AFRO teen editor, summer reporter to Pomona College in September

AFRO teen columnist and summer City Desk reporter, Bryan D. Hoit, will enter Pomona College, Claremont, Calif. in September, where he will major in theater arts.

He is a 1974 honor graduate of Douglass High School where he was active in the arts and known as a student leader.

Bryan is a member of the Modern Music Masters and Scholarship Club Honor societies. He received many awards from the school including the Mary West Miller Drama Award, Robert H. Brooks American Legion Award for Citizenship, and two gold medals for involvement in school activities. He is also the recipient of a $2,600 scholarship from Pomona and a $300 scholarship from the NAACP Oratorical Contest.

Bryan is a member of the Friendship Baptist Church, where he helped to organize the Youth Department and was its first president.

He looks upon his experiencts at the AFRO favorably. He says, "It's unbelievable what rapport this paper has with the black community. They become just as involved as the reporters.

"I made it under some tough supervisors and editors and with some good reporters and they've taught me a lot about journalism. The most important thing to me is the fact that I've had the chance to meet and relate to so many people."

Bryan is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. (Margaret) Holt. He has an older brother, Charles Jr., an employee at the Municipal Post Office and a younger sister, Allixon, a senior at Southwestern.

* * *

When asked about future intentions, Bryan replies, "I want to entertain. I don't want to be tagged as a singer, or a dancer, or a writer because I enjoy it all and with the help of God, I will continue to do so."

You can get SS records at .10 a copy

Social Security Commissioner James B. Cardwell has lowered costs of obtaining copies of records kept by the Social Security Administration, a drop from 25 cents to 10 cents a page in the cost of buying copies.

Additional copies purchased as part of the same request will cost 5 cents a page. The minimum fee will be $1, so that any request amounting to less will be free of charge.

The new fee schedule is in line with that of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

NEWSMAKERS are (right) Congressmen John Conyers (D-Michigan) and Lawrence Hogan (R-Maryland) both members of the House Judicial Committee. Rep. Conyers one of the three black members made an impressive summary and at the conclusion of last week's debates while Hogan, candidate for governor of Maryland, deserted Nixon Republicans to lead the vote for impeachment of "My President."

Mr. Umphery named to CICHA campaign

The United Fund of Central Maryland today announced the appointment of E. Robert Umphery as the Vice-Chairman for the 1974 United Fund-CICHA campaign in the city school system.

Mr. Umphery is the Administrative Assistant to Dr. Roland N. Patterson, the superintendent of Baltimore City Schools. Dr. Patterson is also the chairman of the city school campaign for the United Fund and CICHA.

Mr. Umphery will assist in the coordination of campaign activities among all employees of the Department of Education, Dr. Patterson said.

Long active in community affairs, Mr. Umphery's career has been highlighted by his involvement with several United Fund agencies. He has served on the Board of Governors of the Citizens Planning and Housing Association and he is a former Regional Director of the membership campaign for the YMCA.

CICHA sets affirmative action panel

CICHA and its member agencies will organize an affirmative action committee of agency representatives to develop an affirmative action program similar to that of the United Fund.

The United Fund's plan has been cited nationally as a model program for other United Way organizations.

The Fund and CICHA Affirmative Action programs will be monitored by a special committee involving both organizations and the Greater Baltimore Committee.

* * *

The two largest federated fund-raising organizations in the Central Maryland area, the United Fund and CICHA, have agreed to conduct a combined annual campaign starting this fall.

The agreement was announced Friday by the Greater Baltimore Committee following more than six months of negotiations. At least three previous attempts at combining the annual appeals have failed.

The United Fund of Central Maryland last fall raised almost $12 million in support of its 83 member organizations. The campaign set local and national goals for the United Fund.

The last campaign for CICHA raised just over one million dollars, a new record for the federation which represents 13 national health agencies.

Judge Barnes lashes Mandel on cronyism

Judge Wilson K. Barnes questioned ties between the cover-up of the Bay Bridge cost overruns by a Committee headed by State Sen. Roy Staten (D-7th) and the appointment of a Staten crony to the Baltimore County School Board.

"The report on the Bay Bridge cost overruns was originally set to be released August 1. Staten recently stated the report would be delayed until mid-November. "Up to $53,000,000 in taxpayers money may be involved," Judge Barnes pointed out.

Gov. Mandel, in appointing Joseph N. McGowan, a Staten crony, to the school board, rejected Dr. Theodore C. Patterson, who had been recommended by a nonpartisan citizens coalition. Dr. Patterson would have been the first black member of the Baltimore County School Board.

"This is just one example of cronyism and old-guard politics operating at the expense of the citizens. This kind of behavior has become a hallmark of the Mandel Administration." Judge Barnes said.

"Once again Mandel has rejected the citizens' advice and turned his back on a qualified, able candidate for appointment, to bow and scrape to the boys in the back room," he said.

MRS. DORA BAILEY celebrated her 88th birthday on July 4. Mrs. Bailey lives with her daughter in the 500 block Mt. Holly St. She is the mother of six children, 14 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

REGINALD THOMAS, formerly director of Student Activities at the University of Baltimore, has been named director of the Counseling Center at the urban university by Edward Fritz, vice president for Student Services.

Mr. Jones joins Air Guard

Alfonso L. Jones of the 5000 block Palmer Ave., has enlisted in the 175th Tactical Fighter Group, Maryland Air National Guard.

Airman Jones, a 1972 graduate of Edmondson High School, has been assigned duties as Aircraft Electrical Repairman with the Middle River based Consolidated Aircraft Maintenance Squadron.

He will be sent to basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. With this training completed he will return to his unit to progress in the very interesting field of craft electricity.

Airman Jones is one of the recent non-prior service enlistments into the Air Guard.

Unit spokesmen advised many part-time career opportunities as well as educational programs are available for persons without prior military service. For information call 687-6270, extension 8 for details.

Willie Brown granted a divorce

Willie James Brown, 2300 blk. Druid Hill Ave., has been granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Thirthee Brown.

Judge Meyer M. Cardin signed the decree July 24. The couple was married in November, 1957 in Gulonia, Ga. and has three children.

Court records state the Browns separated in 1962. According to court records, Mr. Brown has agreed to pay $11.33 per child weekly for their support.

Mr. Brown has reasonable visitation rights and has the right to claim the infant children as an exemption on his federal and state income tax.

It was mutual desire of the couple that they shall each maintain and support themselves separately and independently of the other.

The couple divided between them to their mutual satisfaction, all of their clothing, personal effects, household furnishings and furniture.

Teacher gets divorce

Mrs. Barbara Jean Manning, a teacher, has been granted a divorce from her husband, Gerald Ernest Manning.

Mrs. Manning of N. Bentalou St. has custody of their only son. The couple was married March 3, 1971 in Highpoint, N.C. and separated February 16, 1972.

Mrs. Manning claims she was a kind, faithful and affectionate wife. Her husband lives in the 3600 block Loch Raven Blvd. and is employed at Logical Technical Services and earns wages in excess of $150 week.

Court record state, although Mrs. Manning conducted herself as a kind and proper wife, Mr. Manning deserted her without just cause or reason.

Accounting from the date of the decree July 16, signed by Judge John A. Hargrove, Mr. Manning shall pay $25.75 per week and has the right to see his son at all reasonable times.
