, Mrs. Tucker.

Mr. Tucker filed suit against his wife Jan. 14, on the grounds that he, and she had been voluntarily separated for more than one year.

Court records show they married on July 8, 1972 and separated voluntarily sometime around Dec. 17, 1972.

A report of the court Examiner-Master, Paul H. Rome, corroborates Mr. Tucker's assertion.

The report concludes. "The parties have voluntarily lived separate and apart for more than one year and that such separation is beyond expectation of reconciliation."

Maryland law provides that married couples who separate voluntarily for one year may be granted a divorce. Mrs. Tucker resides at 3603 Bower Ave.

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

EVERY DAY 1,000 MORE CHEVROLETS ARE BOUGHT THAN ANY OTHER CAR.

IF YOU DIDN'T KNOW THAT, DOESN'T IT MAKE SENSE TO FIND OUT WHY?

Our cars. No matter how many reasons we could give you, it all comes back to our cars. They're the real reason Chevrolet's so far ahead of anybody else as usual, based on latest dealer reported sales for the 1974 model year through July 10.

Car buyers are great shoppers. They look and visit, drive and compare. And then they buy more Impalas than any other regular-size car. Paced by such favorites as Chevelle and Monte Carlo, they choose half again as many mid-size Chevrolets. And they make Vega the most popular little car in America.

Anybody could lead in one kind of car. But when you're the industry leader and have so much going for you in cars of all sizes, it's got to be more than a coincidence. It's got to be the cars.

Our selections. First, there's the kind of choice Chevrolet gives you: Caprices, Impalas, Chevy Wagons, Chevelle Malibus, Laguna Type S-3s, Monte Carlos, Novas, Camaros, Vegas, Woody Wagons and Corvettes.

Then there's the kind of choice Chevrolet dealers can give you: models, options, interiors, colors, engines—chances are they have in stock what you want, when you want it. Which is usually immediately, right? Our dealers give you the kind of advantage that their kind of volume gives them.

We want to sell cars. You want to save money. It's that simple. We call it our Year-End Savings Plan. Every year about this time Chevrolet dealers really pull out the stops to make buying a new car a nice thing to do. And an easy thing on your budget.

The 1974 model year is drawing to a close. It's the time of the year a lot of smart car buyers purposely wait for. And they sure won't be disappointed this year. Selections are huge right now. And you'll find one outstanding value after another.

See your Chevy dealer some day this week. That's the day we're planning on being able to say 1,001 more Chevrolets were bought than any other car.
