Tenant-landlord workshop July 27

On Saturdays, July 27 and Aug. 3, from 12 noon to 2 p.m., there will be a two-part training and information workshop on tenant-landlord problems.

This workshop is geared to help those in the Park Heights and Reisterstown corridors, from Park Circle north.

It is hoped that enough people knowledgeable in the present housing situation will emerge from this workshop to serve as neighborhood resource people on their individual blocks.

The agenda will consist of an overview of the role of HCD in Pimlico; the rights and responsibilities of tenants and landlords; major and minor housing code violations; the procedure used in filing a complaint, and the internal path a complaint takes, including "red tape" "tricks of the trade" that landlords use to avoid compliance with notices.

The Aug. 3 agenda will consist of a thorough explanation by Legal Aid Staff members of rent escrow, retaliatory eviction, procedure for paying utility bills, etc.

The workshops are sponsored by the St. Ambrose Housing Aid Center and will be held at the St. Ambrose Outreach Center, 345 Park Heights Ave. All community residents are welcome, and there is no charge.

Register to vote

Where were you?, a 28-minute film, will be shown free at the Waverly Branch of the Pratt Library, 400 E. 33rd St. on Monday, July 29 at 8 p.m. or at the Ralph Young Junior High School, 1427 N. Caroline St. on Wednesday, July 31 at 8 p.m.

If Baltimore is to have responsible and responsive elected officials for city, state and federal positions, then the facts presented in this film must be understood and dealt with.

Register by Aug. 12 in order to vote in the Sept. 10 primary. Intelligent voting decreases the incidence of "Watergates," fraud, injustice and other political corruption.

Learn how to use the voting machine and have your questions answered at the above meetings which are jointly sponsored by your Baltimore Branch NAACP, the General and Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and the Metropolitan Baltimore Central AFL-CIO unions.

Free refreshments will be served.

the first step for brides...

There's the music. As you smooth out the same non-existent crease in your dress for the umpteenth time in the last ten minutes, you can't imagine why the flowers in your bouquet won't keep still. The guests are turning to catch that first glimpse of you in white. Okay ... take Dad's arm ... you're ready.

And with that first step down the aisle, somehow all the flutter and confusion of the day will fade into the moment. Thanks to a little help from your family and friends ... and Hutzler's, the store that makes it just a bit easier to be a bride. Because for all those little steps that lead up to the big one, Hutzler's is there.

You couldn't be happier with your selection of our empire A-line gown, accented with pretend-pearls and peau d'ange lace. The sheer pointed sleeves, the added fullness of the train, the bouffant veil ... a Hutzler-exclusive in Baltimore. In white or ivory satin, $205*

As for the details ... Hutzler's Bridal Staff was there to help with everything from the wedding cake to the trousseau, and the Bridal Gift Registry made shopping so much easier for your family and friends. With that new home in your near future, it's nice to have a professional decorator to consult at Hutzler's Dream Maker House.

But at a time like this, the people at Hutzler's and all the details they handled for you couldn't be further from your mind. And you know something? Hutzler's wouldn't have it any other way on your wedding day.

Well, this is it ... Arthur is looking a little pale standing there at the altar. And you ... you're looking absolutely radiant! Here goes. Here comes the bride.

In Memoriam

AGURS — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES W. AGURS, who passed away July 29, 1968:
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair,
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once sat there.
Loving Wife,
HILDA E. AGURS.

BUCKNER — In remembrance of the death of our mother, MRS. BEULAH E. BUCKNER, who passed away July 29, 1961:
Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye,
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.

GARDNER — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, ROBERT LEE GARDNER, who passed away July 24, 1969:

He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare —
A husband and father as dear as you.
Loving Wife —
