Receptions honor Governor and Cheryl Alice Winston

BY MARIE P. COOKE
AFRO Women's Editor

Two Sundays ago hundreds of folks in this town saw two of the prettiest receptions given during this season . . . the Ladies Democratic Guild honored Gov. Marvin Mandel and Mrs. Delores Winston feted her daughter, Cheryl Alice.

Mrs. Winston entitled her daughter's afternooner "Sunday Interlude" and guests say it was just that.

The setting for the gathering was the Holiday Inn, Belmont, which found some 100 well-wishers in attendance. Peach and orange candlelit tables, glowing fountains and floral arrangements complemented the cozy and intimate atmosphere.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Marilyn Brown. She was assisted by Mrs. Delores Johnson and Mrs. Delores Mann. Mrs. Delores Silva presented each guest to the receiving line.

Hostesses and members of the receiving line carried out the afternoon's color scheme . . . lovely in peach attire.

Cheryl was beautiful that day . . looking as radiant as she did the night she made her debut at the Me-De-So cotillion. Her princess line gown of white silk organza featured long sleeves and a high neckline. It was accented with daisy appliques encrusted with seed pearls which flowed to the edge of the hemline and borders. She carried a bouquet of peach and orange carnations and sweetheart roses in a white basket.

Members of the receiving line were her mother, Mrs. Winston, who was charming in a peach gown accentuated by crystal; the deb's younger sister, Karen, also in peach; Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Shelton and the Me-De-So sponsors, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Christmas.

Music for the reception was provided by the internationally renowned mezzo soprano, Mrs. Delores Jones accompanied by Mrs. Patricia Stringer on the piano and William Haithcock on the violin.

Miss Winston is a student at Morgan State majoring in speech. In addition, she is a former member of the Xino's of Phi Delta Kappa Sorority. She has studied ballet under Danny Diamond and has been a participant in the musical Theatre Workshop at Morgan.

Mandel reception

Mrs. Kitty Mueller, president of the Democratic Ladies Guild said Gov. Marvin Mandel "looked as if a peach had kissed him on the cheek" at the reception her group gave two Sundays ago.

She said his complexion glowed . . glistened.

The Guild honored him at the Callaway Ave. home of Mrs. Mueller where the setting was her spacious back yard lawn where some 200 plus guests filled the premises to its capacity. Orange geraniums and four 6-foot tables covered with orange cloths added even more beauty to the natural surroundings.

Gov. Mandel felt at home at the gathering. He was on home-grounds . . . he is originally from the old 5th district.

Buster Brown strolled the grounds, playing dinner and chamber music while guests helped themselves to pick-me-ups, martinis and other beverages.

Mrs. Mueller said the afternooner was not a political affair. There were no speeches and no receiving line.

The honoree milled around in the crowd, shook hands with the guests and just relaxed. He was particularly handsome that day in his blue-grey sharkskin summer suit. He was accompanied by Comptroller Louis Goldstein.

Members of the guild are:

Garden Party

The Citizens Committee for Black History Exhibits met recently to complete plans for the Garden Party to be held in the garden of the Carroll Mansion at 800 W. Lombard St.

The party, Sunday, Aug. 11, 5 p.m., promises to be a fund-raising affair in the grand manner. Beautiful gowns, garden hats, mini-fashion shows by Pauline Brooks and Michael Newton, music by the Urban Services Agency Theatre Arts Ensemble will provide an exciting early evening.

Models for the fashion show will be Irvine Williams, the Wilson Sisters, Deborah Lottier, Diane Richardson.

Hosts are Joseph C. Howard Jr., Peter Welch, Lanier Braxton, John Braxton III and Robert McDaniel.

Hostesses are the Harris Sisters, Judy Dorsey and Diane Hudgins.

The board members of the Citizens Committee are the fund raisers and the sponsors of the Garden Party which will help fund the next exhibit in the Old Town Friends Meeting House.

Members of the board are Mrs. Kelly Jackson, chairperson; Mr. Clarence Gregory, co-chairperson; Dr. Beryl Williams, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, Committee on Resources; the Rev. Melvin Chester Swann, Committee on Finance and Sponsors.

Also, Mrs. Pearl C. Brackett, Mrs. Thelma Cox, Mrs. Glenford Dudley, Walter Fisher, Dr. Walter N. Gannt, Clarence J. Gittings, Dr. Chester W. Gregory, Mrs. Philathea Carter Hall, general chairperson of the Garden Party.

And, Marshall W. Jones Jr., Dr. Roland C. McConnell, Herbert E. Nutter, Mrs. Ida Murphy Peters, Mrs. Daniel T. Skinner, Mrs. Jean Fisher Turpin, Dr. Benjamin Quarles.

Assisting from the Commission on Negro History and Culture are: Mrs. Phyllis Hathaway and from The Peale, Mr. Wilbur Hunter.

The Citizens Committee was organized in 1970 as an affiliate of the Peale Museum. Previous exhibits were loose leaves from the Pages of History, Black Artists Abroad and the Negro in Medicine in Maryland (an exhibit which is still traveling to hospitals and schools in Maryland).

Professional archivist for the Citizens Committee is Miss Karen Freeman, visiting specialist at the Peale Museum who will be preparing the exhibit for 1975-1976.

A native of Baltimore, Miss Freeman attended Eastern High School and will graduate from the Johns Hopkins University with a major in Art History. Under a student program, she worked at the Peale in summer, 1973, and January, 1974, and was recommended to continue in the grant for this special Peale Project.

She became so excited about prints and other materials on blacks in Baltimore that it will be the subject of the coming forth exhibit of the Citizens for Black History Exhibits.

Vacation notes

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Medley and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emmanual Whiting of Washington, D.C. took off for a stay in Hawaii on Monday.

Leaving for Los Angeles will be Mrs. Sarah Rose, Dr. Lillian Dearing, Mrs. Hortense Franklin, Miss Elsie Bowser and Mrs. Glynda Hill. Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Rose will attend the Sigma Gamma Rho Boule at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. After the boule, the group will fly to Las Vegas and enjoy the excitement at the Flamingo.

Mrs. Alois Holiday takes off in just a few days to Jamaica, Montego Bay for a fabulous fling with a group of friends for a week.

LADIES RECEIVE MANDEL — The Democratic Ladies' Guild held a patio reception honoring Maryland Governor Mandel Sunday at the home of Mrs. Catherine (Kitty) Mueller, 3706 Callaway Ave. A host of prominent Baltimoreans and elected officials attended the gala soiree. In the background stands Paul L. Chester, clerk, Court of Common Pleas.

Columbia Capers

By Pinnel L. Ross
AFRO Columnist

Thirty-two talented young ladies competed for the national title of Hat Jackson's Miss U.S. Talented Teen at Town Hall, New York City, recently.

Among the beauties was Columbia's Terri Hill, who was the Maryland titlist among 21 lovely contestants.

Miss Hill was accompanied to the national finals by Mrs. Jerri Callaway, special assistant to Maurice (Hot Rod) Hulbert, state director.

The enjoyable five full days of competition and social activities included a visit to the United Nations, press conference, Broadway tours and many others, which culminated in the final pageant activities.

Terri became very popular with the contestants because of her gregarious personality and outgoing friendliness. Her glowing magnetism caused the contestants to congregate in her New York suite at the close of each day's activity.

Although Terri was not among the five semi-finalists, her friendliness and love extended to those contestants by her assisting and offering words of encouragement during the final phase of the pageant. Miss Oklahoma remarked that Terri had taught her in a short period of time to be loving and unselfish even during the moments of high competitiveness.

The winner of the national title was Denise Dumaine, Miss Missouri.

One of the highlights of the pageant activity was Edna Hill's stirring comments and salutation, which outlined her activities as the Queen 1973-74 as she represented all teenagers in a wide variety of activities during her past year, and her stirring charge to the new queen.

The audience demonstrated appreciation for her remarks by three standing ovations. She gave thanks and praise to her national, state, and local sponsors before an audience of 1,500 people.

The fact that both Terri and Edna were sponsored by this writer had impact in their relationship with their fellow contestants.

After the pageant there was a reception given in the Grand Ballroom of the New York Sheraton in honor of the contestants with invitations being extended to parents, sponsors, and chaperones. The group danced and socialized until midnight.

The Hill family retired to their fabulous penthouse suite for continuous festivities. It was a beautiful evening and quite a surprise for our Terri. As she entered the door of the penthouse suite, she was embraced by all and words uttered from the guests, "You are our special queen," she was presented a bouquet of red roses by her sister Donna, then the big champagne toast of the evening came to a special young lady who will always wear an invisible national crown in addition to her state crown.

FOOD, name it and the Hills had it, special covered salads, cold cuts, fried chicken, dessert (cuff note) — it was simply beautiful and tasty.

The guests included Mrs. Beatrice Green, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William L. Brown Jr., Mr. William L. Brown III, Tracy Brown, Mr. William Hamilton Jr.,

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Congae, Keith and Dale Congae, Howard University; Mr. and Mrs. Elma McDonald, New Rochelle, New York; Mrs. Halese Reid, New York City; Miss Teen Nevada, Kansas, Indiana, Illinois, Miss Oklahoma, Mrs. Jerri Callaway, and many others.

After the pageant, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hill (Ethel), parents of Terri, flew to Miami Beach to attend the AKA's Convention. (By the way, Ethel is the president of the Columbia Chapter AKA and the only black representative on the Wilde Lake Village Board. Mr. Hill is Chief of Personnel at Social Security, Baltimore, as well as being a psychologist.)

Terri is now vacationing in Balboa Coral Zone for one month.

This poem was received by this writer as an expression of thanks from a contestant who participated in a recently sponsored pageant and I would like to share it with the readers of this column.

"I've never seen God, but I know how you feel . . .
It's people like you who make him 'so real' . . .
My God is no stranger, He's friendly and gay . . .
And he doesn't ask me to weep
when I pray . . .
It seems that I meet him so often each day. In faces of people I meet on my way . . .
He's the stars in the heaven,
A smile on some face,
A leaf on a tree, or a rose in a vase
He's winter and autumn
and summer and spring,
In short, 'God is every real wonderful thing' . . .
I wish I might meet him much more then I do — and I would — you."

Holliday clan reunited

The Holliday family was reunited and the thoughts behind the first annual reunion was to "give them their roses while they could still smell them."

Members of the Holliday clan, especially the ten children, traveled back to their hometown in Greenville, N.C., where it was decided that three years from that time the family would hold this festive gathering.

The reunion was held in the Maryland area. Festivities began Friday with a buffet dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coaches McGlone, Wheaton, Md.

Saturday a picnic at the Bradbury Hills Recreation Park was followed by a pastry party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Holliday, Columbia, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Holliday coordinated the picnic.

Sunday the family worshipped at the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Rockville, Md. where they received special recognition and prayer by Rev. Houston G. Brooks, pastor. In the early afternoon the group ate dinner at the Hula Hut Restaurant in Wheaton, Md.

Each of the children presented the parents with gifts and flowers and made verbal expressions of their appreciation to their parents.

During their childhood, these children were taught to love as a family. They were also encouraged to make their lives successful and useful. With this goal in mind, Mr. and Mrs. James Holliday provided for and encouraged each of their children to attend college or learn a trade.

Kappas give to community

Baltimore Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, William Franklins, Polemarch, announced at a recent meeting, that as a result of the Kappas successful Las Vegas Charity Ball, the Chapter was able to contribute to four organizations in the Baltimore Community. The organizations receiving funds are: the Committee for the Preservation of Orchard Street Church; the Louis Harmon Memorial Funds for the summer camp at Kings Landing; the Senior Citizens Group of Lafayette Square Multi-Purpose Center and the James Mosher Little League. Each organization will receive Five Hundred Dollars with the exception of the James Mosher League which will receive Four Hundred Dollars as a portion of an on-going pledge.

The Las Vegas Charity Ball was held this year on March 8 at a Dogwood Rd. hall. It was the Kappa's Fourth Annual affair and by far its most successful, with more than 800 people in attendance. In addition to the many local Baltimoreans and out-of-town guests, several members of the National Grand Board of Directors of the Fraternity were present. They included Dr. Elbert E. Allen, Grand Polemarch from Shreveport, La.; Dr. William L. Crump, Grand Historian, from Washington, D.C.; Executive Secretary Earl A. Morris of Philadelphia; Dr. Arthur L. Carter of Indianapolis, Indiana; Joseph F. Harris, Junior Grand Vice-Polemarch; and Joseph Burton, Polemarch, Washington Alumni Chapter.

Those serving on the committee for the Las Vegas affair included Howard L. Tutman Jr., Chairman; Dr. Robert Young, William Hankins, James Watkins, Walter Pickett, Augustus Chase, James Dingle, Randolph Edwards, Enoch Hood, William Matthews and Norman Ross.

The Kappas are eagerly looking forward to the next Las Vegas Charity Ball which is scheduled to be held on March 7, 1975 at the same Dogwood Rd. hall.
